The best canteloupes sold this morning at $1 per dozen.

Headquarters for Bass Balls, Bats, Masks, Gloves, Belts &c, is at Heinsberger's.

This cool weather is decidedly unreasonable and is a drawback to the growing crops.

For North Carolina, warmer and fair weather.

What has become of all of the projected canning factories, here and in this section?

Burglars. You can be safe from them by using the Burglar Proof Blind Locks, sold at Jacob's.

Impurities of the blood often cause great annoyance at this season; Hood's Sarsaparilla purifies the blood, and cures all such affections.

Dog collars. Largest and finest assortment ever before brought to this city, to be had at Jacob's Hdw. Depot.

Fishing Tackle. A full assortment of all kinds for both salt and fresh water fishing at Jacob's Hdw. Depot.

Gen. Johnstone Jones goes to Wrightsville at 5 o'clock this evening to establish headquarters at the Encampment.

Ger. brig Dr. Witte, Teplien, cleared to-day for Liverpool, with 1,700 casks spirits turpentine, valued at $27,859.17, shipped by Messrs. Robinson & King.

Mr. Gevarte Prigge, who—well, who left this city some months ago under rather unpleasant circumstances, is now superintendent of the electric light plant at Ocala, Fla.

A large party went down the river to-day on the excursion given complimentary to Cardinal Gibbons. The Sylvan Grove was beautifully decked with bunting and there was a fine display of flags at the Beach.

The Passport will give this evening another of those enjoyable dime excursions about the harbor, and a few miles down the river. The boat will leave at 6:30 and the ride will consume about one hour.

Several of the members of the Crescent Opera Company attended services at the First Baptist Church yesterday morning, one of them singing a solo, while another presided at the organ, which was very much admired by the congregation.

The management of the steamer Queen of St. John's have contracted for a new and commodious wharf at Southport and are now talking about building bath houses on the beach near Fort Caswell and building a wharf at Bald Head.

Mr. Geo. C. Kelley, of this city, now a resident of Birmingham, and one of the most prominent and successful citizens of the famed "Magic City," is an appreciative reader of the DAILY REVIEW. We have just entered to his credit a remittance which pays his subscription up to May 10, 1890.

Mr. Jno. D. Bellamy, Jr., President of the Street Railway Co., returned from New York on Saturday night. The first of the cars are expected to-night and if they get here then they will be put on the road to-morrow. The tracks are being cleared off to-day for use.

Rock Crystal Spectacles and Eyeglasses. Advice to old and young: In selecting spectacles you should be cautious not to take more magnifying power than has been lost to the eye as in the same proportion that you pass that point of increase, will cause you further injury to the eye. Using glasses of stronger power than is necessary is the daily cause of premature old age to the sight. You can get the best at Heinsberger's.

Bathing Suits. Come down to Headquarters. 25 dozen Flannel Bathing Suits, in all sizes and colors, sold at the lowest manufacturing prices at the Wilmington Shirt Factory, 27 Market St., J. Eisbach, Prop. Look for the blue awning.

Not That Time.

Saturday night, about 9 o'clock, while Mr. R. M. Wescott was at his store, some unknown man went to his house on Fifth, between Nun and Church streets, and demanded admission of his wife. She told him to leave or she would shoot him. He then slammed the gate as if he had left the premises and when Mrs. Wescott went to the door to see if it was locked she saw him sitting on the steps. She cannot tell whether he was white or colored. His object was probably intimidation and robbery.

Ready for an Emergency.

Mr. John F. Garrell is a live man. He has fully appreciated the fact that a much larger number of people are to be fed this week and has laid his plans accordingly. He has now on hand nearly 200 beeves and nearly 300 sheep and has arranged to receive others every day this week. He has contracted to supply the troops with fresh meat and will furnish one party in the city with nearly a thousand pounds every day. His city customers will find him equal to the occasion and meats purchased of him will be delivered free in any part of the city and at Wrightsville and the Hummocks.

To-Night's Entertainment.

"The Chimes of Normandy," Planquette's delightful opera, will be presented at the Opera House to-night, the first of the season here of the Crescent Opera Company. We think that we are safe in promising a pleasant evening's entertainment to those who may attend to-night. The troupe is composed of about twenty persons, half of whom are ladies, and among them are some eminent artists. Mr. Fred Mordant is the manager of the company, and Mr. J. R. Fairland, who possesses a high reputation in the musical world, is the director. Popular prices are announced for the season, 50 cents for general admission and 75 cents for reserved seats.

At St. Thomas' Yesterday.

