TORPID LIVER

Known by these marked peculiarities:
1. A feeling of weariness and pains in the limbs.
2. Bad breath, bad taste in the mouth, and turned tongue.
3. Constipation, with occasional attacks of diarrhoea.
4. Headache, in the front of the head; nausea, dizziness, and yellowness of skin.
5. Heartburn, loss of appetite.
6. Distension of the stomach and bowels by wind.
7. Depression of spirits, and great melancholy, with lassitude and a disposition to leave everything for to-morrow.
A natural flow of Bill from the Liver is essential to good health. When this is obstructed it results in

BILIOUSNESS,

which, if neglected, soon leads to serious diseases. Simmons' Liver Regulator exerts a most felicitous influence over the evil of biliousness. It restores the Liver to proper working order, regulates the secretion of bile, and puts the digestive organs in such condition that they can do their best work. After taking this medicine no one will say, "I am bilious."

"I have been subject to severe spells of Congestion of the Liver, and have been in the habit of taking from 1 to 30 grains of calomel which generally last for three or four days. Lately I have been taking Simmons' Liver Regulator, which gave me relief without any interruption to business." — J. H. Hugg, Middleport, Ohio.

Mr. Blaine is expected to return on the City of New York on Wednesday day. A big parade is to be given in his honor. A week or so ago the managers claimed that 200,000 men would be in line. They are more modest now, putting it on Saturday at 20,000.

Hon. Roger O. Mills addressed the Harlem Democratic Club at their ratification meeting on Saturday night. There was an exceedingly large attendance, notwithstanding the fact that a fearful storm was raging at the time. Among the audience were hundreds of ladies.

It is said that the new Tariff bill now being hatched out in the Senate Committee will be submitted to Boss Blaine for his August approval or disapproval, just as soon as he lands in this country. As Blaine is about the only big gun the Rads can bring to bear in this fight it will be necessary to have his endorsement of the bill at the outset.

And now we are told that it is considered in political circles in Berlin that "the tension between France and Italy is of the most serious character." And it is all about "the protectorate established by Italy over Zulua." We should smile. These European political tensions are very elastic in their nature. They are constantly being "strained" but they never break.

COL. BRICE, the chairman of the Democratic Campaign Committee, is not very much of a talker. That is to say, he doesn't talk when he hasn't got anything to say and he never gives an opinion unless he has excellent reasons for the faith that is in him. For the first time, on Saturday last, he expressed himself freely as to the issue. He told a New York Star reporter this:

"Making all allowances for the natural enthusiasm of our correspondents for the Democratic cause, I feel justified in saying that we will carry Michigan, Minnesota, Illinois, Wisconsin and Iowa, each of which has hitherto been Republican in every Presidential election since 1856."

The Sultan of Turkey has a nice little household to keep up. He doesn't do his own marketing, though. According to the New York Herald he has over 6,000 persons about him, to whom three square meals must be given every day. It costs over $41,000,000 a year to keep up his establishment. Here is the itemized estimate:

The estimate is that it costs per year to supply the food for the Sultan's household, horses and animals, aside from the value of the product of the vast farms, very nearly if not quite.....$ 5,000,000

Cost of furniture, bedding and carpets.....3,000,000

Drugs, women's clothes, jewels, cosmetics.....10,000,000

Caprices of all kinds.....15,000,000

Sultan's clothes and bedding.....2,000,000

Sundries, presents and servants' wages.....4,000,000

Plate, gold and silver dishes.....2,500,000

Carriages, 474 of them.....474,000

Total.....$41,474,000

That is a snug little sum, but it is an under rather than an over estimate, as every one who has lived long in Turkey and had means of judging and seeing the reckless extravagance of the royal household will concede. Every little while one of the Sultanas will tire of her furniture and order her rooms refurnished, instantly, and this will cause the others to insist upon having theirs done so, too, and all these changes are very costly and come under the head of household expenses. So that large as the sum appears it is still not large enough.

