Fly Traps, best and cheapest, at Jacob's Hd. W. Depot.

Good beef is very scarce in this market.

Some of the finest huckleberries we ever saw are being brought into market now.

The Passport carried down last night, en route for the Snapper Banks, about 20 fishermen.

Wire Cloth for your windows and air doors can be had at Jacob's Hd. W. Depot.

Burglars. You can be safe from them by using the Burglar Proof Blind Locks, sold at Jacob's.

It was almost cool enough for blankets last night, the wind having got around to the East during the day.

A Knight of Labor pin was found by one of carriers. It can be had at this office without charge for notice.

If the liver and kidneys are sluggish and inactive, Hood's Sarsaparilla will rouse them to prompt and regular action. Take it now.

Watermelons, from "away down South in Dixie," were offered freely to-day. Seventy-five cents and one dollar.

There were a few very fine mullets in market this morning, as large as September mullets. Rather early for them now.

Another lot of those celebrated Oil Stoves just received at Jacob's Hd. W. Depot. It will pay you to use one.

If you want to feel comfortable and well all you need is good Hammock. You will find the largest assortment and cheapest at Heinsberger's.

The first canteloupes of the season are expected here to-morrow by Mr. Antony Fantopula, on South Front street, near the market. They will be accompanied by some fine watermelons.

Bathing Suits. Come down to Headquarters. 25 dozen Flannel Bathing Suits, in all sizes and colors, sold at the lowest manufacturing prices at the Wilmington Shirt Factory, 27 Market st. J. Elsbach, Prop. Look for the blue awning.

The excursion for the benefit of Grace M. E. Church, heretofore spoken of by us, will be given to-morrow on the steamer Passport to the Rocks, Southport and Fort Caswell. The boat will leave her wharf at 9 o'clock. Lunch and refreshments will be served on board.

The News and Observer says that Mr. Thomas W. Strange spoke for North Carolina when the State seconded the nomination of Thurman for the Vice Presidency, and adds: "It is necessary to say no more to make it understood that the pleasant duty was most handsomely performed. Mr. Strange is one of the most eloquent of the young speakers of the State."

Rock Crystal Spectacles and Eyeglasses. Advice to old and young: In selecting spectacles you should be cautious not to take more magnifying power than has been lost to the eye as in the same proportion that you pass that point of increase, will cause you further injury to the eye. Using glasses of stronger power than is necessary is the daily cause of premature old age to the sight. You can get the best at Heinsberger's.

We are Determined to Kill. The high prices which are ranging in this section, and we have nearly succeeded, as our increase of sales for the past month testifies. We guarantee a saving from 15 to 25 per cent. on all goods purchased; also, to be as well made, same material, as sold elsewhere, or money refunded if not satisfactory.

I. SHRIER'S, The Old Reliable Clothier, No. 16 and 20 N. Front St. Sign of Golden Arm.

The steam yacht Bessie is expected here to-morrow from Southport, where she has been undergoing some alterations and improvements. It is probable that she will begin her schedule early next week.

Notwithstanding the Easterly winds and the forbidding aspect of the weather there was a good crowd, probably 175 or 200 persons, on the Passport last evening on the diune excursion about the harbor.

We invite attention to the advertisement Mr. John F. LeGrand, commission merchant, in this issue. He represents some of the best houses and gives prompt attention to all business entrusted to him. His office is in the Kerchner building on North Water street.

City Court. Mayor Fowler disposed of the following cases this morning: Frank Holmes, disorderly conduct, $10 or 20 days. Joe Davis and John James, fighting, $10 each or 20 days.

The Hotel at the Beach. The Carolina Beach Hotel is now open for the season and is in careful and competent hands. Meals are furnished at reasonable rates and the bill of fare is composed of the best that the city markets can produce. Pig fish are always on hand. There is a large room for the convenience of parties who carry their own lunches.

W. H. and L. A. The Directors of the Wilmington Homestead and Loan Association met and organized yesterday afternoon. The principal business of public interest was the election of the officers. The Board re-elected the following: President—C. H. Robinson. Vice-President—J. C. Stevenson. Secretary and Treasurer—C. C. Brown.

Inquest and Verdict. The body of Ben Cronly, the boy who was drowned at Hilton on Saturday, was recovered yesterday afternoon, under a raft and near the spot where he was last seen. Coroner Miller empanelled a jury and held an inquest this morning, the verdict being to the effect that the deceased came to his death by drowning and that Abraham Carter was responsible therefor, and in the opinion of the jury it was done intentionally.

The New Shells. There is no organization yet of those who propose to form a rowing club here but one will soon be effected. Orders for three boats, as stated by us, have been given out but these orders are in advance of organization. To-day we hear that some slight changes are to be made in the dimensions of the boats. They are to be 23 feet long, 2 1/2 feet wide and 14 inches deep. A great deal of interest is being manifested in the subject by our young friends here and we think that the club, when organized, will start out with a very handsome membership list.

