THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL XII WILMINGTON, N. C. WEDNESDAY, MAY 30, 1888. NO 129.

The senior admiral of the British navy, Sir Provo Wallis, is 100 years old.

Aubertin, the man who shot Jules Ferry, has been declared insane and put in an asylum.

The largest iron casting ever attempted in America was recently made at Bethlehem, Pa. It was the base for the steel compressor to be used in the new gun steel works, and 124 tons of molten metal were used. It will be some weeks before the huge casting will be cool enough to examine.

Fifteen of the seventy-eight members of the graduating class of the Sheffield Scientific School at Yale earned their own living while taking the course of instruction. Some worked on farms during vacation, some sold books, some taught school, and some acted as waiters in summer hotels, while one man drew beer at a summer resort, receiving a salary of $8 per week for his services.

In respect of patronage the position of postmaster general is now the most important in the Cabinet.
The 50,000 postmasters who are responsible for their appointment to the chief of the department are supplemented by an immense number of clerks who serve at Washington, on the railroads and as examiners and inspectors all over the country, and the postmaster general is to the people at large almost as influential a man as the President himself.

Little Wales has begun again to produce gold in paying quantities, though a drawback to the gold-mining industry is found in an old law that requires one-fortieth of the product to go to the State. A cablegram announces a new discovery of gold, which is described as "rich." The gold mines of Wales were worked many centuries ago, but until recently the industry has been suspended.

The decision of Judge Wallace, in the United States Circuit Court at Syracuse, N. Y., in the case of the Rev. E. Walpole Warren, of New York and England, is a warning to the clergy of Great Britain and Ireland who would like to better their condition in this land of the brave.
Judge Wallace holds that alien clergymen are not exempt from the statute against imported contract labor.

Blakely Hall cabled to the New York Sun from Paris that he had just seen Mr. Blaine at the Hotel Benda and "it is impossible to imagine a more perfect picture of mature, dignified, genial and robust manhood than Mr. Blaine presented as he stood near one of the big windows amusingly watching a street incident on the snail Avenue de l'Opera below." Mr. Blaine will come back to the United States about the middle of July. He refused to talk about the Presidency.

A company is now being formed in London to bridge the English Channel from Dover to Calais. The bridge is to be 20 miles long, 160 feet above the level of the sea and the span between piers is to be 1,600 feet.
It will carry four lines of railway track and the cost is estimated at £32,000,000. It is to be constructed entirely of iron in open work, combining lightness and strength and offering the slightest surface to the sea. It will require 2,000,000 tons of iron and can be built in six years.

It is announced that Mr. Edwin Booth has purchased the residence of Mrs. Clarkson N. Potter, in Grammercy Park, New York, for the use of the recently-organized Players' Club of that city, possession to be given next fall. The club's theatrical library will contain many interesting and valuable works relating to the stage and rare old manuscripts, many of which have been donated by Mr. Booth from his private collection. It will be an object of the club to perpetuate the fame of noted actors and playwrights of the present day by preserving records of their achievements. The membership will be restricted to 250.

Rock Crystal Spectacles and Eyeglasses.
Advice to old and young: In selecting spectacles you should be cautious not to take more magnifying power than has been lost to the eye as in the same proportion that you pass that point of increase, will cause you further injury to the eye. Using glasses of stronger power than is necessary is the daily cause of premature old age to the sight. You can get the best at Heinsberger's.

Accounted For.
A great many of our citizens and especially our business men are complaining of the delay in fixing the principal thoroughfares of the city since the laying of the street railroad track and the manner in which the work is being done.

The complaint is a just one but is easily accounted for, we think, by the fact that the law prohibits tearing up the streets after June 1st and hence every exertion has been made to get through with the grading within the prescribed time.

Agents for Mr. J. L. Stone's music

State. He is prepared to furnish the citizens of this city and section with first-class instruments at low chaser. Mr. Stone has the exclusive agency for the celebrated Emerson pianos and has already sold several of them here.

THE STATE CONVENTION.

A Steady and Determined Fight Predicted—Stedman and Fowle Both Confident —Alexander in Good Trim—The Dark Horse Indistinctly Outlined.
[Sp. Corr. Daily Review.]

RALEIGH, N. C., May 29th, '88
The delegates to the State Democratic Convention, called to nominate the gubernatorial ticket, are arriving by every incoming train, in large numbers, and the indications are that the Convention tomorrow will be large and exciting.
Every arrangement has been made for the comfortable entertainment of delegates and Stronach's tobacco warehouse is the place of assembly.
It is provided with seats and is decorated in handsome style with bunting. The weather is intensely hot, but this does not seem to exhaust the prevailing enthusiasm manifested by each faction for its favorite candidate.

Speculations as to the Gubernatorial nominations are made on all hands to-day, but it is impossible to predicate a reliable opinion as to the successful candidate.

The Fowle and Stedman clans are equally confident and base their calculations, they say, upon carefully collected data.

The Fowle men claim to be able to cast on the first ballot 457 votes and enough to nominate their candidate on the second ballot. Stedman claims on the first ballot 397 votes, with a probable addition of 60 votes more, and concedes Fowle 330 votes, the balance going to Alexander. His friends are to-day jubilant over the prospect for him, claiming he will lead in the start, and receive the nomination on the second or third ballot. He is the second choice of a number of Alexander's counties, for instance, Mecklenburg, Union, Chatham and others, and it does look that when Alexander's name is withdrawn, Stedman will go through.
However, the Alexander men are a determined set, and his name is not likely to be withdrawn until late in the fight, and the "dark horse" is freely predicted.

