SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR
TORPID LIVER
Known by these marked peculiarities:
1. A feeling of weariness and pains in the limbs.
2. Bad breath, bad taste in the mouth, and irritable tongue.
3. Constipation, with occasional attacks of diarrhoea.
4. Headache, in the front of the head; vertigo, dizziness, and yellowness of the skin.
5. Headache, loss of appetite.
6. Distention of the stomach and bowels by wind.
7. Depression of spirits, and great melancholy, with lassitude and a disposition to leave everything for to-morrow.
8. A natural flow of bile from the Liver is essential to good health. When this is obstructed, the result is Biliousness.

BILIOUSNESS
which, if neglected, soon leads to serious diseases. Simmons' Liver Regulator exerts a most beneficial influence on every kind of biliousness. It restores the Liver to its proper working order, regulates the secretion of bile and puts the digestive organs in such condition that they can do their best work. After taking this medicine no one will say, "I am bilious."
"I have been subject to several spells of Constipation of the Liver, and have been in the habit of using from 15 to 20 grains of calomel which generally had me up for three or four days. Lately I have been taking Simmons' Liver Regulator, which gave me relief without any interruption to my business."

Russell A. Alger's wife has a prejudice against politics. She is warmly interested in her husband's success in whatever he undertakes, but she cannot look with contentment upon the publicity which a Presidential campaign compels a candidate's home life to undergo.

Col. Nicholas Smith, the Kentucky professional beauty, is an extremely modest man. Recently a lady said to him: "Oh, Col. Smith, how much you look like George Washington!" And the elegant Colonel gravely responded: "Madam, Washington was a good and great man and deserves the compliment."

Mr. Frederick Villiers, the war correspondent and artist of the London Graphic, was one day buying some old helmets at a public sale, and had a venerable cocked hat, for which no bid could be obtained, thrown in with his purchases gratis. When he came to examine the hat closely he found written on the lining, in a concealed spot, this entry in an unknown hand, which he believes, however, to be authentic: "This hat was given to me by the Duke of Wellington, May 21, 1861. He told me it was worn by him at Waterloo."

New Music House.
J. L. Stone, the popular music dealer of Raleigh, has established a branch house at Wilmington, on Dock street one door from Front, where may be found a number of the celebrated Emerson pianos, also other makes from $190 upwards. Organs from $45 upwards. Every one is invited to call and examine the instruments.
Rock Crystal Spectacles and Eyeglasses. Advice to old and young: In selecting spectacles you should be cautious not to take more magnifying power than has been lost to the eye as in the same proportion that you pass that point of increase, will cause you further injury to the eye. Using glasses of stronger power than is necessary is the daily cause of premature old age to the sight. You can get the best at Heinsberger's.

HONORING THE DEAD KAISER.

The Lutheran Church Crowded—Interesting Exercises—Fine Decorations—Music, etc.

Last night St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church was filled from end to end, and even the gallery was occupied by many attentive and interested auditors. Some stood in the vestibule during the entire service. The decorations around the pulpit, altar and organ recess were exquisitely fine. They were well arranged and highly appropriate. Immediately in front of the pulpit a very excellent picture of the late Emperor, which was made in Berlin, was placed amid the emblems of mourning. Surrounding this a most beautiful white cross rose to view. Its base represented "The Rock of Ages," and over this handsome array of white mossed flowers the words "Unser Fritz" were gracefully arranged, and a white dove was placed. Then came the cross, and over this the Prussian crown, all made of white flowers, the cape jesamines, white roses and daisies having been most tastefully placed in the various groupings. It was an emblematical representation of the Kaiser's religious life, and was explained by Rev. Mr. Peschau in the course of his remarks. Besides the display of rare plants, branches of the weeping willow were gracefully suspended from gas jets, etc., to complete the appropriate decorations, for which Mrs. H. Rehder, Mrs. E. Peschau and Mrs. F. Rhein stein deserve great credit. The following order was observed:

1. Organ—Marche Funebre—Chopin.
2. Quartette—"He giveth His Beloved Sleep"—Rossini. The Misses Lessman and Stolter. The Messrs. Rehder and Smith.
3. Official announcement—Hon. E. Peschau, German Consul.
4. Solo—"Christ Risen"—Lloyd Miss A. Lessman. Cornet obligato Mr. J. H. Rehder.
5. Scripture lesson and prayer.
6. Solo—"The Crucifix"—Faure—Miss Minnie Schwarz.
7. Address—Rev. F. W. E. Peschau.
8. Solo—"Pitty, O Lord!"—Stradella. Mrs. J. T. Pleasants.
9. Announcement.
10. Duet, "As the Hart Panteth"—Hewitt. Miss Schwarz and Mrs. Pleasants.
11. Benediction.
12. Organ—"The Prayer"—Ewes. Miss C. Chasten.

