A feeling of fullness, with occasional attacks of flatulency, in the front of the head. 4. Headache, dizziness, and yellowness of the face. 5. Heartburn, loss of appetite. 6. Distention of the stomach and bowels by wind. 7. Depression of spirits, and great melancholy, with lassitude and a disposition to leave everything for tomorrow. 8. BILIOUSNESS, which, if neglected, soon leads to serious disease. Simmons' Liver Regulator exerts a most beneficial influence over every kind of biliousness. It restores the Liver to its proper working order, regulates the secretions of bile and puts the digestive organs in such a condition that they can do their duty. After taking this medicine no one will say, "I am bilious."

"I have been subject to severe spells of Constipation of the Liver, and have been in the habit of using from 15 to 20 grains of calomel which generally gave me up for three or four days. Lately I have been taking Simmons' Liver Regulator, and have gained relief without any interruption to my business."—J. Hugg, Middleport, Ohio.

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL XII WILMINGTON, N. C., THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 1888. NO 200.

Flour advanced 40 cents a barrel in New York on Tuesday, all due to the gamblers, politely called speculators.

The reports as to yellow fever are more encouraging. It is believed now, with much reason, that the crisis has passed and that the epidemic will hereafter rapidly decline.

Democrats on the State Committee declare that if the election were held to-morrow Cleveland would carry New York by 25,000 majority, and they say that he is gaining strength every day.

The Republicans are getting very much alarmed over the prospect in Michigan and the author of the Mulligan letters is to be rushed to the front there as soon as can be. We build some very strong hopes on Michigan.

The sea serpent has paid a visit to the Georgetown, (S. C.) bar. He was seen there last Thursday by four persons on a tug which was towing a vessel to sea. A special in the News and Courier tells about it. It is described as being between 30 and 50 feet long, with a tail 15 feet long, dark in color and with a body as large as a flour barrel. The report comes pretty straight this time.

Here is some interesting railroad gossip. It is from the New York correspondent of the Charleston News and Courier: Richmond Terminal was the special object of attack to-day, and was knocked down to 2 1/2, the lowest point it has touched for some time. This depression in values, however, does not prevent important moves in Southern railroad affairs, as is shown by the negotiations now going on between the Richmond & Danville and the East Tennessee, Virginia & Georgia. The Richmond & Danville proposes to lease the East Tennessee for ninety-nine years, and the details are now being arranged. President George S. Scott, of the Richmond & Danville, has submitted in writing the general outline of a proposition to Gen. Sam Thomas, president of the East Tennessee, Virginia & Georgia, and it is said that the paper is in all material points satisfactory to the East Tennessee managers. Only a few minor details remain to be agreed upon, and the matter will then be ready for consideration at the meeting of the East Tennessee stockholders to be held on October 8th, and the ratification of the programme is a foregone conclusion from the fact that the majority of the stockholders have already been sounded on the subject.

The bookmakers are now at work in New York. The odds are all on Cleveland and Hill and it seems to be a difficult thing to get bets, even with odds offered. We gather this from the New York Star: A great deal of money is being put up on the exchanges and also by politicians and sporting men at the uptown hotels every evening on the result of the election. These bets take almost every conceivable form, but the Democrats as a rule have the call on the odds, except perhaps on the general result, in which case the betting is even. A week or ten days ago the Republicans were offering $100 to $90 on Harrison, but these offers were snapped up with such avidity that the bluffers stopped their shouting, and for a week past the betting on the general result as between Cleveland and Harrison has been even. That Cleveland will carry New York, New Jersey and Connecticut the ruling odds are $75 to $100; that he will carry Indiana, $90 to $100, and that he will carry New York alone, $100 to $75. The latter are the ruling figures at which bets are made that Hill will defeat Warner Miller, and that Hill will have 20,000 plurality the betting is even, with more offered than is taken.

The usual amount of bluffing has been going on in this, as in former campaigns. Jake Hess has been accused of indulging this pastime when he offered to bet any part of a host of $20,000 on Harrison, which had been placed in his hands. When he was sought for to cover some or all of this amount by Myron Bangs, of Syracuse, Edward S. Stokes and other Democrats, Hess failed to turn up in his usual haunts. Joseph K. Riekey, of Fulton, Mo., has placed $8,000 at the St. James Hotel, which he will bet to $7,000 that Cleveland will win. This money has been thus placed as the result of bluff talk by Republicans at this hotel on Monday night. It was stated by some of these political wranglers that on the previous evening a son of Phil Armour, the Chicago millionaire, had offered to bet $5,000 even that Harrison would be elected. Instantly Mr. Riekey pulled from a pocket a certified check for $8,000 on the Madison Square Bank, and exclaimed: "I will give $50 to any man who will bring young Armour here and induce him to repeat the wager."

