THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL XII WILMINGTON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 22, 1888. NO 169.

The Senate has rejected the fisheries treaty.
President Cleveland is a hard worker, even amid the torrid Summer heats. He spends most of his time at his country place at Oak View, where he does much of his work. An account says:
The President does not appear to be affected by the heat and the malaria, of which so many Congressmen complain. He has found that his country place at Oak View contributes much to the comfort of a summer spent in Washington.
The President sleeps at Oak View every night, and generally spends two days there each week, without coming to the White House. Most of his work is now done at Oak View, and the office building which has been erected there will be a great convenience. A suburban villa occupied by a family is hardly large enough for the mass of papers which Mr. Cleveland brings about him when he works.
In the preparation of pension vetoes he has before him all of the papers at the Pension office and all documents of every description which can throw any light upon the subject under investigation. He devotes as much attention to each case as if it were the most important lawsuit.

There is a growing belief that the Senate will not pass a tariff bill this session. It was to have been reported by the middle of this month but as yet it has not been forthcoming. A New York Star special says: It is firmly believed to-night that the Republicans have about completed their bill, and that nothing now remains for them but to bring Messrs. Plumb and Ingalls to the support of the proposed cut on sugar. Still the same reserve that has characterized the leaders of the party all along touching the way they are to meet the Mills bill, still controls them when approached on the subject. Notwithstanding all that has been said about the necessity of passing a tariff bill, several Republican politicians here are of the opinion that no bill will pass.
The latest speculation on this point is that the Republicans will endeavor to excuse themselves on the score that according to the latest figures obtained the surplus, after the present appropriation bills have become laws, will, instead of being a sum of dangerous size, be of comparatively small size, and that the fear of a panic being there by removed, the necessity of action by reducing the tariff is not nearly so great as it was. They will ask, therefore, longer time in which to consider the subject, and will promise, of course, to make and pass a thoroughly satisfactory bill in case they are successful in November.
There is a report, however, which is not believed, that the bill has been completed and will be presented to the Senate this week.

The many remarkable cures Hood's Sarsaparilla accomplishes are sufficient proof that it does possess peculiar curative powers.

Rock Crystal Spectacles and Eyeglasses
Advice to old and young: In selecting spectacles you should be cautious, not to take more magnifying power than has been lost to the eye as in the same proportion that you pass that point of increase, will cause you further injury to the eye. Using glasses of stronger power than is necessary is the daily cause of premature old age to the sight. You can get the best at Heinsberger's.
Headquarters for Base Balls, Bats, Masks, Gloves, Belts &c., is at Heinsberger's.

There was .46 of an inch of rainfall up to 3 p. m. to-day.

The Saturday excursion rates on the railroads will expire this week by limitation and will not be renewed this season.

It was just lovely at Wrightsville and the Hummocks last night, with a high tide and a full moon and a clear sky.

We have had good rains to-day—gentle showers, but still disagreeable for those who were compelled to be out of doors.

There were 200 people at Carolina Beach to-day, the occasion being an Excursion given by the Fifth Street M. E. Sunday School.

Indications.
For North Carolina, rain, followed by clearing weather and generally cooler.

The rains this week have extended well up into the interior and we may look for a fresher here in a day or two. We hope, however, that it will not be high enough to injure the fine corn crops on the river low lands.

The moonlight excursion advertised for to-night on the Queen of St. John's has been postponed until to-morrow (Thursday) night, on account of the weather when, as the indications are favorable for fair weather then, it will take place.

When the fire alarm sounded at about noon to-day the hose reel horse of Howard Relief F. E. Co. No. 1 took his place under the drop harness and before the driver could get to him he dashed into the street. After a vain effort to find a fire he returned to his stall.

Mr. W. H. Stokley is making some noted improvements on his premises at Wrightsville. He is preparing now for the oyster season and next month will furnish both New River and Myrtle Grove oysters in any style desired. Mr. James A. Dray, who has been with him during the summer, will have charge of this department.