The official announcement of the death of the Emperor, having been wished for by the committee having charge of the memorial exercises, Hon. E. Peschau, presented the following, which was read and the sentiments therein expressed as expressive of sympathy, etc., were endorsed by the rising of the entire audience.

KAISERLICH DEUTSCHES CONSULAT.
WILMINGTON, N. C., June 20th '88.
Rev. F. W. E. Peschau, Wilmington, N. C.

DEAR SIR:—I beg leave to inform you and the friends of Germany of the death of our beloved Emperor, Frederick III.

The sad news of his death was officially communicated to me by the German Consul-General of New York.

The departed was a great favorite of the German Nation. His kindness to all, his strict attention to his duties, his devotion to his country, his glorious victories in the late war, and the heroic manner in which he bore his sufferings in his long illness, bowing to the will of God without a murmur when at last called, will always endear the name of "Unser Fritz" to the German Nation.

Young Men's Democratic Club.

The meeting of the Young Men's Democratic Club at the City Hall last night was called to order at 8:30 o'clock by Mr. J. H. Watters, President.

The Chair stated that it was desired, if possible, for the Club to parade next Wednesday night, on the occasion of the meeting of the Congressional Convention in this city, and requested a report from the Finance Committee, who were instructed at the last meeting to make arrangements for the purchase of uniform hats, etc.

The committee reported that no funds were yet in hand, and that the cost of procuring equipment would be two dollars per member.

On motion of Mr. M. Newman, a subscription list was opened and in a few moments the sum of $116 was subscribed for the purpose of purchasing hats, canes and bandanas.

A resolution, offered by Capt. J. C. Morrison, providing for the election of a Chief Marshal and assistants, who are to have charge of all parades of the Club, was adopted.

On motion, Capt. J. C. Morrison was elected Chief Marshal by acclamation, and a committee of three was appointed to confer with him with regard to the selection of Assistant Marshals.

Books were opened for the enrollment of members and the names of seventy-seven young men were added to those who had already united with the Club, making the total membership so far, one hundred and sixty-five.

Notification was given before adjournment that the subscription list would be left at Mr. L. H. Meares' store on Front street, where persons desiring to subscribe or join the Club could enroll their names.

Memorial Association in Pender.

We are glad to know that the noble hearted ladies of Pender county have formed a memorial association, the object being to erect a monument at Burgaw to their fellow heroes of the Lost Cause. The organization was formed at the annual reunion of Co. K, 3d N. C. Infantry, held at Six Forks, near Burgaw, on the 9th inst.

After the speaking and dinner a large number of ladies met for the purpose of organizing a memorial association, when Mrs. H. F. Murphy was called to the chair and Mrs. E. Porter was requested to act as secretary.

The object of the meeting was gracefully explained by Dr. E. Porter to be for the formation of a memorial association for Pender, to secure funds, and to erect a monument to her gallant dead, at Burgaw.

An election of officers resulted in the choice of Mrs. R. B. Powers, President; Mrs. E. Porter, Mrs. C. W. McClumny, Mrs. W. T. Ennett, Mrs. R. T. Williams, Mrs. G. W. Corbett, Mrs. J. N. Henry, Mrs. C. C. Woodcock, Mrs. W. L. Rivenbark and Mrs. W. W. Larkins Vice Presidents, Mrs. R. G. Sanders, Secretary, and Mrs. R. O. Cowan, Treasurer.

Closing Exercises.

