Rock Crystal Spectacles and Eyeglasses. Advice to old and young: In selecting spectacles you should be cautious not to take more magnifying power than has been lost to the eye as in the same proportion that you pass that point of increase, will cause you further injury to the eye. Using glasses of stronger power than is necessary is the daily cause of premature old age to the sight. You can get the best at Heinsberger's.

Bathing Suits. Come down to Headquarters. 25 dozen Flannel Bathing Suits, in all sizes and colors, sold at the lowest manufacturing prices at the Wilmington Shirt Factory, 27 Market St., J. Elsbach, Prop. Look for the blue awning.

Cardinal Gibbons.
The reception tendered to His Eminence, Cardinal Gibbons, spoken of by us in yesterday's issue, was held last night at the residence of Colonel F. W. Kerchner. Notwithstanding the rain many called to pay their respects to the distinguished prelate. Mr. Thos. W. Strange, on behalf of the citizens of Wilmington in general, presented him with the following address:

Your Eminence, Cardinal Gibbons:
It is with a feeling of sincere pleasure that I undertake the discharge of the agreeable office of extending to you in the name of the citizens of Wilmington a cordial and heartfelt welcome to our city—a citizen of which you once were, and your return to which we welcome with a feeling of gratified pride.

The heart of Wilmington warms to you, Eminent Sir, for we remember that you were once one of her citizens—one with us in feeling, in word and deed; and your ministrations in our midst, your acts of Christian, priestly ministrations, relieving the sick, strengthening the weak and sympathizing with the joy and sorrow of your people, endeared you to them daily more and more—not only so, but your manly, holy bearing added to the tribute of their affection; the respect and esteem of this entire community. Therefore it is, that we, the citizens of Wilmington, take pleasure in doing honor to you—to one so worthy of being honored.

Citizenship, I think, is like the image of a monarch stamped upon his coin—although the coin passes from hand to hand and circulates from nation to nation, yet that image remains impressed thereon; so, a citizen of a State, though he may change his abode from State to State, yet ever bears stamped upon his nature the impress of that State which gave him birth or adoption. So, although your Eminence is no longer a resident of this city or of this Commonwealth of North Carolina, yet in spirit you are still with us, and I know that the interests, the welfare and happiness of our people are near and dear to you. Therefore, we claim you as our own—as one of our most able and distinguished citizens, and claim the privilege of joining with others in doing honor to you—to him to whom honor is due.

Since you have left our midst we have watched your career, and with feelings of pride we have watched your elevation through the various offices of your sacred ministry, until you have reached the high, exalted and prominent office of Cardinal—the first native-born American upon whom such an honor was ever conferred.

Do you think, esteemed sir, permit me to say, that the citizens of Wilmington recognize in you one of the foremost men of the age—one of the purest, noblest and most distinguished men of our republic—and as such entitled to the respect and esteem of every American citizen? As such, irrespective of creed, faith or religious belief, we extend to you an earnest, sincere and heartfelt welcome to our midst. We beg you to accept the freedom of our city, to remain with us as long as you will, and, departing, leave with the mind to return to us soon again.

Cardinal Gibbons, in the name of Wilmington and of North Carolina, I welcome you.

The Cardinal's response was a very felicitous one, recalling names and scenes and incidents of the bygone time when he was a resident of our city.

Yesterday the Cardinal, Bishop Haid and Father Du Combe visited Wrightsville and were entertained by Mr. Pembroke Jones. They also visited the Beach and enjoyed a surf-bath, and paid a visit to the new hotel at the Hammocks.

The Cardinal will be present at St. Thomas' Church and will install Bishop Haid. His Eminence will be the celebrant at Holy Mass at 7 a. m. and Bishop Northrop at 7:30 a. m. There will be Solemn Pontifical High Mass at 10:30 a. m., celebrated by the new Bishop, Rev. Dr. Leo Haid, O. S. B., and at this service the Cardinal will deliver the sermon.

Bathing at the Beach.

The Sylvan Grove carried down a large crowd to Carolina Beach yesterday afternoon, many of whom made a break for a surf-bath soon after arrival. There were a large number of bathers but the Easterly wind and low tide, and the force with which the tide was moved by the wind, gave it some unpleasant features. The party at got back on board and were snugly ensconced on the boat before the rain came, but it met them at the wharf here in Wilmington.

