Reminiscences of D. G. Fowle. X in an old file of the Farmer and Mechanic says: In looking over the records in the court house a few days ago, I stumbled upon some very interesting facts.

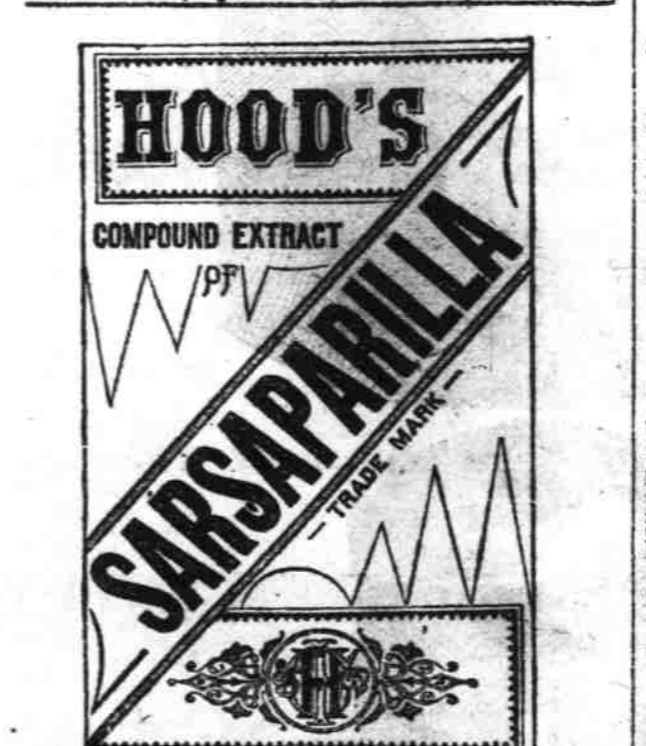

your pen and write as I shall dictate: To His Excellency, J. Worth, Governor of North Carolina. SIR:—The process of this court has been illegally interfered with and a prisoner has been rescued from the sheriff by Daniel E. Sickness and Thomas Ruger and James Buford, of the United States army, and Friday Jones, colored, late a citizen of Wake county.

DAN'L G. FOWLE, Judge. This communication was sent at the moment by Judge Fowle to Governor Worth. The old hero was alarmed at the situation, which seemed to him an approaching conflict between the State and Federal authority.

Don't Experiment. You cannot afford to waste time in experimenting when your lungs are in danger. Consumption always seems, at first, only a cold.
