The majority of the ills of the human body arise from a diseased Liver. A Simon's Liver Regulator has been the means of restoring more people to health and happiness by giving them a healthy Liver than any other agency on earth.

The inspector of butcheries in Paris reports that the consumption of horse flesh has increased to an extraordinary extent.

Our Wake county friends have three out of the seven names on the State ticket and the "Metropolitan" district, represented in Congress by a Republican, has just four out of the seven. And still they are not happy.

The result of the Royal Society's borings in the delta of the Nile up to the present time is to prove that no rock exists at a depth of 345 feet at Zagazig; at a depth of 45 feet at Kasrel Nil; at 84 feet at Kaf Zayat; or at 73 feet at Tantau.

The eleventh World's Conference of Young Men's Christian Associations is to be held in Stockholm this summer. These Conferences are usually held once in three years.
The last was in Berlin in the summer of 1884.

Contrary to the general showing during Presidential years, immigration shows an increase over 1887, the comparative figures being for the ten months ended May 1 last year and this year, 334,068 in 1887, and 372,900 in 1888.

They are having hard work to find hard pan for the foundations of the new bridge across the Thames at East New London, Conn. They have put spiles down 113 feet, and have not got to solid earth yet. It is thought that bottom will be reached at about 130 feet.

The British legation in Washington has been taught that the horse has some rights in this country which even titled Englishmen must respect. Last week a member of the legation had his horses' tails docked in the English fashion, and was fined $250 in each case.

John E. Burton, a successful autograph hunter, of Milwaukee, has in his collection the autographs of every President of the United States, from Washington down to Cleveland. He also possesses a note given by George Washington to pay for his pew rent in the church that he attended at Alexandria.

London royalty is about to organize a charitable fete in imitation of that carried to success by the Princess Metternich in Vienna. The three little Princesses of Wales are to appear as Yum-Yum, Pitti Sing and Peep-Bo in "The Mikado" trio.
A Scotch ballet will be danced by titled ladies and it will wind up with a pantomime in which all the players will take part.

Why should every Democratic Convention be held in Raleigh?
Candidates who go there go handicapped. The "Metropolitans" take what they want, (nearly two thirds this time) and then turn over the pitiful remainder to be fought for by outsiders. Let the next Convention be held in Asheville or Charlotte or Greensboro or Newbern or Wilmington, and give somebody else a chance.

For twenty-three years in succession Isaac Richmond, a North Carolina colored man, has won the prize in his neighborhood as the most skilful curer of the tobacco leaf. He has just disposed of his last year's crop at 38 cents a pound, which is at the rate of $200 per acre.
This successful colored planter owns an excellent plantation, but still remains with the gentleman who formerly owned him.

A New York store advertises as the newest thing out its "patent children's knee pads." The history of the pads is interesting. A Northern New Hampshire woman, with boys who would go through the knees of their knickerbockers and stockings faster than she could mend them, in a moment of inspiration fitted some soft leather smoothly over the knees of two of her boys.
A summer visitor saw the scheme and adopted it for her boys, and so the pads went out into the world, and now somebody has patented the New Hampshire woman's idea, and is making money out of it.

A study of the ballots of the late Convention is interesting. The Sixth district stood up nobly for its man, as did also the Cape Fear section, with the exception of Bladen county. In the last ballot Maj. Stedman got 11 out of 13 in Anson, 3 out of 7 in Bladen, all of Brunswick, all of Columbus, all of Cumberland, all but 2.75 in Duplin, half of Harnett, 10 out of 12 in Moore, all of New Hanover, all but 1.80 of Onslow, all of Pender, all of Richmond, all of Robeson, 10 out of 17 in Sampson, all of Stanly, all of Union, and 20 out of 25 in Mecklenburg. This exhibit is a very gratifying one.

LT.-GOV. STEDMAN.
EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:—As splendid as the conduct was of Lt.
Gov. Stedman at Raleigh, according to all newspaper accounts, still they do not give him the full measure of praise to which he is entitled. No committee from the Convention ever waited on him and he never saw any committee. He was in his room at the Yarboro House when a messenger came and told him of Fowle's nomination. Although he had not slept an hour for three nights, because his room was crowded with friends from all parts of the State, he immediately rose up from his chair and said: "Boys, it is all right.
When I make a fight and lose it, I stand by the result. The success of the Democratic party is much more important than the nomination of any particular man. I am going down to the Convention and thank my friends." He immediately went with a single friend to the Convention and walked upon the platform, receiving such an ovation as is rarely accorded to any man. How he acted and what he said upon that occasion to the Convention will long be recollected by every one who was there. A DELRGADE.

Raleigh News and Observer's Editorial.
Major Stedman's short speech in the Convention, made under very trying circumstances, was a perfect gem, in matter, in sentiment and in delivery. No one could have borne himself more handsomely, and it has never been our fortune to hear a candidate under similar circumstances fill more perfectly the full measure of what his friends expected from him. We doubt not that the entire Convention to a man cordially joined in what Judge Fowle so well expressed, that if there could be a tripartite ticket, it should be Stedman, Alexander and Fowle.