Several young men made a run toward the Brunswick Hotel, where young Mr. Armour is staying, but they did not return. After waiting awhile Mr. Riekey authorized his friends to announce that he would bet $8,000 to $7,000 that Cleveland would be elected. Mr. Riekey is the best known non-professional sporting man in America. Four years ago he bet in one day $18,000 on Cleveland's election. He wagered altogether $30,000 on the result of that canvass and won $25,000. A check for $1,000 was received at the Hoffman House last night by Clerk Peacock from Mr. King, a prominent railroad man of Jackson, Tenn., with instructions to place it in two bets on the election. One bet is $500 to $400 on Cleveland, and the other half is to be placed at the same odds that Hill will defeat Warner Miller. The money now awaits takers at the counter of the Hoffman House office.

"I cannot praise Hood's Sarsaparilla half enough," says a mother whose son, almost blind with scrofula, was cured by this medicine.

Col. John L. Cantwell is having his residence on Princess street, near Ninth, overhauled and remodeled. Another story is also to be put on it.

Two new frame dwellings are nearly completed on the corner of Fourth and Mulberry streets. One of these is erected by Mrs. E. Schulten and the other by Mrs. C. S. Love.

Personal. Capt. Jno. W. Harper, of Southport, was in the city to-day.

Hon. A. M. Waddell returned to the city this morning, via the C. C. R. R., for a few days rest. Mr. and Mrs. B. H. J. Ahrens have returned to the city from a month's visit to the Catskill Mountains. We are glad to learn that Rev. D. H. Tuttle, who has been quite sick, is well enough to be out again. Mr. W. W. McDiarmid, of that excellent paper, the Lumberton Robesonian, is in the city to-day and favored us with a visit. Our good friend, Mr. A. F. Lucas, is a happy man now, his wife and family have returned from a visit of several weeks to relatives at Marion. Rock Crystal Spectacles and Eye-glasses. Advice to old and young. In selecting spectacles you should be cautious not to take more magnifying power than has been lost to the eye as in the same proportion that you pass that point of increase, will cause you further injury to the eye. Using glasses of stronger power than is necessary is the daily cause of premature old age to the sight. You can get the best at Heinsberger's.

Headquarters for Powder, Shot, Caps, Cartridges and Ammunition of all kinds is at Jacob's Hdw. Depot. Shells loaded at a moment's notice.

Important Notice. It will no doubt be a relief to those suffering from defective vision to learn that I have succeeded in securing, for a few days only, the services of the expert optician, Mr. H. L. Cason, who is representing the famous A. K. Hawkes' Eye Glasses and Spectacles; this gentleman, as many of our citizens remember, visited this city before and readily secured the confidence of the public. This is a rare opportunity to secure a perfect fit without extra charge for these glasses than the established retail price.

I will endorse any contract made by Mr. Cason. ROBERT R. BELLAMY, Druggist, 2t NW. cor. Front & Market sts.

Young Democrats in Council. A large and enthusiastic meeting of the Young Men's Democratic Club was held at headquarters last night.

Mr. Herbert McClammy, delegate to the meeting of the Democratic Association at Morehead, submitted his report, which on motion was adopted and ordered on file.

On motion of Mr. Iredell Meares it was resolved by the club that there shall be three mass meetings in different parts of the city within the next thirty days, and that the invitation committee provide speakers for these occasions, and invite Col. Waddell to speak at one of these meetings. This motion was carried. Mr. Herbert McClammy reported in behalf of his committee that he had invited Hons. S. S. Cox, Alfred Rowland, and Senators Ransom and Vance to speak here, but had not received any answer yet.

The Club resolved to turn out with full ranks, under the command of Chief Marshal Morrison, at the Democratic Jubilee here on the night of October 12th, when Hon. F. N. Strudwick and Hon. W. H. Kitchen will address the citizens of Wilmington.

