THE DAILY REVIEW

VOL. XII

WILMINGTON, N. C., FRIDAY JUNE 8, 1888.

NO. 127.

The ticket is "Cleveland and Thurman." It is good, and it is more than good. It is a splendid conjunction of two magnificent names. There are not two nobler patriots, or better, purer men to be found in the ranks of the Democratic party. Both have been tried and neither has been found wanting. It is a ticket under which the victorious Democracy will march to a grand, sure, complete and overwhelming victory when the ides of November are with us again.

Just here, at the beginning of the campaign, we want to say a few words to our friends in Pender county. We want them to carry their county this time for a good, clean, clear Democratic ticket. There is no more gallant a set of Democrats to be found in North Carolina than are those in Pender county and we want to see our brave neighbor redeemed from the cruel bondage into which she fell two years ago. Put none but Democrats on guard this year. Bury all private animosities and petty neighborhood jealousies so deep that the trump of an archangel could never bring them to the surface again. Frown down all that savors of anything else than genuine, Simon-pure Democracy and Pender will be redeemed as sure as the sun rises next November.

The Democrats of North Carolina have again reaffirmed their belief that the internal revenue tax is an iniquitous and an unjust and an oppressive measure, and should be removed. Did it but rest with the Democratic party in this State the odious laws would not long remain on the statute books, for the people of North Carolina are largely interested in this matter. The internal tax amounted last year to the sum of $30,108,067 and this represents the exact amount which has been taken from the producers to be heaped into the pockets of the rich manufacturers. Some years ago the tax on tobacco was reduced from 24 to 16 cents a pound and the statistics show that this resulted, in a few years, in nearly doubling the production. There are those who say that tobacco is a luxury and that the luxuries should be the first subjects of taxation. Granted, in a country where tobacco is not one of the prime articles of production. The argument might hold good in New York or Illinois but not in North Carolina or Virginia. Tobacco is a luxury, it is true, but so are many other articles that might be enumerated and which are daily manufactured and daily sold, free from any special odious tax. A silk dress for a lady or a beaver hat for a gentleman or the soft kid gloves which adorn the hands of both, and which are manufactured almost exclusively in States where no tobacco is grown, are as much luxuries as the quid of tobacco with which the laboring man cheers his toil or the pipe which solaces his hours of leisure.

But there is another point. We do not say that the tax is unconstitutional but that it ought to be and from the fact alone that it is unequal and unjust as well as oppressive and odious. Connecticut, Virginia, North Carolina, Tennessee and Kentucky are, we believe, the principal States which grow tobacco, and in them it is a large item of industry. These States are therefore taxed heavily and onerously on the production of their soils while other States, which cannot and do not raise tobacco, are not taxed on their agricultural products. Did all of the States raise tobacco then the tax would be less unrighteous because more equitably distributed. But the accidents of soil and climate favoring the production of the weed in the four States we have named they are singled out by the law and made to pay an unequal and an unjust proportion of the burdens of the country.

It is the Republican party, be it remembered, that has saddled these iniquities upon us.

Recent explorations in Spain by two Belgian scientists have resulted in some very interesting discoveries. Relics of a prehistoric race have been found in great abundance, ranging from the stone age to that of bronze and metals. These people buried their dead not only in stone graves or cells, but also in great jars of burnt clay, accompanied by pieces of pottery and other articles of use and value. This form of jar-burial is very widespread, and examples have been found from Japan to Peru. These relics are supposed to belong to that ancient race which lived in Europe previous to the Aryan immigration, the various branches of which are known as Iberians, Pelasgians, Ligurians, &c., according to the country in which they lived. Several skeletons were found adorned with silver and gold ornaments. One of the most valuable relics is a femur encircled by a band of silver, to which is attached a thin plate of the same metal.

That tired feeling and loss of appetite are entirely overcome by Hood's Sarsaparilla, the peculiar medicine. Try it and see.

The Fourth comes this year on Wednesday.

New moon to-morrow morning at 20 minutes past 11 o'clock.

Turner's Almanac promises "frequent showers" for to-morrow.

Headquarters for Bass Balls, Bats, Masks, Gloves, Belts &c., is at Heinsberger's.

