

THIS PAPER
Published every evening, Sundays excepted, By JOSH. T. JAMES, Editor and Prop.
SUBSCRIPTIONS, POSTAGE PAID:
One year, $4.00. Six months $2.00. Three months $1.00. One month, 35 cents.
The paper will be delivered by carriers, free of charge, in any part of the city, at the above rates, or 10 cents per week.
Advertising rates low and liberal.
Subscribers will please report any and all failures to receive their paper regularly.

Its peculiar efficacy is due as much to the process and skill in compounding as to the ingredients themselves.
Take it in time. It checks diseases in the outset, or if they be advanced will prove a potent cure.

It takes the place of a doctor and a costly prescription. All who lead sedentary lives will find it the best preventive of all diseases of the digestive system.
Headache, Biliousness, Constipation, Depression, No loss of time, no interference with business of time, no danger from poisonous after taking. Cures Colic, Diarrhoea, Bowel Complaints, Fevers, Influenza, and all persons will find it the mildest and most effective remedy for the bowels.
A little taken in the morning sharpens the appetite, cleanses the stomach and sweetens the breath.

A PHYSICIAN'S OPINION.
"I have been practicing medicine for twenty years and have never been able to put up a vegetable compound that would effectively move the Liver to action, and at the same time aid (instead of weakening) the digestive and assimilative powers of the system."
L. M. HARRIS, M.D., Washington, Ark.

The Temple of Israel.
Some considerable improvements have been made recently to the Temple of Israel. The interior has been newly painted and the seats all renovated and the cushions upholstered in woolen rep. There is now scaffolding on the outside and wire screens are being placed as a protection to all of the windows, as a guard against the depredations of mischievous boys. It is a fact that the rock-throwers have already broken upwards of 500 of the lights in the beautiful stained-glass windows. The wire screens will hereafter protect them from the boys and the rocks.

The Booksellers' Board of Trade.
The second session of the Booksellers' and Stationers' Board of Trade was held this morning at 11 o'clock.

The Board perfected arrangements towards the establishment of a thorough exchange among the members of such books, school or miscellaneous, as may be unsaleable in one section and in demand in another. This book exchange will be one of the most useful features of the Board of Trade and will save the dealers from considerable losses consequent upon the frequent changing of school text books.

Under the head of a general discussion it was learned that none of the members of the Board of Trade, since its organization a year ago, have been selling any of the disreputable class of newspapers which were formerly so largely circulated in this State. It is the intention of the Board of Trade to drive such literature out of North Carolina if possible and to use every effort to build up the very purest literary atmosphere around our people.

The present official organization was unanimously re-elected for the ensuing year with the following changes: Rev. N. Robey, Corresponding Secretary, Goldsboro; Mr.
P. W. Mellick, of Elizabeth City, was added to the executive committee.

During the session many business methods and views were exchanged between the members of the Board to the mutual advantage of all, and the pleasant social meeting was very much enjoyed.

The Board of Trade adjourned to meet again on the second Tuesday in August, 1889, and the party spent the afternoon at Wrightsville and the Hummocks.

City Court.
Jno. Waddell was before the Mayor this morning charged with burning paper on the street; judgment was suspended. And that was the only case before the Mayor to-day.

From the Mountains.
Mr. and Mrs. Jno. F. Garrell returned to the city last night from a visit of several weeks to Western North Carolina and Tennessee. During his absence Mr. Garrell paid visits to the large cattle farms in that fine section and made arrangements for supplies of fine mountain beef cattle, mutton and lamb throughout the entire winter. The first car load arrived to-day, another is expected to-morrow and hereafter a car load will be received regularly every week. The first installment will be on his stalls, Nos. 1 and 2 South side Front street market, tomorrow morning and all are invited to call and see it and leave orders.

Wilmingtonians in Jacksonville.
We have a postal from Mr. G. W.
Thames, for many years a messenger on the Southern Express line between this city and Columbia and afterwards Clerk of the Market here, but who is now in quarantine at Jacksonville. Mr. Thames tells us that his three little boys have had the fever, but have recovered, and that thus far he and his wife have both escaped. He expresses himself as having no fears on his own account, as he has gone safely through several epidemics. The fever, he says, is in a mild form. He and his family are all quarantined and confined strictly to their own premises. All that goes into the house or out of it, even the food they eat, is passed in or out over the fence. Their quarantine is for 15 days. Mr. Thames conveys the gratifying intelligence that all of the rest of the Wilmingtonians in Jacksonville are well, so far, and he thinks that there is more fear than fever. The postal is dated last Saturday, the 25th, and took four days to get here.

