The supervising architect of Chicago has completed the revision of the city building laws which was ordered some time ago by the council. Among the more important provisions which the new ordinance covers are that all stages be provided with an iron drop-curtain; that school houses be constructed with fire-proof stairs, with sufficient stair space to admit of easy exit; that no tenement house shall exceed six stories in height except it be absolutely fire-proof, and that all tenement houses shall be equipped with fire proof stairways and partitions, and proper fire escapes and exits. In addition to the precautions against fire, the ordinance also covers all questions of sanitation.

The Empress Victoria seems to have been handsomely provided for. Frederick's private fortune was $750,000, invested in English funds. In addition to this she has a maintenance and five palaces, all the expenses of which will be borne by the State. The Berlin palace, which she has occupied since her marriage, will be her town residence. In addition she has the Villa Carlotta at Potsdam, a schloss at Wiesbaden, an old castle at Hombourg, and the Castle of Bornstadt. She is now busy preparing for a monument of the late Emperor. It will be an exact copy of the Church of the Holy Grave at Ennsheim, near Tablach. It is very peculiar in its architecture and is admired by all visitors to the Puster Valley. It was a great favorite with Frederick, and two architects are now making plans of it for reproduction above the grave at Friedenskirehe.

The Verdict Unanimous.
W. D. Solt, Druggist, Bippus Ind., testifies: "I can recommend Electric Bitters as the very best remedy. Every bottle has given relief in every case. One man took six bottles, and was cured of Rheumatism of 10 years' standing." "Abraham Hare, druggist, Bellville, Ohio, affirms: "The best selling medicine I have ever handled in my 20 years' experience, is Electric Bitters." "Thousands of others have added their testimony, so that the verdict is unanimous that Electric Bitters do cure all diseases of the Liver, Kidneys or Blood. Only half a dollar a bottle at W. H. Green & Co's. Drug Store."

AUGUST ANTICS.
The porcupine is probably the best informed of all the animals. He can give you more points than you will know what to do with in a week.—Burlington Free Press.

Beneath a ripe persimmon-tree Two learned lawyers chanced to be. "Climb," said the first: "I'll catch—you toss 'em."
But 't'other shook his head: "Non possumus!"
"And so the ice cream season, is again upon us, George," she said shyly. "Yes," he responded. "I never pick up a paper now that I do not expect to find some awful case of poisoning."
The breeze flit soft on the prairie. The steamers ply free on the main. Maud swings on the gate like a fairy. And summer's come back once again.—Duluth Paraphraser.

Hotel clerks are popularly supposed to own the biggest diamonds in the country, but this is not so. Baseball diamonds are the biggest things just now in the public eye.—Rochester Post-Express.

A Pennsylvania man who had a landslide of about a million tons come down on his cow pasture, posted the following sign on the debris: "A new lot just received. For sale cheap."
Burlington Free Press.

Sir Morell Mackenzie's work on "The Voice" is a standard authority, and yet the distinguished physician failed to note one important fact, which is that the voice cheers, but does not inebriate.—New York Sun.

"A rose by any other name would smell as sweet."
A maxim quickened by Shakespeare's touch.
Alas, that Shakespeare did not tell us if
A rose by any other name would cost as much!

A HEALTHY GROWTH.
Acker's Blood Elixir has gained a firm hold on the American people and is acknowledged to be superior to all other preparations. It is a positive cure for all Blood and Skin Diseases. The medical fraternity endorse and prescribe it. Guaranteed and sold by Munds Bros., druggists.