The services at St. Thomas' Catholic Church yesterday were unusually elaborate and impressive. At the Pontifical High Mass at 10:30 o'clock Bishop Haid was the celebrant. There were present at this service His Eminence, the Cardinal, and the Rt. Revs. Bishops Foley, Northrop and Haid, and also Very Rev. Dr. Dumont, of Maryland. Bishop Haid was assisted in the celebration by Very Rev. M. S. Gross, V. G., and Rev. Fathers White, Riley, Hill and Bernard. Bishop Northrop was attended by Rev. Frederick Price.

The sermon on this occasion was preached by the Cardinal, on "The Divinity of Christ." It was a masterly effort, bold and aggressive in the Christian doctrine, terse, eloquent and argumentative and worthy of the Cardinal's high reputation as a pulpit orator; worthy also of his dignity, which His Eminence bears with so much honor. Those who heard the sermon pronounce it one of the clearest, most beautiful and concise arguments in establishment of the Divinity of the Messiah that has ever been heard. The congregation was very large and many were unable to gain admission to the church.

At the night service there was also a very large congregation. Bishop Haid was formally installed on this occasion and he preached the sermon. It was a moving and eloquent discourse on "The true character of the Holy Catholic Church; its real mission in the world and its pure and holy teachings."

City Court.

Mayor Fowler disposed of the following cases this morning: James Churchill, allowing his cows to run at large, judgment suspended on paying pound fees.

Thomas Williams, larceny, bound over to the present term of Criminal Court in the sum of $100.

Sarah McKensie, disorderly conduct, $10 or 30 days.

Henry Berry, larceny, bound over to the present term of Criminal Court in the sum of $100.

Frank Mumford, alias "the dude," drunk and down, $10 or 20 days in a close cell.

James Perry, drunk and disorderly, $20 or 30 days.

Fly Traps, best and cheapest, at Jacob's Hdw. Depot.

The Crops in Pender.

The Weekly Weather Crop Bulletin of the North Carolina Weather Service is informed from Rocky Point: "All crops above average. The past three weeks have been dry and have enabled farmers to put their crops in good condition. Good rain on the 10th. instant that was general. Cotton a little late. Stand of corn irregular, but stand secured in time to mature."

Criminal Court.

The Midsummer Term of the Criminal Court, His Honor Judge Meares presiding, convened here to-day. The following constitute the grand jury for the term: J. M. Chasten, Foreman, T. P. Sykes, W. H. Scarborough, E. H. Davis, E. P. Craig, E. M. Green, W. A. Walker, J. F. Hays, F. W. Cornish, B. S. Mulford, Jno. McEvoy, August Zoeller.

The following cases were disposed of:

State vs. Julius Risborne, for assault and battery. Defendant submits. Judgment not pronounced.

State vs. Daniel King, larceny. Not guilty.

State vs. Jno. W. Taylor, assault and battery. Defendant waives bill and submits. Judgment one penny and costs.

A Table of Distances.

Some months ago we published a partial list of distances from this city to points on the river below, and to-day, through the courtesy of Capt. W. H. Bixby, U. S. Engineer, we are able to give the following table of distances in full, out to the tightship off Frying Pan Shoals. We put it in convenient shape, for ready reference. Cut it out and stick it in your hat:

Your House on Fire.

Not the house of wood, or brick, or stone, in which you live, but your bodily tenement may be in terrible danger from smouldering fire which you make no effort to quench. The great danger from impure blood is that it debilitates the system, and the digestive organs grow weak and inactive. Hood's Sarsaparilla combines the best kidney and liver purgatives, with the best alteratives and tonics, all from the vegetable kingdom, carefully and understandingly prepared in a concentrated form. It purifies, vitalizes and enriches the blood, and tones up the system, giving the whole body vitality, and effectually guarding it against the attacks of disease.

GUARD AGAINST THE STRIKE.

And always have a bottle of Acker's English Remedy in the house. You cannot tell how soon Croup may strike your little one, or a cold or cough may fasten itself upon you. One dose is a preventive and a few doses a positive cure. All Throat and Lung troubles yield to its treatment. A sample bottle is given you free and the Remedy guaranteed by Munds Bros., druggists.

From the Chicago Musical Indicator. J. L. Stone, of Raleigh, N. C., is the subject of a laudatory notice in the Raleigh News and Observer, of Saturday, June 23d. The energy, enterprise and honorable methods of this well-known dealer are meeting with an abundant reward. The sales of his agents in North Carolina are rapid and large, and the shipping department presents a brisk appearance. A few more such men as Mr. Stone would make Raleigh famous. He is State Agent for the celebrated Emerson Piano. †