Made Himself at Home.
Early yesterday morning Mr. D.
J. Steljes, who owns a summer residence on Masonboro Sound, received information that some one had taken possession of his place.
He immediately got his horse and buggy in readiness and started to the Sound to find out who it was and what he was doing. On arriving at Masonboro Mr. Steljes stopped at the house of a neighbor and got two or three men to accompany him to his house. Arriving at his place he found the house open and a dinner cooking on the stove in the kitchen, while the best bed showed signs of having been very recently occupied. The intruder was "not at home" but Mr. S. did not have long to wait for his return, he having gone to the landing to get a fresh supply of crabs for his dinner.
Arming himself with a stout piece of rope, Mr. Steljes went to meet him, which he did about half-way between the house and the landing.
The fellow did not know that he was the owner of the place and was about to pass him when he began to throw the rope on him in a pretty lively way. After giving him a good thrashing Mr. Steljes let him go and the last that was seen of him was as he passed the second toll house making Maud S. time toward the city.

The fellow was a white tramp and said he was from Jacksonville. He has been at Mr. Steljes' place for three days, having gained an entrance by breaking a light from one of the windows and passing his hand to the inside and removing the fastenings. Once in the house, he was all right, for the key had been left in the back door, and with this key he opened the kitchen, where he found a good supply of provisions to which he helped himself. He went in the garden and gathered vegetables and would catch fish and cook them. He is now meditating on the truthfulness of the quotation:
"Twas ever thus."

If there is any truth in the story that he is from Jacksonville, which we very much doubt, and if he is really in the city, there will be a good chance for some enterprising office or citizen to capture that reward offered by the Mayor.

Wire Cloth for your windows and and doors can be had at Jacobi's Hdw. Depot.

A pharmacist, registered in this State, and one who can bring the very best recommendations, advertises for a situation here. See ad.
in this issue.

Mr. W. H. Styron will remove on October 1st to North Front street and to save the trouble of moving will offer at cost for cash, for the next 30 days, the entire stock of boots and shoes in store No. 22 South Front street. See ad. in this issue.

Quite a happy party of ladies and gentlemen went up to Point Caswell this morning, with Capt. George Morton to be present at the pic-nic given there to-day, on his gallant little steamer. The start was made an hour or so before daylight.

For Saturday's Market.
Messrs. King & Sikes have received from Col. L. A. Powell, of Sampson county, ten head of the famous Sampson county beef which they will offer for sale on their stall, No. 4, Front street market, on Saturday morning. They have also another lot of ten head from Mr. J.
Carroll, of Duplin county. See ad.

The Shot-Gun Contest.
The clay-pigeon shooting match at the Hummocks, postponed from to-day, will take place to-morrow.
The arrangements are under the experienced direction of Mr. W. A.
Bryan, of the Orton House and Island Beach Hotel, and entries can be made with him up to 4 o'clock, the hour for the match. It is expected to be an exciting contest.

A Runaway.
Dr. A. M. Baldwin's horse, attached to his carriage, took a notion to run away this forenoon. He started from the corner of Tenth and Dock streets, and ran down Dock to Tenth and then to Market where he collided with a fence and broke the shafts and broke off the top of the carriage. The horse ran some little distance further when he was stopped by a colored man. No one was hurt.

Our Pressman Married.
Moses Jones, for nine years past the pressman in this office, and one of the most worthy colored young men in the city, was happily married last night to Evelina, daughter of Joseph J. Jones, one of the most prominent colored men in the city, at the residence of the latter, on Eight, between Castle and Queen streets. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. B. Small, pastor of St. Luke's A. M. E. Church, and the house was crowded with the friends and relatives of the happy pair. The bride was dressed in white satin and the wedding presents were numerous and some of them costly.

Improvements at the C. C. Depot.
The double daily passenger service on the Carolina Central R. R. has necessitated an increase in the accommodations at the depot here.
First, when the day train was put on, the old high platform was taken down and a lower one built to cover all of the room under the shed. This was found much more convenient as one train comes in just three minutes before the other one pulls out.
But it is found that more facilities are yet needed and hence the passenger shed is to be lengthened to 400 feet and made 35 feet wider. No better evidence of the determination of the authorities to maintain as a permanent thing the double daily service can be found.

GUARD AGAINST THE STRIKE.
And always have a bottle of Acker's English Remedy in the house. You cannot tell how soon Croup may strike your little one, or a cold or cough may fasten itself upon you.
One dose is a preventive and a few doses a positive cure. All Throat and Lung troubles yield to its treatment. A sample bottle is given you free and the Remedy guaranteed by Munds Bros., druggists.
