TORPID LIVER

Is known by these marked peculiarities:
1. A feeling of weariness and pains in the limbs.
2. Bad breath, bad taste in the mouth, and
3. Constipation, with occasional attacks of diarrhoea.
4. Headache, in the front of the head;
5. Nausea, dizziness, and yellowness of skin.
6. Distention of the stomach and bowels
by wind.
7. Depression of spirits, and great melanccholy, with lassitude and a disposition to leave every thing for to-morrow.
A natural flow of bile from the liver is essential to good health. When this is obstructed it results in:

BILIOUSNESS,

which, if neglected, soon leads to serious diseases. Simmons' Liver Regulator exerts a most beneficial influence over every kind of biliousness. It restores the liver to proper working order, regulates the secretion of bile and puts the digestive organs in such condition that they can do their best work. After taking this medicine no one will say, "I am bilious."

"I have been subject to severe spells of Congestion of the liver, and have been in the habit of taking from 15 to 20 grains of calomel which generally did me up for three or four days. Lately I have been taking Simmons' Liver Regulator, which gave me relief without any interruption to business."—J. Hogg, Middleport, Ohio.

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. XII.

WILMINGTON, N. C., SATURDAY, AUGUST 4, 1888.

NO 154.

We notice that the Alexandria Progress makes a detailed report upon the action of the committee which has agreed to report favorably upon the bill introduced by Gen. Lee, the Representative from the Alexandria district, known as the "Lee Pure Food bill." This bill seems to be leveled directly at one article, and that is lard, into which a Southern product, pure cotton seed oil, is frequently found to be an ingredient. Hon. C. W. McClammy, Representative from our adjoining district, the Third, is a member of the committee and he opposed the bill. He is reported as being "unutterably, unchangeably, and eternally opposed to the Lard bill, which was simply intended to benefit one set of manufacturers by taxing another and in doing it pile up more unnecessary internal revenue. He favors general pure food legislation, provided the proper constitutional limits are respected."

We have not seen the bill agreed upon by the committee, but we shrewdly suspect that its principal effect will be in boosting the lard market and making consumers pay more money for the same article than they now do. There is another effect, however, which will surely result, if the bill becomes a law, and that will be to add to the already big surplus in the overflowing treasury, for there will be a "lardine" or something of that kind manufactured under the provisions of the bill and the sacred influence of an infernal internal revenue tax. But cotton seed oil, which is the only decent ingredient besides hog fat in lard, is a Southern product and must therefore be taxed for all it is worth. We want to see all of these adulterations choked out and we want to see the "adulterers" held up to the public view but it seems to us that the right way to do this is not to pile up any more of the odious war taxes.

As for Maj. McClammy we glory in his spunk in talking plainly and to the point. He is a North Carolina Democrat and believes in doing all he can to promote the principles of his party here at home. In this we are with him. This is not Republican doctrine but pure Democratic gospel, coming down to us from two successive conventions, as the solemn and deliberate convictions of the Democratic party in North Carolina.

The largest Soldiers' Reunion ever known in North Carolina was held at Pittsboro on Thursday. The occasion was notable also as being the first of the kind on which Senators Ransom and Vance had met. The News and Observer's report from Pittsboro says:

The largest gathering of Confederate veterans ever known in the State was held here to-day. There were more than 10,000 people here to witness the re-union and there were 1,000 actual veterans in line, while hundreds of others were outside the procession. Senator Vance was met at the depot by a most enthusiastic multitude on his arrival Wednesday night and a similar demonstration was made in behalf of Senator Ransom who arrived this morning. Never has there been such a crowd in Chatham and never has more enthusiasm been displayed anywhere. The procession formed at Court House Square and marched to Kelvin Grove, where the speaking was had. Senator Vance spoke first, dwelling in most eloquent terms on the splendor of Southern valor as displayed on the field during the war, and he was followed by Senator Ransom, who spoke in the same glorious strain and in his usual superb manner. It is seldom that our two noble Senators have been met together at any North Carolina gathering; never before have they been together at a Confederate reunion. The meeting then both to-day by their multitude of friends here has been a pleasure beyond expression and one appreciated by the old soldiers in the highest degree.

There were twenty companies represented in the reunion, and Col. J. R. Lane, of Chatham, was chief marshal of the parade. The Siler City band furnished the music for the occasion and elicited deserved encomiums on every hand. Moore county was represented as well as Chatham, and so were Randolph, Guilford and Durham. There were 6 veterans of two wars, the Mexican and our late unpleasantness. Altogether it was a most successful and most enjoyable occasion in all respects. Too much praise cannot be awarded those who were instrumental in getting up the reunion and it is nothing more than right that especial mention should be made of Capt. W. L. London, of the old Chatham Rifles, and H. A. London, Esq., of Grimes' staff, in the time that tried men's souls, both of whom labored unceasingly for the success of the enterprise. It is safe to say there has never been a more enthusiastic reunion of Confederates and seldom has there been a larger one. At one time the crowd formed a line down which our Senators went amid the most vociferous cheering, and it is estimated that that line was five deep and certainly it stretched from the court-house to Kelvin Grove, a distance of half a mile at least. Old Chatham fairly "spread herself," and wants to see some other county in the State do as well.

