STANTON'S RECORD. (Raleigh News and Observer.)

Have the people of North Carolina forgotten the infamous legislation "Address" of August 1868? Have they forgotten the no less infamous Shoffner bill of 1869?

Edison's Agent—"Wouldn't you like to buy a phonograph? It will store up everything you say and repeat it to you. Want one?" Omaha Man—"No; got a wife."—Omaha World.

Are quickly given to every part of the body by Hood's Sarsaparilla. That tired feeling is entirely overcome.

Another lot of those celebrated Oil Stoves just received at Jacob's Hdw. Depot. It will pay you to use one.

temer of education, property and character.—to you, ye men, and especially ye women, who have never received anything from these colored people but services, kindness and protection—did it never occur to you that these same people, who are so very bad, will not be willing to sleep in the cold when your houses are denied them, merely because they will not vote as you do?

What could have been more devilishly insidious than this—what more calculated to excite the negroes, in their inflamed condition, to arson and murder? Was it without effect? Let the record of the destruction of dwelling houses, barns and gin houses by the torch of the incendiary, especially in the East, a record so startling as to make insurance companies loth to take risks in the section indicated—let this record answer and the story of nights of sleepless anxiety, of loss of property, of physical suffering endured during the whole period is enough to satisfy the most malignant hater of the Southern people—enough also to consign every signer of the address to the loathing and scorn of all law-abiding people to the world's end.

George W. Stanton was one of those signers, along with the rest of the Radical workers of iniquity in the Canby Legislature. Is such a man fit to be presented to the people of North Carolina for their suffrages? Yet he is presented by the Republicans. Four years ago he was nominated by the State Convention of the Radical party for the office of Secretary of State. Later, on the declination of Mr. Duke, he was made, by the Radical Executive Committee, the candidate of the Radical party for State Treasurer. Now again he is the Radical candidate for Secretary of State. Is he a fit man to be presented to the white men of the State? Have we reached a pass where we can vote for a man whose name was affixed to the monstrous publication from which we have quoted? Have we reached such a stage of disregard of our own interests that we can support in anywise a party which insists year after year on putting forward such a man for office?

AUGUST ANTICS. "Miss, what is your exact age?" asked the lawyer. "When I go out with my papa I am fifteen years of age; when I am with mamma, only twelve."

"Oh, don't let the word be nay." "The lover cried in woe." "All right, John Henry," she replied. "It sha'n't be nay, but no."

"Madam," said the landlady, "when you engaged your room this morning, you said you had no children!" "I haven't," replied madam. "There is a little girl crying on the floor above. Is she not yours?" "No; she is an adopted child."