Are you weak and weary, overworked and tired? Hood's Sarsaparilla is just the medicine to purify your blood and give you strength.

The Campaign Organ.

The numerous newspapers of the State have put on their war paint and settled down to business. We may expect some lively music before November. The best campaign Organ and one we can recommend is sold by J. L. Stone. Polite and attentive salesmen will take pleasure in showing instruments and giving prices.

Rock Crystal Spectacles and Eyeglasses

Advice to old and young: In selecting spectacles you should be cautious not to take more magnifying power than has been lost to the eye as in the same proportion that you pass that point of increase, will cause you further injury to the eye. Using glasses of stronger power than is necessary is the daily cause of premature old age to the sight. You can get the best at Jacobi's Hdw. Depot.

The Old Showman.

Old John Robinson, the veteran showman, died in Cincinnati on Saturday. He was 82 years of age. He was one of our earliest recollections, of the time when he used to visit Wilmington with his circus and pitch the tent on the "Old Academy Hill," and on the site of the present City Hall yard. Jimmy Robinson, his son, was then a mere lad and used to do some wonderful bareback riding, even in those early days.

Lots of Skipjack.

There has been some very fine fishing at the Hummocks for two or three days past. One day, not more than a week ago, the channel was found to be full of skipjack. There was an immense quantity of them and they were found to be ravenous-ly hungry; so hungry, in fact, that in some instances they bit at the bare hook. It didn't take long to find out all this and soon the bridge was lined, on either side, with fishermen. The catch was a very fine one. It is said, with the wind from the West, as it has been to-day, it is likely that there will be more good sport there to-day, and we have gone down to try it. Will report progress to-morrow.

Fishing on Sunday.

Morally, it is wrong to angle for fish on Sunday; legally, it is not.
The law reads:

It shall be unlawful for any person to fish on Sunday with a seine, drag net or other kind of net, except such as are fastened to stakes; and any person violating this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be fined not less than two hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or imprisoned not more than twelve months.

This is a law and a strange one it is to us. It could be bettered, but it ought to be bettered. It is good enough as far as it goes but it ought to go further or be repealed. As it stands now a man can fish on Sunday with a line, but not with a net, more of a distinction, it seems to us, than a difference. We don't think it right to fish on Sunday, either with a net or with a hook and line.

Personal.

MR. JNO. R. MARSHBURN, of Pender county, was in the city to-day and paid us a pleasant visit.

COL. JESSE HARGRAVE, of Laurel Hill, who has been spending a few days at Capt. Manning's hotel, at Wrightsville, left this morning on his return home.

The Next Horticultural Fair.

The North Carolina State Horticultural Society will hold its sixth annual Fruit Fair with the Wake County Horticultural Society, at Raleigh, N. C., Wednesday and Thursday, August 15th and 16th, 1888, in Metropolitan Hall. Over $500 cash premiums offered, open to the State. Every county in the State requested to compete. Hon.

D. G. FOWLE will deliver the address of welcome on Wednesday, the 15th, at 11:30 a.m. Rev. G. W. SANDERLIN will deliver the Annual Address on Wednesday, the 16th, at 12 m.

The Island Beach Hotel.

There is fine sport now at the Hummocks. The Island Beach Hotel is now completed and fully prepared for the reception of guests.—

There are many there now, some from the city and some from the up-country and those who have stopped there say that the rooms are all delightfully situated, cool, airy and with a fine view, and that the house is in every respect well kept. Fishing, bathing and sailing parties are organized every day from among the guests and the facilities for enjoyment are really unlimited.

The Knights Templar.

The next conclave of the Knights Templar will be held in this city immediately after the meeting of the Grand Chapter next year. The following officers were elected at Winston, last week as we learn from the

A CHILD KILLED.

Another child killed by the use of opiates given in the form of Soothing syrup. Why mothers give their children such deadly poison is surprising when they can relieve the child of its peculiar troubles by using Acker's Baby Soother. It contains no Opium or Morphine. Sold