Distress after eating, heartburn, sick headache, and indigestion are cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla. It also creates a good appetite.

A Dangerous Thing.

Capt. Ingram, of the Gulf Stream arrived at this port this morning and reports that on Thursday afternoon, Cape Charles bearing W. 1/2 S. and the Winter Quarter Lightship N. 1/2 E., he passed a spar standing upright six feet above the water. It is probably attached to the wreck of some vessel and is very dangerous to crafts bound either North or South or into or from Chesapeake Bay.

The Yacht Race Yesterday.

After all, and contrary to the expectations of many, the appointed regatta of the Carolina Yacht Club took place yesterday, over the usual course at Wrightsville. The wind was so light that it was after 4 o'clock before the race was started and then there were but four yachts that entered. These were the Loulie, sailed by W. Atkinson; the Phantom, sailed by R. L. Williams; the Idler, sailed by Pembroke Jones, and the Pegotty, sailed by Norwood Giles. The Pegotty won the race, beating the Idler by one minute and fifty-five seconds.

The Loulie was the winner in the second class. The Phantom dropped out before the race was finished.

The champion flag was presented by Mr. Wm. Latimer, and received in behalf of the Pegotty by Mr. Norwood Giles in a pleasant, humorous speech. The prize won by the Loulie was presented by Mr. Wright Meares and received by Mr. Atkinson. The judges were Capt. Jno. H. Daniel and Messrs. McRee Cowan and D. M. Williams.

The next regatta is announced for the 17th inst., when it is expected all yachts of the Club will appear and take part.

How to Get a Cinder Out.

Nine persons out of every ten with a cinder or any foreign substance in the eye will instantly begin to rub the eye with one hand while hunting for their handkerchief with the other. They may, and sometimes do, remove the offending cinder, but more frequently they rub till the eye becomes inflamed, bind a handkerchief around the head and go to bed. This is all wrong. The better way is not to rub the eye with the cinder in it at all, but rub the other eye as vigorously as you like. A few years since I was riding on the engine of a fast express. The engineer, an old school-mate of mine, threw open the front window, and I caught a cinder that gave me the most excruciating pain. I began to rub the eye with both hands. "Let your eye alone and rub the other eye" (this from the engineer). I thought he was chaffing me, and worked the harder. "I know you doctors think you know it all; but if you will let that eye alone and rub the other the cinder will be out in two minutes," persisted the engineer. I began to rub the other eye, and soon I felt the cinder down near the inner canthus, and made ready to take it out. "Let it alone and keep at the well eye," shouted the doctor pro tem. I did so for a minute longer, and looking in a small glass he gave me found the offender on my cheek. Since then I have tried it many times, and have advised many others, and I have never known it to fail in one instance (unless it was as sharp as a piece of steel, or something that cuts into the ball and required an operation to remove it.) Why it is so I do not know, and that one may save much suffering if one will let the injured eye alone and rub the well eye. Try it.

A CHILD KILLED.

Another child killed by the use of opiates given in the form of Soothing syrup. Why mothers give their children such deadly poison is surprising when they can relieve the child of its peculiar troubles by using Acker's Baby Soother. It contains no Opium or Morphine. Sold by Munds Bros., druggists.

The Lutheran Church.

English services will be held at 11 a. m. to-morrow in St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church. It is expected that Rev. Prof. R. G. Turner, the Principal of Lutherville Female Seminary, near Baltimore, will arrive in the city to-night to preach, if not Rev. F. W. E. Peschan, the pastor, will preach. No services at night.

Rock Crystal Spectacles and Eyeglasses.

Advice to old and young: In selecting spectacles you should be cautious not to take more magnifying power than has been lost to the eye as in the same proportion that you pass that point of increase, will cause you further injury to the eye. Using glasses of stronger power than is necessary is the daily cause of premature old age to the sight. You can get the best at Heinsberger's!

The Campaign Organ.

The numerous newspapers of the State have put on their war paint and settled down to business. We may expect some lively music before November. The best campaign organ and one we can recommend is sold by J. L. Stone. Polite and attentive salesmen will take pleasure in showing instruments and giving prices.

Fishing Tackle. A full assortment of all kinds for both salt and fresh water fishing at Jacob's Hdw. Depot.