Burglars. You can be safe from them by using the Burglar Proof Blind Locks, sold at Jacobi's.

If you want to feel comfortable and well all you need is a good Hammock. You will find the largest assortment and cheapest at Heinsberger's.

Indications.
For North Carolina, light to fresh easterly winds, stationary temperature and fair weather, except local rains on the coast.

Our neighbor of the Messenger made his acknowledgments to Col. Waddell and Col. Burr for information used in compiling parts of his trade issue. A considerable amount of information was also furnished from this office, yet there is no acknowledgment of that fact made.

City Court.
Mayor Fowler disposed of the following cases this morning.

C. E. Jevens, disorderly conduct, $20 or 30 days.

Jno. Waddell, drunk and down, $10 or 20 days.

Allen Pettiford, disorderly conduct, $20 or 30 days.

For Target Practice.
The Wilmington Light Infantry went down this afternoon to Carolina Beach for their annual target practice. They were in fatigue uniform and were accompanied by the Cornet Concert Club. A very large crowd of their lady and gentlemen friends went down with them also. We counted 34 men, rank and file, as they passed this office. Lieut. Harriss was in command.

Personal.
Our genial friend, Mr. G. W. Lamb, of Duplin county, is in the city on a visit to his daughter, Mrs. T. J. Southerland.

Mr. Joseph Jacobi has gone North on a visit which will combine business and pleasure.

Mr. L. J. Poisson has gone to New York on a brief visit.

Mr. Gaston Meares, of New York, is on a visit to relatives in this city. Master W. P. Oldham, a student of the Davis Military Institute, arrived here last night for the vacation.

Dog collars. Largest and finest assortment ever before brought to this city, to be had at Jacobi's Hdw. Depot.

Rock Crystal Spectacles and Eyeglasses
Advice to old and young: In selecting spectacles you should be cautious not to take more magnifying power than has been lost to the eye as in the same proportion that you pass that point of increase, will cause you further injury to the eye. Using glasses of stronger power than is necessary is the daily cause of premature old age to the sight. You can get the best at Heinsberger's.

The Acme Club.
The old Mechanics Base Ball Club has been reorganized and is now known as the Acme Club. It is composed of excellent material and will play hard this Summer for the credit of our "city by the sea." The team consists of Messrs. George Riley, Jno. F. Garrell, Jr., Ed. Cazaux, Charles Magruder, W. F. Hewett, W. P. Munroe, W. R. Kingsbury, Ed. Burkheimer, H. Leitgen and P. Willard.

North Carolina Medical Journal.
The May number of this standard medical monthly is at hand, and replete with contents of great interest to the professional reader. A large part of the number is devoted to the proceedings of the State Medical Convention, recently held in Fayetteville, which are given complete. There are also other articles of interest, among which we note a description of a new hypnotic, called by the very simple and easily pronounced name of diethylsulphondimethylmethan. The name is deadly, if the compound is not. The first three letters are surely fatal. The Journal is issued by Drs. Thos. F. Wood and George Gillet Thomas, of this city, at $3 a year.

Stedman and Waddell.
The Cornet Concert Club appeared on the street last night, in full uniform, for the purpose of tendering a serenade to Hon. Charles M. Stedman, Lieutenant Governor of North Carolina, and Hon. Alfred M. Waddell, Elector at Large on the State ticket. They first proceeded to Maj. Stedman's residence and in response to the serenade that gentleman appeared on the balcony and made a brief address to those who were present. His was a strong, noble, patriotic speech, a speech which was entirely outside of and beyond self, a speech made by a Democrat to Democrats. He urged upon all united action, paid a glowing tribute to Grover Cleveland and Allen G. Thurman, and spoke warmly, candidly and even enthusiastically of the distinguished gentlemen who head the State ticket.

Maj. Stedman's remarks were received with vociferous cheers and the Cornet Band then proceeded to the residence of Hon. A. M. Waddell, on Third street. Unfortunately that gentleman was absent and this fact was stated to those who had assembled there by Mr. Jno. D. Bellamy, Jr. The disappointment was great, but it had to be accepted. Three hearty cheers were given for Col. Waddell, several fine airs were rendered by the band and the crowd then dispersed.