Raleigh News and Observer's Report.
Maj. Stedman came in under escort of the committee and as he entered the hall was greeted with applause that rang and rang again through the immense auditorium and continued until the distinguished gentleman stood upon the platform. Then there was a hush of respectful attention and Chairman Cox introduced the favorite so long stoutly supported and hotly battled for by ballot. Maj. Stedman is one of the handsomest men to be found in a day's journey. His physique is superb and his manner is that of the cultured, courtly, gallant gentleman that he is. His face was pale with the emotion that was but natural under the trying circumstances of the occasion but his bearing was admirable in the highest degree, proving the possession of that true pluck he has always shown. His speech was unflinching, clear as a bell, and his words were distinctly heard in the farthest corner of the building. He began by saying he was for the nominees of the convention, whoever they might be, and pledged the faithful service in their behalf all know is forthcoming from Charles M. Stedman at the call of the Democratic party. He said he could not find words to express his thanks for the hearty, enthusiastic and long sustained support he had received, while at the same time he had no unkind feeling and no thought of reproach for any who had preferred to him another.

It matters not who the Democracy nominated so he was a Democrat tried and true. He charged the noble array of the grand old Democratic party of North Carolina before him assembled to lay aside common differences and present an unbroken column and acquit themselves in a manner to realize the traditions, the hopes and the prophecies of their ancestors.

It is safe to say that he won the admiration of every man in the hall.
He has been very generally admired, indeed, by the Democracy of the State for the sterling qualities he possesses, but we venture to say that after his superb bearing under defeat this admiration has been increased an hundred fold and widespread throughout the whole extent of North Carolina. As he made his adieu to the audience he was most enthusiastically applauded and friends of all ways of thinking crowded upon him and expressed their appreciation of his noble sentiments and admirable bearing. Three cheers were given him most heartily and one prominent member of the convention called for three cheers for "Senator Stedman" which were given with a will.

The peculiar purifying and building up powers of Hood's Sarsaparilla make it the very best medicine to take at this season.

Dog collars. Largest and finest assortment ever before brought to week, both children.

But one interment in Bellevue this week, and that was a child.
Over 300 passengers went to the Carolina Beach this afternoon on the Sylvan Grove.

The cheapest place to buy your school books and school stationery is at Heinsberger's.
There were four interments in Pine Forest Cemetery this week, two children and two adults.
Burglars. You can be safe from them by using the Burglar Proof Blind Locks, sold at Jacob's.

Fishing Tackle. A full assortment of all kinds for both salt and fresh water fishing at Jacob's Hdw. Depot.
Another lot of those celebrated Oil Stoves just received at Jacob's

Rev. J. L. Stuart, from Haug-chow, China, missionary for the past twenty years of the Southern Presbyterian Church, will preach in the Second Church to-morrow night at 8 o'clock.

morrow, conducted by the Rector, will consist of Morning Prayer at 7:30 a. m.; Litany and Holy Communion at 11 a. m.; Evening Prayer at 5:30 o'clock.
We had prepared a report of the meeting yesterday of the School Committee but it is impossible to get it in this issue. We will make amends by publishing it on Monday.

The Executive Committee of the Evangelical Alliance will meet in regular monthly session in the annex of the First Presbyterian Church Monday, June 4th, at 10 a. m. Lay members of the committee please take notice. John W. Primrose, Secretary.

Rock Crystal Spectacles and Eyeglasses Advice to old and young: In selecting spectacles you should be cautious not to take more magnifying power than has been lost to the eye as in the same proportion that you pass that point of increase, will cause you further injury to the eye. Using glasses of stronger power than is necessary is the daily cause of premature old age to the sight. You can get the best at Heinsberger's.

Nothing Fairer.
I. Shrier, at No. 16 N. Front street, guarantees, if any purchasers of Clothing, Hats and Furnishing Goods are not perfectly satisfied, he will refund the money. He also guarantees to save you from 15 to 25 per cent. on the identical goods you may purchase elsewhere. It will be of no expense to you to convince yourself of the fact and you will be money ahead by calling at
I. SHRIER'S,
The Old Reliable Clothier,
No. 16 and 20 N. Front St.
Sign of Golden Arm. tf

Meteorological.
The following meteorological summary for the month of May, just closed, is furnished by the Signal Office: Highest barometer, 30.28, on the 7th; lowest, 29.78, on the 22d and 23d; monthly range of barometer, 0.50; monthly average barometer, 29.97; highest temperature, 85.5, on the 20th; lowest, 51.4, on the 3d; monthly range of temperature, 34.1; monthly average temperature, 69.9; greatest daily range of temperature, 26.3, on the 14th; least daily range of temperature, 5.6, on the 21st; prevailing direction of wind, Southwest, 24 E., on the 21st; total movement of wind, 5,852 miles; monthly average humidity, 83.1; total rainfall, 4.41 inches. There were six clear days, sixteen fair days, and nine cloudy days; and rain fell on nine days; thunder storms on the 2d, 23d, and 25th.