The Alexander sentiment is strong, as far as it goes, but it does not seem enough to nominate him.
Fowle's strength is enthusiastic and formidable. The Stedman men evidently propose to stick to the bitter end, and as this seems also Fowle's determination, the result is in Alexander's hands, and upon his action will depend Stedman's or Fowle's success. One thing is assured; it is generally conceded here that Maj. Stedman will make the most aggressive fight of the three; and this is telling in his favor, and with the able management which characterizes his canvass here, it is evident that if either one of the leading candidates is nominated, it will be Stedman. His danger lies in the "dark horse." Clark, Carr and Gilmer are spoken of as the probable compromise candidates.

Interest is concentrated upon the Gubernatorial race chiefly, as it is conceded on all hands that Saunders, Secretary of State, Bain, Treasurer, and Davidson, Attorney General, will be renominated by acclamation. Gen. Roberts, the present Auditor, will be opposed by Melver, of Moore county, and Sanderlin, of Duplin, but probably without success. Judge Shepherd and Judge Avery appear in the lead for the nomination to the Supreme bench, but the sentiment over these nominations is not yet crystallized.

The Fourth Congressional district met here to-day and nominated by acclamation Benj. H. Bunn for Congress. This is said to be a wise and popular nomination. He is a man of eloquence and ability.

Rev. Mr. Creasy in Greensboro.

The Raleigh News and Observer says: "The annual commencement sermon before the graduating class of Greensboro Female College was preached on Sunday morning at West Market Street Methodist church in that city by the Rev. W.
S. Creasy, of Wilmington. Those who were present speak in terms of highest commendation of the effort.
Mr. Creasy is a most talented and gifted young divine of the North Carolina Conference, and is rapidly becoming known as one of the strongest preachers in his church.
His preaching has the true inspiration of genuine eloquence.

Badly Hurt.
Mr. Thomas Lupo, of this city, while at work yesterday morning on Capt. Manning's new pavilion, at Wrightsville Sound, stepped on a board, which broke with him and he fell across a base board, severely injuring himself. He was so badly hurt that it was found necessary to bring him to the city. It is feared that he has received some internal injuries.

Another excursion about the harbor on the Passport to-morrow evening. It is a good opportunity to cool off and get a breath of fresh air after the labors of a hot day.

CONVENTION HALL.

RALEIGH, May 30, 1:33 p. m.
The Democratic State Convention was called to order to-day at 12 o'clock by Hon. R. H. Battle, Chairman of the State Executive Committee, and a temporary organization was effected with J. Turner Morehead, of Rockingham, as Chairman and R. M. Furman, of the Asheville Citizen, and three other newspaper men as secretaries.
Committees on Credentials were appointed and it was found that every county in the State was represented. There is an immense assembly in the Hall, estimated anywhere from 1,500 to 3,000.

A permanent organization was effected with Gen. W. R. Cox, of Wake, as Chairman, and R. M. Furman, of Buncombe, as Secretary.

The Convention was addressed by Gov. Seales and Gen. Cox in rousing speeches, which were applauded to the echo. Nominating speeches are now being made.

The gubernatorial contest overshadows everything. Stedman and Fowle delegates are both confident and Alexander is backed by resolute and enthusiastic supporters. Alexander holds the key to the situation.

Reliable estimates put Stedman in the lead. His friends are enthusiastic, united and determined and it is predicted that Stedman and Alexander will be the ticket.

CONVENTION HALL, 1:45 P. M.

As I write nominations are being made.

Judge Fowle has just been nominated by W. A. Branch, of Beaufort, Capt. Alexander by Hon. Walter L.
Steele, of Richmond, and Maj. Stedman by Mr. H. A. Gudger, of Buncombe. Mr. Gudger's speech was brilliant and magnificent and called forth the most intense enthusiasm.
The Convention is now about to ballot.

The result of the first ballot is as follows:
Fowle..... 376
Stedman..... 349
Alexander..... 236
Total..... 961 Necessary to a choice 481. The Convention is now proceeding to a second ballot and the result will not be announced in time for your paper.

Iolanthe in Raleigh.

A Wilmingtonian who was in Raleigh last Friday night and witnessed the amateur performance of Iolanthe in that city, writes us as follows in regard to the presentation. His letter ought to have appeared on Monday, but it was delayed:

While lying over here last evening I enjoyed the same very much by attending Iolanthe, played by amateurs of this city, for the benefit of the Governor's Guard. The singing—most of it—was very good and the young ladies were just "too sweet for anything." They looked like real fairies. Mr. Jas. N. Anderson, formerly of Wilmington, played the "Lord Chancellor," and too much cannot be said in praise of his acting, for he sang exceedingly well and acted even better. Miss Abbie Smith, as "Iolanthe," was pretty and her singing and acting were very good. It is hardly necessary to mention the other names, as they are strangers to your readers, but I would speak of Miss Upchurch, as "Phyllis." Too much cannot be said of her excellent portrayal of the character. She was very sweet looking and her singing and acting brought forth repeated encores, as did also those of Mr. Anderson.

Personal.

Rt. Rev. A. A. Watson, D. D., returned to the city last night from Fayetteville.

Mr. Jno. S. James returned to the city this morning from Charlotte where he has been on a visit to his

Rev. P. H. Hoge returned to the city last night from attendance on the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church which has been in session at Baltimore.

Master John Gurkins, a lad 14 years of age, and brother-in-law of Mr. G. W. Bornemann, of this city, is expected here to-day on the steamer Benefactor, from New York, and will take up his residence here. He has just arrived in New York from Germany.

9th at Six Forks, near Burgaw.

As we write a large number are wending their way to the National Cemetery, at the Eastern end of Market street, where the usual services on Decoration Day will be carried out.

Intense interest has been manifested here to-day in the result of the nomination for Governor and everything else has been subordinated to it.