Next Friday or Saturday.
It is not yet positively determined when the Seacoast Railway will be formally opened for passenger traffic, but it will hardly be before the latter part of next week. The delay is caused by the failure to secure some part of the planking necessary to the construction of the trestle. The work, however, is being pushed forward as rapidly as possible and by Friday or Saturday of next week it is probable that all will be complete and that half a dozen trains a day will start from Wilmington and run East as far as the Atlantic Ocean will permit.

Mr. James DeRosset showed us a few days since a unique relic of the late unpleasantness and one that is valuable. It is a copy of a newspaper, the Confederate States published at New Iberia, La., and dated Saturday, January 10th, 1863. It is printed on wall-paper and therefore contains but two pages.

Emerson Pianos.
There are over 43,000 of these celebrated pianos now in use in the United States and other countries. That fact alone is sufficient to prove the superiority of these instruments. J. L. Stone, of Raleigh, N. C., is General Agent for this State. Get his prices before buying a piano. If Fishing Tackle. A full assortment of all kinds for both salt and fresh water fishing at Jacobi's Hdw. Depot.

See notice of sale of valuable real estate in this city by Maj. D. O'Connor, Commissioner, to take place on Monday, July 9th, at the Court House door, at 11 o'clock.

Bathing Suits. Come down to Headquarters, 25 dozen Flannel Bathing Suits, in all sizes and colors, sold at the lowest manufacturing prices at the Wilmington Shirt Factory, 27 Market st., J. Elsbach, Prop. Look for the blue awning.

The Last Spike.
There is an exhibition in Mr. Geo. W. Huggins' jewelry store on Market Street the last spike which is to be driven on the Seacoast Railway. This last spike is of solid silver, and of the usual size of railroad spikes, and is to be driven by President Latimer in the last rail on the last day of construction. It is presented by Messrs H. Levis & Co., the firm of whom the rails were purchased.

For the City of Oaks.
The Jolly Pleasure Club of this city will give an excursion to Raleigh, via the C. C. R. R. and the R. & A. A. L., on Monday, the 18th inst. Two full days will be allowed in the City of Oaks. It will take about one night to go and one night to return and all of the daytime can be passed in Raleigh. The fare is very low—only about one cent a mile. The committee consists of Messrs. S. C. Young, J. P. Quinn and J. T. Howard.

The King Clothier.
Within the past decade a most important change has been effected in the clothing business of Wilmington. In former days the only ready-made clothing kept for sale was a cheap "slop-shop" class of goods from "bazaar shops," and the inconvenience of misfits, the rips and tears were calculated to disgust a person of taste. But now a-days when the ability to manufacture clothing equally as good as custom made and much cheaper, has led to steps which have finally reached the splendid establishment now under notice.

Mr. S. H. Fishplate, whose indomitable energy, backed by his intimate knowledge of the business, has enabled him to place himself in the foremost rank in the trade he represents. His store is situated at Nos. 22 and 24 North Front Street, and is the largest and best lighted establishment in the city. He has in stock a magnificent assortment of ready-made garments of the most fashionable and stylish cut, and of superfine material. His custom trade is a specialty with him, and he supplies a large number of customers. He has also every requisite of a gentleman's furnishing, and in the greatest variety. Some prominent features about this successful business is the "one price system" and the "guarantee of satisfaction or money refunded."

Mr. Fishplate is a gentleman of pluck, energy and enterprise, all of whose operations are based upon a policy of honorable as well as liberal dealing, and few similar houses in the South can afford its patrons so substantial advantages as this representative establishment. — Wilmington Trade Review.

The Remarkable Cures
Which have been effected by Hood's Sarsaparilla are sufficient proof that this medicine does possess peculiar curative power. In the severest cases of scrofula or salt rheum, when other preparations had been powerless, the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla has brought about the happiest results. The case of Miss Sarah C. Whittier, of Lowell, Mass., who suffered terribly from scrofulous sores; that of Charles A. Roberts, of East Wilson, N. Y., who had thirteen abscesses on his face and neck; that of Willie Duff, of Walpole, Mass., who had hip disease and scrofula so bad that physicians said he could not recover, are a few of the many instances in which wonderful cures were effected by this medicine.