There will be a prayer and experience meeting at the Seaman's Bethel to-night, commencing at 8 o'clock. The public are cordially invited.
Thanks to Rev. F. W. E. Peschau for a copy of Fa' her Ryan's immortal poem set to music by Mr. Peschau and by him also translated into German. The song is dedicated, by permission, to Mrs. Jackson, widow of Stonewall Jackson.

Bathing Suits. Come down to Headquarters. 25 dozen Flannel Bathing Suits, in all sizes and colors, sold at the lowest manufacturing prices at the Wilmington Shirt Factory, 27 Market st., J. Elsbach, Prop.
Look for the blue awning.

First Presbyterian Church.
Regular services at 11 a. m. tomorrow. Children's services at 4 p. m., when an address will be made by Rev. John Stuart, who has been for twenty years a missionary in Hongchow, China. No services at night.
It is hardly probable that the trains will be run regularly on the Seacoast Railway before the middle of the month. The track is at the Sound, it is true, but there is yet much to be done. The rails are laid half-way across to the hammock.

Rev. D. H. Tuttle will preach at the usual hours at Fifth Street Methodist Church to-morrow. Subject at 11 a. m.: "The Supper of the Lord, and the Guests." Subject for 8 p. m.: "Lost Persons of the New Testament." The Sacrament will be administered at the close of the morning service.

Personal.
Miss Mollie Vollers, of Point Caswell, was in the city this morning to meet her sister, Miss Annie Vollers, who has returned from Mt. Pleasant where she has charge of the Musical Department of the Lutheran Seminary. She will go to Point Caswell to spend the summer with her father, Mr. L. Vollers.

Wake Ahead Again.
It is gratifying to know that Mr.
T. W. Strange, of this city, heads the list of delegates to the Democratic Convention at St. Louis. His name appears last in the list as published by the News and Observer. A Wake county man's name (that of Richard Battle) is put in front, but Mr. Strange's name was really first and his majority was the largest of any. The delegates and alternates as elected are as follows: T. W.
Strange, J. S. Carr, Richard Battle, Paul B. Means. Alternates—A. B.
Galloway, Frank Cox, W. R. Cox,
W. L. Steele.

Summer Schedules.
Correspondence is now being exchanged between the Carolina Central authorities and those of the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley relative to a connection for the day trains at Maxton. The C. F. & Y. V. now connect at Greensboro with the "North Carolina Division of the Richmond & Danville R. R." and as this is a great trunk line they hold that it is necessary for them to continue this connection. By connecting at Maxton with the C. C. R. R. there is no doubt that a good business in passenger traffic may be done and it is probable that this connection will be made. In this way passengers may leave Wilmington in the morning, go to Fayetteville and return here the same night; or, they can take the C. C. train here in the morning, transfer at Maxton to the C. F. & Y. V., and be in Mt. Airy before dark.

Prof. Alderman's Lecture.
Prof. E. A. Alderman's lecture at the Opera House last night on "Manners and Customs One Hundred Years Ago," was a genuine literary feast. He was presented to his audience by Hon. A. M. Waddell in a few pleasant remarks and then he proceeded to entertain his audience with a sketch of some of the manners and customs, habits, mode of dress, &c., of ye ancient dames and ye gentle men. It was a pleasing, interesting and instructive address and was listened to with close attention throughout by the large audience who were present. Prof.
Alderman is a fine speaker, of good address and a very pleasing personality, and it is safe to say that there was not one present who did not thoroughly enjoy the address.

City Court.
Mayor Fowler disposed of the following cases this morning: John Forbes, disorderly conduct, $20 or 30 days.
Alex. Lane, disorderly conduct, discharged.
James Foster, drunk and disorderly, $20 or 30 days.
Melvina Bryant, a witness, failed to answer and was fined $10 or 30 days.
The annual meeting of the Justices of the Peace for New Hanover County and Board of Commissioners will be held on Monday morning at the Court House. A Board of Commissioners is to be elected.
A grand family excursion will be given to Southport and the Forts on Wednesday next, the 6th inst., on the Passport, under the auspices of St. Thomas' Catholic Church. There will be music and refreshments on board.
Rev. Chas. L. Farris has arrived and will fill the pulpit of the First Baptist Church to-morrow, both morning and night.
The Register of Deeds issued three marriage licenses this week, two to white couples and one for a colored couple.
There will be funeral services at St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church to-morrow morning and at 8 p. m. English services will be held.
WireCloth for your windows and and doors can be had at Jacob's Hdw. Depot.

Emerson Pianos.
There are over 43,000 of these celebrated pianos now in use in the United States and other countries that fact alone is sufficient to prove the superiority of these instruments.
J. L. Stone, of Raleigh, N. C., is General Agent for this State. Get his prices before buying a piano. tf
