WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 19, 1888.

IN CONGRESS YESTERDAY.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, September 18.—The Deficiency Appropriation bill was reported from the Committee on Appropriations, and ordered to be printed.

Mr. Sherman's resolution, offered yesterday, instructing the Committee on Foreign Relations to inquire into the state of the United States with Great Britain and the Dominion of Canada, and to report at the next session such measures as are expedient to promote friendly commercial and political intercourse between these countries and the United States, was taken up, and Mr. Sherman proceeded to address the Senate.

Mr. Morgan replied to Mr. Sherman, describing a portion of his speech as a "post mortem examination of the recent fisheries treaty," and adding that Mr. Sherman's "Zollverein" idea had seemed to settle into a plan for the annexation of Canada to the United States. Mr. Morgan said the Retaliation bill was in the Committee on Foreign Relations, which had not yet considered it, and he expressed great surprise at hearing the Senator from Ohio condemn that bill before it had ever been considered by the committee. After it had been considered tomorrow he would bring the subject to the attention of the Senate and country. He, therefore, preferred to have the matter over till tomorrow. Mr. Sherman's resolution went over without action.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Mr. Barnes, of Georgia, introduced a bill offering a reward of $100,000 to any person of any nationality who will discover the true cause or germ of yellow fever, with any certain means of effecting its prevention, destruction or material modification, or who, without discovering the cause or germ of said disease, shall discover a certain and practical mode of effecting its prevention, destruction or material modification. Referred.

A conference was ordered on the bill amending the Inter-State Commerce law.

Mr. Forney, of Alabama, then called up the conference report on the Sundry Civil Appropriation bill.

Mr. Burns, of Missouri, read a statement showing that the Senate in four years had increased the sundry civil bill by twenty-four millions, and this in spite of the fact that the House conferees, headed by Samuel J. Randall, had resisted the increase with bitterness.

Mr. O'Neill, of Pennsylvania—For the information of the gentlemen on that side of the house, I will inform them that one week from tomorrow Samuel J. Randall will be nominated unanimously by a Democratic Convention, composed of all shades of Democrats, without reference to the tariff. [Applause on the Democratic side.]

Mr. O'Neill, of Missouri—And get every intelligent vote in the district.

Mr. O'Neill, of Pennsylvania—I doubt whether there will be a Republican nomination against him. There have been efforts in some quarters to push him out, but the people will take care of him. [Cries on the Democratic side of "he's all right."]

The Campaign Organ.

The numerous newspapers of the State have put on their war paint and settled down to business. We may expect some lively music before November. To Pender County Democrats.

MOORE'S CREEK, Sept. 17, 1888. DEAR REVIEW:—Almost weekly we see in your valuable paper (which has a very wide circulation in Pender) the name of some new aspirant for some office in this county. It would seem that their name is multitude, who are so desirous to serve the dear people. This almost mania for office-holding may terminate in a great injury to the Democratic party.

They all cannot expect to be nominated, therefore there will be many disappointed ones. I write this in the interest of unity, harmony, good feeling and party success.

If there was ever a time in the history of the Democratic party in Pender that our forces should be united; that there should be the utmost harmony, unity and concert of action, it is in the campaign this year. I appeal to you, brother Democrats, if the grand old party is good enough in victory it should be as good in defeat.

Let us have no lukewarm voters nor sore heads after the county convention, but show your Democracy by working and voting for the nominees.

25th Annual Session.

THE TWENTY-FIFTH ANNUAL SESSION of Misses Pitt & James School will commence on Thursday, Oct. 4th, at St. John's Chapel, on Third, between Red Cross and Campbell streets, where it has been located for the past two years. The street cars running on Red Cross, a few yards from the building, can cover any objection to distance. A well ventilated schoolroom, pleasant playground, good cistern of water and retired situation make it more desirable than more central localities available.

The Principals, as heretofore, will spare no effort for the advancement of the pupils kindly entrusted to their care, giving individual attention to each, and ruling with firm but loving discipline.

Their many graduates, some of them now occupying the position of teachers, testify to their success. As always stated in their circulars, scholars received only for the session, no deduction being made except in cases of protracted sickness. Those entering after October charged only from date of entrance.

MUSICAL INSTRUCTION given by Mrs. M. S. Cushing, whose life-long devotion to the science and long experience in teaching, should be a guarantee for her ability.

Vocal music, Callisthenics and Free Hand Drawing, free of charge, daily exercises. Instruction in Needle-Work of all kinds, at a fee of charge, given weekly.
