INDEX TO NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.
HEINSBERGER—Muslin Flags
F. C. MILLER—Cigars, Cigarettes
LOUIS H. MEARES—Flannel Shirts
QUEEN OF ST. JOHN'S—Grand Ball
MRS. E. B. WIGGINS—Visitors to the City

Headquarters for Bass Balls, Bats, Masks, Gloves, Belts &c., is at Heinsberger's.

Wire Cloth for your windows and doors can be had at Jacobi's Hdw. Depot.

There were nearly 450 passengers on the train which took the veterans down to Wrightsville yesterday.

"I cannot praise Hood's Sarsaparilla half enough," says a mother whose son, almost blind with scrofula, was cured by this medicine.

Fishing Tackle. A full assortment of all kinds for both salt and fresh water fishing at Jacobi's Hdw. Depot.

The people of Wilmington were on their good behaviour yesterday. No arrests were made during the day.

Mr. James Wilson is having erected a neat four room house on Princess street, between Tenth and Eleventh.

Capt. Benchan Cameron entertained the Governor and Lieutenant Governor and some others at a banquet at the hotel at the Hummocks last night.

Light, and a plenty of it, is needed at the depot of the Seacoast R. R. at Wrightsville. As it is now it is really dangerous there at night, at train time.

The rains had here yesterday afternoon did not reach Wrightsville. The dust on the turnpike from the depot to the Encampment grounds was very disagreeable.

The Queen of St. John's carried down to Southport and Fort Caswell to-day a very large crowd, the excursion having been given under the auspices of Unity Tent No. 60, I. O. R. Some of them were prepared to stop off at the Rocks for a day's fishing.

One of the largest excursion parties of the season was that which went down to Carolina Beach to-day on the steamer Sylvan Grove, the occasion being the excursion given by the Bladen Street M. E. Church.

There were but two Federal veterans in the line which yesterday visited the Encampment. More had been expected and a general regret was expressed at their absence. There are not more than seven or eight white veterans of the Union army in the city and we would have been glad to see them all in line.

The Crescent Opera Company gave a concert last night at Manning's pavilion, Wrightsville Sound, assisted by Messrs. Manning, Smith, Mitchell and Welch, who are among our best local talent. The programme presented was a delightful one, and there was a large attendance.

The authorities of the railroads centreing here are about to publish cheap excursion rates for Saturday trips. These rates are but little more than a cent a mile. If the tickets could be made good for a week the up country people would come to see us at a very gratifying rate.

The Tub Race Yesterday. The tub race yesterday at the Hummocks was a very interesting event and was witnessed by a large number of spectators. The course was from the Banks to the Hummocks. The race was won by Mr. John Bell, with Mr. Croom second and Mr. Marines third. They all got over. The prize, we understand, was a purse of $10.

Decoration. Flag Bunting. Flag Bunting. By the yard or piece. For sale by I. SHRIER, 16 N. Front street.

Rock Crystal Spectacles and Eyeglasses Advice to old and young: In selecting spectacles you should be cautious not to take more magnifying power than has been lost to the eye as in the same proportion that you pass that point of increase, will cause you further injury to the eye. Using glasses of stronger power than is necessary is the daily cause of premature old age to the sight. You can get the best at Heinsberger's.

I. O. O. F. Cape Fear Lodge No. 2, I. O. O. F., had an initiation and conferred the Second Degree last night in honor of a visit from Past Grand Master W. A. Bobbitt who, on the request of Noble Grand Oscar Pearfall, presided in the work. There were a great many visiting brethren from different parts of the State.

A Straw. A friend at Charlotte writes us: "I have heard many flattering praises of the treatment the 'soldier boys' have received at the hands of the Wilmington people. Heard a Charlotte man, who has just returned from the Encampment, say this morning that the boys say they want to go there every year. I hope the State will take up with the suggestion made and purchase or lease those grounds, to be used as a permanent encampment."

Camp Notes. The camp presents a deserted appearance to-day. Headquarters are closed and there are no military restrictions placed on the men. Tomorrow it will be abandoned by all except the Quartermaster's force.

The Hornet's Nest Riflemen will come up to the city to-morrow and will go down to Southport on the Queen.

A party made up of members of the Hornet's Nest Riflemen went on a fishing frolic outside this a. m.

The Monroe Light Infantry broke camp last night and have gone home.