The closing exercises of Misses Burr & James' School took place last night at their rooms in St. John's chapel adjoining the church, and as usual on all such annual occasions a large crowd were present who seemed to enjoy to the full the pleasure of the occasion. It was, as all of the exhibitions gotten up by those ladies are, pure, chaste and beautiful and reflected great credit upon pupils and principals alike for it was on exhibition of application and aptitude on the one hand and industry and patience on the other, and when these are combined, the result necessarily is a success, which was the case last evening.

We regret exceedingly that we cannot give a detailed description of the exercises, but there were no printed programmes, and unfortunately for us, we occupied a back seat and the audience in front would stand up during the performance of each piece thereby completely obstructing the view of those in the rear, though they were frequently requested to keep their seats.

Occasionally we got a glimpse of a little sprite or too but that was all, for like Sam Wellar, when it comes to looking through deal boards or flesh and blood our vision is limited.

The salutatory address was made by Miss Dunn. Her pronunciation very distinct and her enunciation graceful and appropriate, it was well done, exceedingly well done, and her modesty of manner gave an additional charm to her effort. This was followed by a chorus of the whole school, the voices of the little ones blending harmoniously and in excellent time with the music. Recitations, duets and solos then came in rapid succession until the first part of the performance was finished. Then the distribution of prizes took place. They were presented to each successful pupil by Prof. Catlett, who made a short address on the occasion, which in matter and manner could not have been surpassed, for we could hear, though we could not see, and we have seldom heard anything of the kind more appropriate or in better taste.

The exercises in calisthenics and with Indian clubs, the marching and intricate evolutions were admirable and worthy of all praise.

We should have mentioned in its proper place that the prize medal was won by Miss Maggie Moore, and it was stated that this was the third year consecutively that she had carried off that much coveted prize. That simple fact speaks volumes in regard to her capacity and qualifications, and is one of which she and her friends may be justly proud.

The exercises passed off well, there were no vexatious delays but everything moved correctly and harmoniously. We enjoyed a very pleasant evening, thanks to the courtesy of the accomplished principals of the school, and as Rip Van Winkle would say, "We hope they may live long and prosper."

City Court.

There was a small crowd assembled at the City Court this morning and a docket that showed up three cases, as follows:
Monroe Turner, failing to pay market license, discharged.
Elias Campbell, disorderly conduct, $5 or 10 days.

There was one case of disorderly conduct, which we suppress the name by request.

Orders from the country promptly attended to.
A number of gentlemen in this city have tendered Miss Annie Derosset a complimentary benefit at a concert. The young lady has accepted the offer and the concert will take place at the Opera House next Tuesday night.
The excursion given to-day by the Germania Cornet Band to the Rocks, Southport and the Forts was not as well attended as it should have been, although they had a good crowd. The band rendered several of their fine selections.

PLEASE NOTICE.
We will be glad to receive communication from our friends on any and all subjects of general interest, but
The name of the writer must always be furnished to the Editor.
Communications must be written only on one side of the paper.
Personalities must be avoided.
And it is especially and particularly understood that the Editor does not always endorse the views of correspondents unless so stated in the editorial columns.

New Dry Goods House.
To be a little more explicit than we were yesterday, we will state that the business in which Mr. Norwood Huske is to embark here this fall is that of the dry goods. He will be associated with Mr. E. T. Draper, and these gentlemen will open early in the fall in the store now occupied by Mr. Julius Samson, on Market street.

Capt. P. H. Sasser is the conductor on the Wilmington & Seacoast Railroad. He is prompt and attentive to his duties and courteous and obliging to his passengers and will become a favorite with all.

The hour of holding the Sunday School of the First Baptist Church has been changed from 3:30 to 5 p. m., commencing with next Sunday.

The moonlight excursion last night to Carolina Beach on the Sylvan Grove and Louise were well patronized, a large party attending from Southport.

We anticipated publishing a synopsis of Rev. Mr. Peschau's address, but found at the last moment that it was impossible. We hope to be able to publish it to-morrow.

I have not used all of one bottle yet. I suffered from catarrh for twelve years, experiencing the nauseating dropping in the throat peculiar to that disease, and nose bleed almost daily. I tried various remedies without benefit until last April, when I saw Ely's Cream Balm advertised in the Boston Budget, I procured a bottle, and since the first days' use have had no more bleeding—the soreness is entirely gone.—D. G. Davidson, with the Boston Budget, formerly with Boston Journal.
