A Sad Accident.
A young man by the name of Willie Farrow, only 17 years of age, was drowned yesterday forenoon off Masonboro Beach. He was one of a fishing crew of three who had been out some five or six miles from land in a whale boat, fishing for market. The others of the party were Messrs. C. C. McKinney and John Farrow, the latter not related to the unfortunate lad. They were some distance off shore when they noticed a heavy cloud coming up from the Northwest. At this the anchor was pulled up, the sail hoisted and the boat was headed for the shore. When about a mile and a half from the beach the boat was struck by a squall and capsized. All three of the crew could swim but Messrs. McKinney and Farrow, who are both unusually expert swimmers, thought it best that Willie Farrow should not make the attempt. They therefore placed him as securely as possible on the bottom of the overturned boat, telling him to remain where he was; that they would swim ashore and get another boat and come out and take him off. This was wisely thought to be the best that could be done under the circumstances as the tide was making in at the time and there was no immediate danger of the boat being carried out to sea. The two men therefore swam for the shore, which they succeeded in reaching. On landing they turned to look for the boat and were surprised to see that Willie Farrow had left her and was himself making for the shore. They watched him in much anxiety as he manfully breasted the waves and the last they saw of him was when he rose to the summit of a wave. He then suddenly disappeared and was seen no more.

The facts were reported as soon as possible on the mainland and an anxious search has been kept up ever since all along the beach, in hopes that the body would be washed ashore, but up to noon to-day no trace of it has been discovered. The accident occurred yesterday morning, between 10 and 11 o'clock. During the afternoon the boat, bottom up, was thrown up on the lower end of Wrightsville beach, bordering on Masonboro Inlet.

S. Willis, for $965. The sale was made for partition.

Audit and Finance.
The Board met yesterday afternoon in regular session.

A communication was read from Mayor Fowler, in answer to an inquiry from the Board, stating that the cost of surveying, making estimates and drafting plans for a thorough system of sewerage for the city will cost as follows: Fee of Herrington, of New York, an expert sanitary engineer, $1,000 and expenses; fee of J. C. Chase, as assistant, from $300 to $350. The Mayor estimates the entire cost to be not less than $1,400 nor more than $1,600. In view of the imperative necessity of a sanitary system the Mayor recommended that the action of the Board of Aldermen recommending an appropriation for the purpose be concurred in.

Mr. Calder suggested that it would be best to wait until the city had determined to have a system of sewerage, before making surveys and estimates, and on his motion the Board refused to concur in the recommendation of the Board of Aldermen.
Bills for current expenses were audited and approved as follows: current expenses, $7,157.17; coupons, $5,050.50; bonds, $100. The bonds and coupons were burned in the presence of the Board.

Board of Aldermen.
The Board met in regular monthly session yesterday afternoon.

Alderman Pearsall, from Committee on Streets and Wharves, reported progress made in paving North Front street, and showing the cost of same, $1.60 per square yard, to be less than the estimates. The report was read and ordered on file.

Alderman Pearsall, also, as chairman of the Sanitary Committee, submitted a report showing the work being done, and stating that the sanitation of the city was better than ever before and yet much remained to be done. The Board have used 250 barrels of lime, 51 barrels of acid and 3,790 pounds of coppers. Committee on Ordinances submitted an ordinance making it unlawful to operate any steam engine in certain limits, unless the boiler of said engine is covered by a substantial shed or building with metal roof and the smoke-stack carried to such height as not to endanger other property in the vicinity. Referred to Fire Committee.

Alderman Fishblate, chairman of the Water Works Committee, said that he had refused to approve the bill of the Water Works Co., pending action upon the report of the special committee appointed to investigate the service and contract of the company.

Alderman King, from the special committee, submitted the following report:

To the Board of Aldermen:
The special committee appointed to investigate the complaints against the Clarendon Water Works Company for non-performance of the contract with the city respectfully report:

That they chiefly restricted their examination and investigations to the terms of the conditions and obligations of sections 7 and 8 of the contract, and after a thorough and full examination of witnesses, including the heads and assistants of the Fire Department and Engine Companies, the committee find as a fact that the company has wholly failed to comply with terms of said contract, both as to the height of the streams of water supplied during fires and also as to the quantity they supply; the eight or ten witnesses examined by the committee unanimously agree that the most favorable height attained by the streams from the hydrants east of Fourth street did not exceed fifty feet, and many instances being cited by the witnesses where the water did not reach the top of two-story buildings, and where the supply wholly failed to meet the requirements of the Fire Department. This failure of height and supply has been principally limited to that portion of the city east of Fourth street, though instances were cited as occurring in the business centre. It is the opinion of the committee, as also of the witnesses examined, that the failure is principally due to a difference in the size of the mains in that part of the city east of Fourth street, they being much smaller, as the committee are informed, than those in that part west of Fourth street.

