Abram S. Hewitt totes a leve head, but it is perhaps no more level to-day than it has always been. He can see about as far through a stone wall as any living man. In his letter to the County Democracy in New York Mayor Hewitt says:

all efforts looking to this end, have gist. been forced by the inexorable logic of the situation to declare in favor ing the taxes.

The plain issue thus presented to their supplies they must be indemnified, if indemnified at all, by a higher price for their products?

The Democratic papers at the North are chock-full of interesting matter now and in the list we class the New York Herald, for it has been about as good a Democratic paper for the past four years as there is in the country. Here is a choice bit from a recent issue of that paper. It is in the shape of a communication and is from a "Disgusted Republican."

Come, Mr. Editor, sharpen your facile quill and then with flowing ink"point a moral and adorn a tale." Prithee, kind sir, tell us of "Tippecanoe.

It may be "ancient history," but 60,000,000 of us "free born American citizens" are just now living in the glorlous Present, and it won't hurt agreeable. Price 50 cents at druggists; by us—"even a little bit"—to get rub-mail, registered, 60 cents. ELY BROTHERS. bed up somewhat on the reminiscent 56 Warren St., New York. us-"even a little bit"-to get rublore of "the dead Past."

So, dear Mr. Editor, do please "shoulder your quill" for a brief hour or so and show us how this mong the wonders of inventive progress is a now famous field was lost and won. Come tell us about the war curious and suspicious flavor, and methinks a decidedly "ancient and fishlike smell."

boozled followers nothing but the nisty phantoms of its so-called 'greatness" of hygone ages. Present opportunities and future possibilities are to-day to the G. O. P. merely as so much dross compared with the weird and fantastic recollections of the past. Like the purblind mole, the historic G. O. P. of other days no v goes groping its way in the dark. Verily it should now be called the Groping Old Party. It seems to be totally oblivious to the fact that-We are living, we are moving, In grand and awful times.

It teetotally tabooes the issues of the hour and tenaciously clings to the ghosts of its departed usefulness

It affects to believe that it can still batten and flourish in this perhaps romantic but nevertheless sickening mediæval atmosphere.

What lamentable perverseness! What dense ignorance of the true progressive spirit of the age! The shibboleth of the shilly-shallying G. O. P. is simply-Tippecanoe and tariff too." And it also sings of grandfather's hopeful grandson. But Tippecance and grandfather have long since passed "down the corridors of time," and both are now far out of sight.

But grandfather's hopeful still "lags superfluous on the stage," but around and about him old Tippecano and grandfather are supposed to form a dazzling halo, or sacred nimbus, which the antediluvian Republicans confidently predict will capture the patriotic voters. What's he to Hecuba, or Hecuba to him?" that this should be so? When next we vote we will most assuredly vote for a man of our own times, not for somebody's revered grandfather of past generations.

And so—after all the fuss and trouble and heart-burnings of the late Chicago Convention-it happens that the mismanagers of the Republican party have determined to fight the so-called battle of "Tippecanoe" over again.

Now, this "little unpleasantness" of Tippecanoe occurred so many, many years ago, Mr. Editor, that thousands of your readers would like you to tell them the story-in other words, would be pleased to receive a "tip" on "Tippecanoe."

Meanwhile, Mr. Editor, permit me to say that for all useful purposes the "Groping Old Party" is today as absolutely and completely of the past as are the wooden gods of Greece and Rome. The sooner its fossilized and super-annuated leaders recognize this fact the better for their future. Future! Surely there can be no future for them or their party until they realize that they are part and parcel of the glorious present.

A word to the wise is sufficient.

"In one store where I went to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla the clerk tried to induce me buy their own instead of Hood's; he told me their's would last longer; that I might take it on ten days' trial; that if I did not like it I need not pay anything, etc. But he could not prevail on me to change. Impurities in the blood produce diseases. Bodily and mental health depend upon a healthy condition of the blood. The blood, particularly in the spring and during the hot summer months, becomes clogged with impurities, which poison it and generate disease. A harmless blood purifier, without a particle of mineral poison in it, such as mercury or potash, is necessary to remove these impurities and to restore the healthy tone of mind and body. The best purifier and tonic known to the world is Swift's Specific (S.S.S.). In regard to its wonderful purifying and tonic powers we give a few testimonials as follows: Mr. Wm. A. Siebold, with Geo, P. Rowell &

Co., 10 Spruce Street, New York, writes March 29th, 1883: "I feel it my duty, for the benefit of others who may be afflicted as'I was, to write you this letter, which you can use as my testimony in any way you choose. I will answer any inquiry from others in relation to the facts herewith stated. In February last I suffered great pain and inconvenience from boils, all over my neck; I could not turn my head without acute pain and my blood was in poor condition. After trying all the usual remedies in such cases, and finding no telief, by the persuasion of Mr. J. W. Fears, Manager of your New York Office, I used one bottle S. S. S, and I improved rapidly and very soon I was entirely relieved of my "Job's Comforters." Now not a sign of my affliction can be seen. I feel strong and cheerful. S. S. S. is a fine tonic as proved in my case. I sicep soundly and my appetite is good. Dr. J. N. Cheney, a well-known physician. writes from Ellaville, Georgia: "I use S. S. S.

in convalescent fever cases with the best results. It will, in my judgment, prevent summer dysentery, if one will take a few bottles in the spring, thus preparing the bowels for the strains of summer." Mrs. Scott Liston, 116 Zane street (Island), Wheeling, West Virginia, writes: "Having used S. S. S. for the blood, I can safely say that it beats anything I have used to cleanse the blood and make a new being out of a per-Mr. M. S. Hamlin, Winston, N. C., writes "I use it every spring. It always builds me up, giving me appetite and digestion, and enabling me to stand the long, trying, enervating hot summer days. On using it I soon become strong of body and easy of mind." Treatise on Blood and Skin Diseases mailed THE SWIFT SPECIFIC Co., Drawer 3, Atlanta, Ga.