Hands Wanted.
One hundred hands wanted on pants. Highest price paid. None but experienced hands need apply.

At the Hummocks To-Night.
There will be grand hop to-night at the Island Beach Hotel, a moonlight sail in the channel and an elegant supper to back it all up. The present schedule is just right for this. Parties can go down at 5, 7 or 9 o'clock. The last train leaves the Hummocks at 11 o'clock but if the conditions are all favorable it is likely that an extra train may be run, leaving at a still later hour. It is the last full moon of the Summer and should be make the most of.

At the Beach Last Night.
The wind was a little high but that was all of the drawback to the enjoyment of those who went down last night on the Sylvan Grove to Carolina Beach on the excursion given by the St. Andrew's Brotherhood of St. James' Home. A large number went down during the day and many of these remained over to enjoy the moonlight. It was a delightful occasion. The boat returned to the city about midnight.

Tournament at Greensboro.
We acknowledge the reception of an invitation to attend the Firemen's Tournament and Celebration, to be held at Greensboro September 12th and 13th. It promises to be a big thing. There will be band contests, fire engine contests, hook and ladder truck racing and various other interesting events. Nearly $1,000 is offered in prizes and the monument to the Confederate dead is to be unveiled on this occasion. The railroads have granted rates of about 2 cents a mile.

Fishing Tackle. A full assortment of all kinds for both salt and fresh water fishing at Jacobi's Hdq. Depot.

Personal.
Mr. W. G. Haughton, of Charlotte, has been in the city for a few days on a visit to relatives and friends here.

Mt. Olive Telegram: Mrs. Jennie Chesnut, the clever and accommodating hostess of the "Pearsall House," left last Tuesday afternoon for Wilmington where she goes to accept the position of housekeeper of the well known and justly popular Orton House. The departure of this good, christian lady is a great loss to our town, as she is one of the best hotel keepers in the State, and was universally popular with the travelling public.

Peppered With Duck Shot.
For some weeks past periodical visits have been paid by some one unknown to the stables of Mr. Geo. S. Willis, foreman of this office, who resides on Princess street, between Sixth and Seventh. Mr. Willis has made several attempts to catch him at it but without success, until last night. At one time he had a communication established between the stable and his bedroom, by means of a cord and a bell, but the nocturnal visitor in some way became aware of this fact and managed to get to the stable by avoiding the string. He put the bridle on the mare and tried to get her out of the stable but the evidences showed that she outpulled him and would not go. Last night, about 1 o'clock, the rascal made another visit and Mr. Willis, who happened to be awake at the time, heard an alarm given by a neighbor. He jumped up and seized his gun, a breech loader, and hurried out, just in time to see the fellow running away. He fired at him twice and is sure he hit him with the first barrel. The gun was loaded with duck shot and it is probable that some one, who is as yet unknown, is now laid up in bed with a badly peppered head and neck. The rascal got out of the lot and made tracks down Princess to Sixth street and thence towards Market. The police were notified and it is hoped that the man will yet be detected. Mr. Willis says that he was either white or very light-colored.

The Democrats of Asheton.
EDITOR REVIEW:—The Democratic voters of Asheton and vicinity met at Asheton, Pender county, last Saturday, the 18th inst., and organized a Cleveland and Fowle Club, with enthusiastic results. An election for officers resulted as follows:
President—W. F. Robitzsch.
Vice Presidents—G. M. Peterson, B. G. Crisp, R. T. Pickett, W. J. Robitzsch, R. T. Bloodworth.
Treasurer—J. C. Hardwick.
Secretaries—A. E. Bobitzsch and J. B. George.

The large crowd present was enthusiastic in the cause of Democracy—many addressing the meeting in a forcible and effective manner, that were never known to make a public speech of any kind before. We hope this is an earnest of the fruition that is to be.