The committee also find that the water furnished is not suitable in many respects for domestic use, and particularly for drinking purposes and washing clothes.

For the non-performance of the contract by the company in these particulars the committee are of the opinion that the contract has been forfeited and should be annulled, but appreciating the value and importance of the water works to the city and the citizens generally, and desiring if possible to remedy the existing objections without injury to an important and valuable enterprise, the committee respectfully recommend that the company be notified that the city will require improvements to be made so as to comply with the terms of said contract, and if the same are not made within ninety days from this date, the city will proceed to annul the same. All of which is respectfully submitted.

JAMES W. KING, A. G. RICAUD, GEO. W. PRICK, Committee.

The report of the committee was adopted.

Alderman Ricand reported, in reference to an ordinance in relation to ticket scalpers, referred to the City Attorney for opinion, stating that in the opinion of the latter the city had the right to impose a license tax on ticket brokers, and that a reasonable tax would be sustained by the courts.

Alderman Fishblate thereupon submitted an ordinance, taxing ticket brokers fifty dollars per month, and argued in favor of its adoption.

Alderman Pearsall seconded the motion of Alderman Fishblate.

Alderman Fishblate moved that a tax of $25 per month be imposed. This motion was advocated by Alderman Ricand, who explained that he was opposed to any tax that was prohibitory, which he would consider unconstitutional and void, but he was willing to vote for any tax that would stand the test and would afford the railroad companies protection.

The motion of Alderman Fishblate was put to a vote and resulted: Ayes—Pearsall, Ricand, King, Fishblate, Nays—Dudley, Price, Rice, Walker—a tie. The Mayor voted in the affirmative and declared the ordinance adopted.

The City Attorney, to whom was referred the matter of the refusal of the Western Union Telegraph Company to pay license tax, on the ground that such tax had been declared unconstitutional by the U. S. Supreme Court, submitted a report recommending that no effort be made to collect the tax. Referred to Finance Committee.

The Mayor said that there were gentlemen present who desired to address the Board, and upon this Mr. J. A. Bonitz arose. He said that he had hoped that some of the gentlemen of the committee on the "gala week" would be on hand to present the claims of the matter to the Board, the object of which was to benefit Wilmington. He read newspaper extracts to show that a "gala week" held in Charleston, S. C., was a great success, and pointed out the benefits which he expected would result from a similar affair held here. He asked that the Board make an appropriation of $500 in aid of the enterprise, and said that he had no doubt that $2,500 would be sufficient to carry out the plans of the committee having the matter in charge.

Alderman Ricand offered a resolution that the Board appropriate $500 for the gala week, when it is demonstrated that citizens have subscribed $2,000.

The Mayor said he desired to go upon record as being opposed to the appropriation.

Alderman Fishblate favored the proposition. He would vote $5,000 for it if necessary.

Alderman Ricand's resolution was voted down—Aldermen Fishblate, Ricand and Dudley voting in the affirmative, and Aldermen Pearsall, King, Rice and Walker voting in the negative.

A petition for the transfer of the quarantine station from the "Y" to some other portion of the city, and that the sanitary condition of that part of the city be looked after, as at present it is in a filthy condition, was referred to the Sanitary Committee.

Petition in relation to the precarious and dangerous condition of the old brick house on Front street between Orange and Ann street, known as the Cruise house, was referred to committee.

The Excursion To-Morrow.

The indications seem favorable for good weather to-morrow and the probabilities are that there will be a large attendance on the excursion to be given then on the Sylvan Grove to Southport. The affair is gotten up, as is well known, by the Masonic fraternity in this city and the proceeds are for the benefit of the fund needed to add another building to the Oxford Orphan Asylum. There will be good music and refreshments on board.