The Pasquotank Rifles and the Washington Light Infantry will leave this afternoon on the 4 o'clock train.

The Steele Creek Cornet Band of Mecklenburg left this morning for their homes. This band has recently become a regimental band to the Fourth Regiment. It is composed of 21 pieces.

A game of base ball will take place this afternoon at the Encampment, between the First and Second, and Third and Fourth Regiments, the two former against the two latter. Mr. Gifford, the champion third baseman of Charlotte, will catch for the Fourth.

Mr. L. A. Blackwelder, of Charlotte, Color Sergeant of Co. E, 4th Regiment, is a veteran of two wars. He served in the Mexican war in the company that went from Charlotte. He now has the battle flag of the company, which was carried by him through Mexico. It is in the armory of the Hornet's Nest Riflemen at Charlotte. During the late war Mr. Blackwelder served with the Hornet's Nest Riflemen.

Mr. T. Pitt, of the Edgecombe Guards, was with Co. F, 30th N. C. Regiment (artillery) during the war and was at one time encamped at Green's Mill, about a mile East of the city. This is the first time he has been here since the war.

Our reporter was presented to-day by two of the Hornet's Nest Riflemen with a handsome hickory cane, cut on the grounds, as a memento of the Encampment.

Mr. Marlon Cobb, of the Edgecombe Guards, was seriously injured yesterday. He had a friendly tussle with one of the other soldiers and in the fall to the ground broke one of the tendons of the thigh. He was taken to the hospital and will receive every care but it is likely that it will be some days yet before he can travel. This is the only real disaster that has occurred during the Encampment.

The Maxton Rifles, Lumber Bridge Light Infantry, Fayetteville Independent Light Infantry, Granyille Grays and Southern Stars, of Lincolnton, left for home this morning on the C. C. R. R.

Capt. Anthony, of the Scotland Neck Mounted Riflemen, desires to return thanks to those citizens of Wilmington who offered the horses for the parade last Tuesday and only regrets that they could not be used. He especially desires to thank the charming young lady who placed her saddle horse at his disposal.

The Scotland Neck Mounted Riflemen were highly complimented by Governor Seales for their pluck in appearing on foot during the parade.

There was an extra train last night between the Sound and the Hummocks, running at short intervals. The Seacoast Railroad had three separate and distinct trains on its tracks.

The Veterans in Line. The exact number of ex Confederate veterans who yesterday visited the Encampment at Wrightsville is not known but we think that it could not have been far from 200. The line was formed at the Orton House and moved about half-past 4 o'clock up Front street to the depot. It was under the command of Col. W. L. DeRosset, with Maj. Jas. Reilly, Capt. Henry Savage, Capt. James I. Metts and Lieut. Geo. W. Huggins as his aides. The Cornet Concert Band was in front and the old soldiers stepped out in good order to the tap of the drum. They presented an imposing sight and received many hearty cheers. There were three flags in the line, borne by Lieut. Geo. M. Crapon and Messrs. P. Heinsberger and Jno. H. White. That carried by Lieut. Crapon was the old regimental flag of the 3d N. C. Infantry, tattered and torn with shot and shell, a sacred relic of the war.

There was a long wait—nearly an hour—at the depot, and then the men boarded an already crowded train and were soon moving along swiftly towards the Sound. Arrived there they were greeted with a good old-fashioned yell and the line of march, about one mile, was taken up for the camp. Arrived there the line passed into the grounds, and by the Governor and his staff, whom they saluted, and before the long line of troops, all with arms at the present. They were halted and aligned facing the troops and then the whole column was put in motion and marched in front of the Governor and the line of veterans, saluting and being saluted as they passed. As each regiment came in front of the vets it was saluted with something that sounded like the old "rebel yell." Dress parade by the different regiments followed and then the veterans were dismissed.

It was a notable event and one long to be remembered by all who were present. It is not often now-a-days that 200 old Confederates are seen in one line and we doubt if such a sight is ever witnessed here again. Year by year the ranks are being thinned and even if the Encampment is held at the same place next year and there is another parade of the old guard, it is doubtful if there will be as many in line then as there were yesterday.