Ready to Run. Three coaches, all brand new and all painted a pretty canary color, arrived here yesterday afternoon for the Seaside Railway. They are beautifully upholstered and are comfortable in all of their appointments. They were made somewhere up North and under directions and measurements made by Mr. W. H. Chadbourn, Jr., Engineer of the road. They are all ready for service and will be first put to use on the occasion of the excursion of St. Paul's E. L. Sunday School, on Friday next, when it is likely that they will be kept pretty busy.

The silver spike is to be laid on Saturday afternoon. At least, that is the present determination, but there is some talk of postponing it until next week, which we hope may be done, as there are a great many who would like to be present on that occasion but who cannot get away from business on Saturday.

The schedule of the road is to go regularly into effect on Saturday and an official announcement of it will be made in a day or two, probably to-morrow.

Dog collars. Largest and finest assortment ever before brought to this city, to be had at Jacob's Hd. W. Depot.

Wide Awake for June.

In the June Wide Awake Margaret Sidney gives an amusing story of home boy-life, called "Eurania's Boys and How They Kept House." F. Anstey has a funny story too, "Don," chronicling the heroic treatment of a deceitful greedy little dog by a young lady of fourteen. Edward Everett Hale begins "The Story of Boston Common." Another historic field is surveyed, over sea, in "The Wild White Cattle of England." Landseer's famous painting, "Wild Cattle of Chillingham," is reproduced to illustrate the paper, together with a life-picture of the Cadzow herd. Elbridge S. Brooks writes about "Polo," and Henry Brooks has an illustrated article about "The Old Tinder-box." Mrs. Crowninshield, wife of Commander Crowninshield, U. S. N., begins a good training-ship serial, "Plucky Smalls: His Story," full of fun, pathos and adventure, drawn from life. Mrs. Sherwood in "Double Roses" goes on with the experiences of Phyllis and Wilhelmina in New York City. A good coin story, "The Red, Red Copper," is begun, and there are still other interesting papers. $2.40 a year. D. Lothrop Company, publishers, Boston, Mass.

Last Night and To-Night.

The Lutherans are continuing the celebration of the Thirtieth Anniversary of the organization of their Church by exercises and services during the week. Last night quite a large audience assembled in Luther Memorial Building in the interest of the young people of the church.

A very excellent address was read by Miss Kate Vollers. An admirable address was delivered in German by Mr. Wm. Otersen. There was also an address by W. H. Strauss, Esq. The Misses Lizzie Otten, Mamie Schulken, Annie Doescher and W. Peschan played some selections on the piano. The Misses Annie and Katie Stoller sang two fine duets. There was also a recitation by Maggie Peschau, entitled "The American Flag." The exercises seemed to be very much enjoyed and reflected credit upon those who took part therein.

To-night Miss Kate Bremer will read an essay in behalf of the Missionary Society, and Mrs. F. W. E. Peschan an essay on behalf of the Dorcas Society.

The exercises will be held in the Church and will begin at 8 o'clock. Rev. L. C. Probst, of Charleston, is expected to be present.

The King Clothier.

Within the past decade a most important change has been effected in the clothing business of Wilmington. In former days the only ready-made clothing kept for sale was a cheap "slop-shop" class of goods from "buzzard shops," and the inconvenience of misfits, the rips and tears were calculated to disgust a person of taste. But now a-days when the ability to manufacture clothing equally as good as custom made and much cheaper, has led to steps which have finally reached the splendid establishment now under notice.

Mr. S. H. Fishblate, whose indomitable energy, backed by his intimate knowledge of the business, has enabled him to place himself in the foremost rank in the trade he represents. His store is situated at Nos. 23 and 24 North Front Street, and is the largest and best lighted establishment in the city. He has in stock a magnificent assortment of ready-made garments of the most fashionable and stylish cut, and of superfine material. His custom trade is a specialty with him, and he supplies a large number of customers. He has also every requisite of a gentleman's furnishing, and in the greatest variety. Some prominent features about this successful business is the "one price system" and the "guarantee of satisfaction or money refunded."

Mr. Fishblate is a gentleman of pluck, energy and enterprise, all of whose operations are based upon a policy of honorable as well as liberal dealing, and few similar houses in the South can afford its patrons so substantial advantages as this representative establishment. — Wilmington Trade Review.

Sheridan commanded the cavalry in the Army of the Potomac just a year, and in that time fought seventy-six battles, captured 296 battle-flags and over 160 field pieces.

Assessors and Appraisers.

