We see in Sunday's New York World that Ex Mayor S. H. Fishblate, of this city, is still summering at Asbury Park and that he is whooping up the Jerseyites for Cleveland and Thurman. The World says "he is willing to bet his pile on Cleveland, and it is no in considerable sum, but can find no takers." His judgment as usual will be correct.

The Adventists.

Elder J. A. Cargyle preached at the Second Advent Church last night, from the Experience and Prophecies of Job. The house was crowded and all seemed interested. His subject to-night will be "The Leaven in the Meal"-what the leaven is; what the meal is; who the woman is; and when she hid the leaven there.

The agent appointed for the purpaper has had more than usual success, and his part of the stock is nearly subscribed.

Birthday Celebration.

Mr. N. Jacobi's elegant residence corner Third and Mulberry streetr was thrown open last night to wel come a large number of friends of the family, the occasion being the birthday fete of the eldest son of the house, Mr. Marcus W. Jacobi, who has just attained his majority. It was a notable event, and one long to be remembered. The house and lawn were beautifully illuminated and the Italian harpers discoursed exquisite music throughout the evening. Mrs. Jacobi had prepared a delightfu repast and to this the guests were all summoned at about midnight Mr. Marcus Jacobi was presented with a number of beautiful and val uable souvenirs by admiring friends. His young male companions gave him an elegant diamond ring and a pair of opera glasses, and the young Mr. and Mrs. Steen have been to ladies presented him with a goldheaded cane. Mr. Jacobi, his father, gave him a unique diamond scarf drew together a large audience but 350 years, having been handed down fied. It was said by many to have

Mr. Wehrhan has been the leader of the band over since its organization and his retirement now is not of his own choice, but is rendered imperative by his health and was made under the advice of his physician. It was with great regret that it was tendered and accepted. The sense of the company is best expressed by the following resolutions, handed us for publication:

Yellow Fever Talk.

There is still much talk here now of yellow fever, but there is no excitement. There was a report current last night that a case had been found at Florence, but this proves to have been false. Our people are beginning to accept the fact in a true spirit of philosophy. They see that everything possible is being done by the authorities to prevent its introduction here and a feeling of confidence is rapidly being developed everywhere. The city now is really cleaner than it has ever been before, at any period of its history, and this vigilance is to be kept up and not relaxed. We can afford pose of taking stock for an Advent to look with confidence to the fu-

The Mystery Co.

The entertainment given last night at the Opera House by the Steen-Rouclere Mystery Company the beards of the Opera House in a The guests lingered until a late, twelve-month. There might have the spiritualistic scene been given, which was not done, instead of the dog act, which, although very good indeed, was not equal to the interest felt in the promised developments. A committee, consisting of Capt. S. W. Nobles, Alex. Heide, F. H. Stedman, J. D. Smith, H. A. Kure and DuBrutz Cutlar, Jr., were called to the stage and these gentlemen exercised a close scrutiny over every thing done there but, it is needless to say, made no startling discoveries. Madam Steen is simply won derful in her exhibition of mind reading. It is inexplicable to us. We only know that, blindfolded as she sits on the stage, she displays a most wonderful insight into things which take place beyond her range of vision, even were the bandage not there. She added up columns of figures rapidly and accurately, with her back turned to the black-board, as quick as thought would tell what number or word any one was think ing of. The date of one's birth was written on a piece of paper, and she not only told who wrote it, but also gave the exact month and year in which the person was born. The other parts of the entertainment were also very fine. Messrs, Rouclere and Nelsonia are splendid jugglers and there is no exaggera-