Lippincott's Monthly. The August Lippincott opens with an unusually strong novel by Maud Howe, entitled "Mammon," which has a vigorous and stirring plot. W. H. Babcock gives a very pleasant description and historical sketch of "The Eastern Shore of Maryland," with which this author is intimately acquainted. An excellent autobiographical sketch, "My Reasons for Becoming a Woman-Suffragist," is by Elizabeth L. Saxon. One of the most interesting features is the close of the prize competition, which began in the February number, and the announcement of the winners' names with the comparative standing of all the competitors. The poetry is by Frank Dempster Sherman, Clinton Scollard, and William H. Hayne. The departments keep up their interest.

Personal. Messrs. T. Sessions, of Bladen, and E. A. Hawes, of Pender, were in the city to-day. They took in Wrightsville and the Hummocks yesterday. Mr. J. P. Murrell, of Brunswick county, was in the city to-day and reports the crops in Brunswick and Bladen in a flourishing condition.

We were pleased to receive a visit to-day from Mr. H. A. Latham, of that excellent Democratic paper, the Washington Gazette, who is a member of the Washington Light Infantry and has been in camp with his company.

Farewell Dance at Southport. A very pleasant dance has been arranged to take place in the pavilion at Southport to-night. It is expected that many of the soldiers will attend and it will be a sort of farewell to them on the part of the hospitable people of Southport. The Queen of St. John's will go down, leaving here at 7:30 o'clock and returning after the dance. The fare for the round trip, including entrance to the pavilion, is only 50 cts.

Fly Traps, best and cheapest, at Jacobi's Hdw. Depot.

The Sylvan Grove carried 700 passengers to Carolina Beach to-day.

The Governor and his suite returned to Raleigh to-day, well pleased, we trust, with their visit to our "City by the Sea."

The Idler and the Rosa Win. The regatta at Wrightsville to-day resulted in a victory for the Idler and the Rosa, in their respective classes. The Mascotte was second and the Peggoty third in the first class and the Little Alice was second in the second class. The wind was very light. Fuller particulars of the race not at hand when our report closed.

Wilmington Ahead. The enterprising clothier and hatter, Mr. I. Shrier, has scored one again for Wilmington. When the campaign beaver was adopted by the Democratic Executive Committee as their uniform hat, Mr. Shrier at once placed orders with several of the largest factories in the country for several hundred dozen and has not only supplied his own State but shipped them to all parts of Virginia, South Carolina, Georgia and even as far as Florida. Mr. Shrier says he has sold more beavers than any house in the South. He informed our reporter that he expects to sell ten times as many as he has already sold. This certainly looks as though Cleveland and Thurman would be elected.

Marriage Bells. Mr. Henry Hewlett was happily married last night to Miss Hattie Bender, a beautiful and accomplished young lady, daughter of Sergeant D. S. Bender, of the city police force. The ceremony was performed by Rev. D. H. Tuttle, at Fifth Street M. E. Church, which was crowded with those who had assembled to witness the interesting event. The chancel was handsomely decorated with flowers. The ushers were Messrs. S. A. Craig, James Ellis, S. A. Greelish and Alex. McEachern. From the church the bridal party drove to the residence of the bride's father, where a reception was held, and from thence the newly-married pair went to the snug little home which the groom had provided on Ann, between Fifth and Sixth streets. The presents were numerous and some of them were very handsome.

From Pender County. EDITOR REVIEW.—A great many of the voters of Union and Holden townships desire the nomination of A. H. Paddison for Sheriff and William Rivenbark for Register of Deeds by the Democratic Convention of Pender County. They are men of ability and integrity, men whom we all would like to see elected to the positions, men who are popular with the rich and poor alike. They would not only carry the full vote of the party, but would run far ahead of their ticket; there are many poor men who have been assisted by them when in need, who would forget the ties of party when they come to the names of Alfred Paddison and Willie Rivenbark.

Union, the banner Democratic township in the county, has organized a Cleveland and Fowle Democratic Club at South Washington, with R. W. Rivenbark as President, and W. G. Dixey, E. T. Rivenbark and G. W. Woodcock as Vice-Presidents. When old Union puts her shoulder to the wheel and makes a strong pull, a long pull and a sure pull she generally gets there. We have been blessed recently with very refreshing rains which have been very beneficial to the crops and to health. Crops in this section are generally good, especially the corn crops, and with suitable seasons there will be an abundance of corn, peas and potatoes.

UNION. Dog collars. Largest and finest assortment ever before brought to this city, to be had at Jacobi's Hdw. Depot.

University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, N. C.