The Board of Assessors and Appraisers for valuation for taxation of the Carolina Central Railroad and the Wilmington, Columbia & Augusta Railroad met here to-day. There were present for the C. C. R. R. Messrs. T. L. Vail, of Meeklenburg, N. A. McLean, of Robeson, H. A. Bagg, of New Hanover; D. P. High, of Columbus, and M. C. Guthrie, of Brunswick, for the W. C. & A. R. R. Messrs. H. A. Bagg, of New Hanover, M. C. Guthrie, of Brunswick, and D. P. High, of Columbus; and for the Wilmington Railway Bridge Company, Messrs. H. A. Bagg and M. C. Guthrie. The assessments made were as follows:

Carolina Central R. R., $4,536 per mile.
Wilmington, Columbia & Augusta R. R., $6,000 per mile.
Wilmington Railway Bridge Co., a total of $80,000, including 2.40 miles of road bed and two iron bridges.

The Encampment.

Adjutant General Johnstone Jones, of the North Carolina State Guard, has issued General Orders No. 7 ordering the State Guard to go into camp at Seaside Park, Wrightsville, commencing on Wednesday, July 18th, and closing on Friday, July 27th, for which purpose the companies composing the First, Second, Third and Fourth Regiments, and the Scotland Neck Mounted Riflemen (dismounted) and all field and staff officers, and officers of the General Staff, will appear at Wrightsville, in heavy marching order, on Wednesday, the 18th of July next, and report to the Adjutant General for duty at 12 o'clock.

Troops will be furnished transportation by the State. The vouchers for such service must be made out on blank certificates supplied from the Adjutant General's office.

Companies must attend with at least thirty men, rank and file. The Commander-in-Chief expresses the hope that each company will appear with full ranks, and to this end he earnestly requests employers of members of the State Guard to give the necessary leaves of absence.

The location of the encampment, Seaside Park, was generously tendered by Mrs. Herbert Latimer, the owner.

In honor of the late Major-General William D. Pender, this encampment will be named Camp Pender.

Rations will have to be provided by the companies, but the Commissary-General will give the matter his personal attention in facilitating arrangements for supplies.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Corner Market and Front

Hedrick's

FOR THE SPRING AND Summer trade I am offering the most attractive stock of

to be found in this city. Selected expressly for city retail trade, by the most experienced buyer, who, with an eye single to the needs of his customers, who are proverbially the most tasteful ladies in the city, and at the same time to meet the views of the most economical in prices, has in the most triumphant manner succeeded in making the Store on the Corner the "Talk of the Town," where can be found a magnificent stock of Spring and Summer Dress Goods, in all the leading and most desirable styles, among which are many excellent bargains in the various new shades of Albatross, Nun's Veiling, Printed Challis, Beiges, French and American Satines, Gingham, Lawns and Printed India Linens. Our stock of surpasses that of any former season in variety, cheapness and elegance. We have beautifully embroidered Skirts on Batiste and India Linen with Flouncings, Edgings and Yoking to match. Embroidered Marseilles Robes in Patterns for Ladies and Children, plain White Lawns, India Linens, Linon d'Irlande and Batistclair at prices from Five Cents per yard to the finest imported. Plaid and Striped Lawns, Nainsook and Mull, Ecu and White French Pique. One hundred handsome Embroidered Robes in boxes, bought a job and will be sold at half value.

We have almost succeeded in painting Wilmington white with white dresses; we greatly desire to whiten the rest of the Country. In the sale of White Goods we have no competitor. It would be profitable to those wishing to purchase goods in that line to entrust their orders with us or write for samples. Our other great specialty, is in full stock, and is as it ever has been, a puzzle and wonderment to our neighbors. Where does he buy his goods? How can he sell at the prices? How is it that all our customers go to HEDRICK'S to buy all of their Table Linens, Towels and Napkins? Reader, listen; the secret is this. We buy this line of goods direct from the importer. We know how to buy them, hence we are enabled to sell a pure Linen Damask at 50 cents per yard, as good as can be had elsewhere for 75 cents. White pure Linen Damask at $1.00, as good as any man can show at $1.40, with all other goods in this line, such as Napkins, Doilies, Towels, etc., at proportionately low prices. We offer a full line of Domestic Goods at prices to suit all classes.

Housekeeping Goods,

Space becoming short, much that we would like to tell in this must be deferred to a future advertisement. Suffice it to say that we keep the largest stock of in all qualities to be found in any retail store in the South. We keep a first class stock of Gent's Furnishing Goods, Laundered and Unlaundered Shirts, Collars and Cuffs, Balbriggan and Lisle Underwear, Ties and Scarfs in all the new styles. Half-Hose in every quality, to be sold at marvellously low prices.

We invite attention to our stock of Imported and Domestic Woolen Suitings for Gents and Boys which we can have made to order by a first class Tailor at the most reasonable prices. Inasmuch as we are here for the People's good, the People will be welcomed at our counters, where they will receive the most cordial and polite attention.

Respectfully,
John J. Hedrick.
