Dickey Bird Writes Again.

DEAR REVIEW: -It is hardly necessary for me to tell you it is hot, for I suppose you are aware of the fact, but it is schorching. Last Saturday was the warmest day I have ever felt-101 degrees in the shade. We must be just this side of Dante's their way into market. familiar quarters.

for stove manufacturers. The Baxter Stove Manufacturing Co. has orders for eight ear loads, or more. is that for a beginning? As they have, within the past six months, increased their plant, they expect to fill all orders without delay, and they expect to ship twenty car loads ten or twelve last year.

Everything is Cleveland and white hats down this way now. One cannot pass a hundred yards without seeing 50 or 75 white beavers and we can bet on Grover every time. I am a Democrat, but I take pleasure in saying-and feel it an honor when I do say it-that I am not a free trader.

Democrats have come to the front to the Beach and some to Wrightsin Wilmington, fully prepared to win.

The Fourth was celebrated handsomely here. Nearly every house in the city was represented in the ments and displays were exceedingly pretty. Those that attracted most attention were the wagons of linger's Brewery, New Home Sewing Machine Co., and Birmingham Arms Co. The latter was well rep-