Adjutant-General Jones favored us with a visit to-day but we regret that we did not see him as we were not in when he called.

Fly Traps, best and cheapest, at Jacob's Hd. Depot.

Pender County Fruit.
Thanks to our good friend, Mr. R. H. Murphy, of Point Caswell, for a bag of apples, raised by him on his plantation and embracing numerous varieties. They are very fine and we challenge any section or State to beat them. Pender county will soon, according to the present ratio of progress, become one of the most noted fruit counties in the State.

At the Southern End.
Capt. E. H. Bowdoin has had erected at the Southern end of the Hammocks various means of amusements for the old and the young. These consist of a merry-go-round and a set of swings for the young and a bowling alley and shooting gallery for older people. He has also several boats which will be hired out to fishing and sailing parties and supplied with bait and tackle at short notice. See ad. in this issue.

Every Night Next Week.
The Crescent Opera Company will hold the boards at the Opera House next week. They have never previously appeared here but they come to us well heralded. There is no doubt as to the merits of their entertainments. It is a good troupe, if our exchanges are to be believed, and we feel sure that they will make their mark here. They open on Monday night with "The Chimes of Normandy," and the "Mascotte" and the "Bohemian Girl" will also be presented during the week.

Next Week's Schedule.
All troop trains arriving here for the Encampment will be run through solid to Wrightsville, without any break, and the same may be done with some of the passenger trains with excursionists on board. The management of the road will be put to it to accommodate the crowds, but it will be done, and that safely and expeditiously. A schedule for the week is being made up now and it may possibly be ready in time for publication in this issue.

Fish Blown on Shore.
Shortly after the majority of the bathers had retired from the waves yesterday at Carolina Beach a large number of fish, "live and kicking," were thrown up on the beach, some of which were captured. This reminds us of the fact that by an Easterly gale in September, 1861, while Co. I, 18 N. C. Regt., was at "Camp Starvation," near Fort Fisher, a large number of fine fish were thrown up on the beach about a half mile to the rear of the Camp. Buckets, baskets and even barrels were filled and there was fine feasting in that camp for the next two days.

Young Men's Christian Association.
The regular monthly meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association was held last night at the Library rooms.

A committee, consisting of Messrs. E. S. Tennent, W. W. Hodges and G. C. Worth, was appointed to confer with the owners of Seaside Park at Wrightsville and the officers of the State Guard for the purpose of securing the privilege of erecting a tent on the grounds, to be used during the encampment as the headquarters of the Y. M. C. A., where religious services will be held at night and on Sunday.

A resolution was adopted asking the city press to urge that subscribers to the building fund of the association, who have not already done so, pay to Mr. W. W. Doyle, collector, the assessment of twenty-five per cent. required to pay for the lot purchased as the site for the building.

The recording secretary reported that he was in correspondence with a gentleman whom it was proposed to engage as a general secretary for the association, and who will probably visit Wilmington some time next month.

In this connection we clip the following from the Charlotte Chronicle:

The Executive Committee of the Young Men's Christian Association in North and South Carolina have called as their joint secretary, Mr. A. M. Wilson, now general secretary of the R. R. Association in Kansas City, Mo. Mr. Wilson is a native of Kentucky, and has had fifteen years very successful experience in Association work. He was very highly recommended by several State and international secretaries, and by those who had been associated with him. We trust he will accept and arrive in Charlotte by September 1.

Big Turtles at Carolina Beach.
Carolina Beach seems to be a good place to hunt for turtle eggs. On Thursday night a nest containing 121 was found a short distance above the hotel and on the previous night a very large she turtle crawled up on the beach, about a half-mile South of the hotel. One of the natives saw her and hurried home and told his boys, two lads, of the circumstances. The boys found her on the beach and mounted on her back and had a fine ride around on the sands. They then let her go, instead of capturing her, simply by turning her over on her back.

From the Chicago Musical Indicator.
J. L. Stone, of Raleigh, N. C., is the subject of a laudatory notice in the Raleigh News and Observer, of Saturday, June 23d. The energy, enterprise and honorable methods of this well-known dealer are meeting with an abundant reward. The sales of his agents in North Carolina are rapid and large, and the shipping department presents a brisk appearance. A few more such men as Mr. Stone would make Raleigh famous. He is State Agent for the celebrated Emerson Piano.

Headquarters for Bass Balls, Bats, Masks, Gloves, Belts &c., is at Heinsberger's.