Delicately Done. The Wilmington Amateur Operatic Company have hit upon a very pretty and delicate device for showing their appreciation of the hospitality of the Charlottees on their recent visit to that city. They have forwarded the amount netted for the entertainment there to a committee in Charlotte, to be by them forwarded to the yellow fever sufferers, as a remittance from that city. The following will explain it all: WILMINGTON, N. C., Sept. 26, 1888. To Mrs. Bason, Mrs. Dewey, Mrs. Talarferro and others:

We, the committee appointed by the Little Tyecon Opera Company, desire to express to you our most sincere appreciation of the hospitable treatment and cordial reception given to us by the good people of Charlotte, and the warmest thanks of all of us are due to you for the delightful hours passed in your beautiful little city. We only regret that we were not able to meet personally and thank every one of the many who were so lavish in their attentions to us. We shall always remember with pleasure the lovely and graceful manner, in which we were received. "Did we leave with weeping; well, we shall look back with joy."

We enclose a draft on the Commercial National Bank and made payable to the order of your Mayor, for $200, the proceeds of the entertainment, which we shall be pleased for you to remit to the sufferers at Jacksonville as a contribution from Charlotte.

Yours, very respectfully, H. M. EMERSON, LOUIS L. CURRIE, C. C. CHADBOURN, Committee.

All In. Mr. S. H. Fishblate, the King Clothier, has his Fall stock ready for inspection. He always purchases early so as to obtain the choice styles. Merchants buying their stocks this season of the year have to take the "cuttings," or what is left, that other merchants would not have. Mr. Fishblate's stock is composed entirely of first class goods and tailor made—equal to custom make. He employs no women at 25 cents a day and work them 10 hours each day to make pants and Cheap John goods to palm off on the public. His stores are well lighted day and night, which is very essential for buyers of clothing. We advise our readers to beware of a dark store and Cheap John goods.

The Public Schools. The public schools in the city will all open on Monday next, which will be the beginning of the Second Annual Session.

Prof. Noble urges upon all who desire to enter that they be present on that day.

Those who were not pupils last session but wish to attend next session, will report for examination on to-morrow (Friday) at the following hours:

Hemenway School (white), 9 to 10 a. m.

Peabody School (colored), 9 to 10 a. m.

Union School (white) 11 to 12 a. m.

Williston School (colored), 11 to 12 a. m.

Pupils living north of Market street attend the Hemenway School; those living south of Market street attend Union School. This rule will be rigidly enforced.

The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 480 bales.

Nor. barque Hecter, Johannsen, from this port, arrived at Riga on the 25th instant.

Nor. barque Argo is reported in below, leaving. Schr. W. E. Clowes, from Charleston, is also in below and at quarantine.

Mr. I. Shrier will to-morrow raffie a gold headed cane for the benefit of the fever sufferers. The committee of young ladies are requested to be on hand at 10 o'clock.

Light Weights. Three light weights met in Front Street Market this morning and concluded to try and break down the big city scales. They were Messrs. R. M. Croon, of Burgaw, 259 pounds, T. P. Sykes, City, 228 1/2, T. A. Watson, City, 217.

Mr. James C. Munds, one of the best known and most competent druggists in the city, has opened a new drug store in the new Smith block on Princess street. He has one of the neatest, prettiest stores in the city, and is supplied with an entirely new and fresh stock of drugs and patent medicines. We wish him much success in his venture.

Col. Waddell To-Night. Hon. A. M. Waddell will address the citizens of Wilmington on the political questions of the day at the Opera House to-night, at 8:30 o'clock. The ladies are invited to attend as well as the gentlemen and ushers will be in attendance to see them seated. It is the first time this year that the people of Wilmington have had an opportunity of hearing Col. Waddell and we know that large numbers will avail themselves of it.

City Court. Mayor Fowler disposed of the following cases this morning: J. E. Anderson, disorderly conduct, $20 or 30 days.

Susan Nixon, disorderly conduct, discharged.

George Leggin, throwing rocks in the streets, $5 or 10 days.

Robert Sweet, hogs running at large, was fined $5.

Ellison Herring, disorderly conduct, $10 or 20 days.

Andrew Hill, stealing a ride on street cars, $5 or 5 days.

The advantages of advertising could not be better illustrated than in the case of Mr. W. L. Douglas of Brockton, Mass., manufacturer of the celebrated W. L. Douglas $3.00 shoe. About four years ago, Mr. S. R. Niles, Newspaper Advertising Agency, of Boston, placed for Mr. Douglas an advertisement covering a portion of the New England States. Since that time Mr. Douglas has steadily increased his advertising as his business prospered, and the returns have been so gratifying that he has recently placed, through Mr. Niles, his advertisement in over 5000 newspapers, covering every section of the country from Maine to California.

Will Not Go to Tarboro. The "Little Tyecons" have decided to decline the invitation to go to Tarboro to play in the Opera House in that city. They would be glad to go, and would go if they could but circumstances are such that they have been reluctantly compelled to decline and have wired their friends at Tarboro to this effect. One reason for this lies in the fact that Miss Annie DeRosset will leave here to-morrow night on her return to Washington City.

Give Honor to Whom Honor is Due. MR. EDITOR—Dear Sir—The answer signed "A. G. P." in yesterday's REVIEW to "Bertha's" problem of the 25th is not to "A. G. P." credit. He came down to our office, asking me about it; he then had it $4.92 3-16 and I had it $4.92, and while we were disputing over it, another gentleman sitting near, showed and explained to us the catch in it, and when "A. G. P." went back to his place of business, I requested him to stop by the REVIEW office and have my answer withdrawn, as I did not want to have the credit when it is due to another. He said he would, and so I let it rest, not for one moment thinking what he might do. He went to the REVIEW office and had the answer withdrawn, as you see by yesterday's paper. I asked him about it, and for reasons he has, says he was too late; they had already gone to press. Now, I will give you one. If "A. G. P." got there too late to have my answer withdrawn, how came him not too late to change his and put another man's answer in and sign his name to it? Respectfully, H. A. W., JR.

Sunday School Convention. The Sunday School Convention of this, the Wilmington district, of the M. E. Church, will meet to-morrow at Magee's Chapel, 8 miles from Wilson. The delegates from Grace Church, this city are Messrs. James F. Post, Jr. and A. G. Warren and Miss Belle Bowden, Miss Lula G. Bowden and Miss Jennie King, and from the church at Southport, Mr. E. H. Cranmer, Jr. We tried in vain to ascertain the names of the delegates from Fifth Street and Bladen Street churches.

A Colored Woman Injured. A colored woman about 35 years old, hailing from Acorn Branch, whose name we could not ascertain, was struck by an engine on the W. & W. R. R., at the Y, about 11 this morning, and severely injured. She was walking near the track as the shifting engine was moving down the track and just before it reached her she stepped towards the track. The engineer saw her and reversed his engine and blew the whistle but she was struck on the left leg just as she put her foot on the track. The leg was broken below the knee and she received a severe contusion on the head. A physician was summoned and she was sent to the hospital. It is said the woman is deaf and did not hear the train or the warnings. Those who saw the accident are emphatic in exonerating the engineer and say he did all that was possible to avoid the accident.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. James C. Munds, Agent, DRUGGIST, Princess Street, between Front and Second. I will be pleased to see all old friends and customers and to make new friends of new customers. Sept 27

The Robesonian, Published in Lumberton, N. C. by W. W. McDIARMID, IS READ EVERY WEEK BY NEARLY every intelligent citizen of Robeson county, and has a general circulation in all the surrounding counties, including Marion, Marlboro and Burlington in South Carolina.

THE ROBESONIAN is now in the Eighteenth Year of a prosperous and vigorous existence, and is so firmly established in the hearts of its patrons as well as a pecuniary enterprise, that business men can readily estimate as to its value to them. The advertising rates are exceedingly reasonable, considering the age, circulation, and influence of the paper. Send 5 cents for specimen copy.

A CARD. To My Friends and the Public Generally. RECENT EVENTS CONNECTED WITH the renting of Stalls in Front Street Market impel me to say a few words to my many kind friends and patrons and to housekeepers generally.

It is not the location of the stall that sells the meat but the quality of the meat which is offered for sale. We, and I opened at my present location, on the South Side of the Market, I took stalls which were out of the way and where purchasers did not often penetrate. But I determined to have the BEST MEAT in the market and have continued to have the BEST and the result shows, as I have said, that it is the QUALITY OF THE MEAT and NOT the LOCATION OF THE STALL which attracts the buyer. The proof of this lies in the fact that my sales for the past twelve months have far exceeded my anticipations when I located in the market.

My meats will sell anywhere, for consumers will always find out where the best meat was had at the lowest cost.

I have the BEST MEATS in the market, as is a well known fact, and I will continue to have the Best. I have contracts with parties in the West whereby I am to be supplied every Thursday throughout the season with a Carload of Western North Carolina and Tennessee Cattle, than which there are none better in the world. This enables me to compete with the Richmond and Baltimore markets. Every day during the season this meat will be found on my stalls. This week the offerings will be unusually good, because the weather justifies it, and I would respectfully call particular attention to the display I am to make on Friday and Saturday.

Respectfully, J. F. GARRELL, Stalls 1 & 2 Front St. Market, South Side, sept 26
