FEDERAL RADICALISM.

Colonel Dockery is perhaps as reckless and unreliable in his statements as any man in North Caro lina. For example, in his letter accepting the Radical nomination for Governor he asserted

That the Republicans had reduced the public debt' one-half at the close of Arthur's administration.

That is not accurate. As he says. the debt was $3,000,000,000 in 1865; and in 1885, when Mr. Cleveland came in, the outstanding debt of all sorts was $1,900,000,000. The reduction of the debt was not one-half. The reduction of "the bonded debt," however, was one-half. But how has this great reduction in the bonded debt been brought about?

The bondholders had gotten their bonds at 70 cents in gold on the dollar, and the Republicans undertook to bring them up to par in gold at the expense of the people. To do this the bonds were boomed; heavy and burdensome taxes were laid, and the policy of rapid payment was in the policy of rapid payment was in augurated. The people suffered, but the bonds rose in value-and in 1870 reached par. That should have sufficed. The people then should have been given some respite; respite was given, but not to the masses. As soon as the bonds reached par the income tax was taken off of the rich, but the taxes paid by common folks were continued. To favor the bondholders still further, silver money was outlawed, and the bonds as they came due were renewed, and made payable in gold coin. The bonds at first were payable in currency or in coin (sil-payable in currency or in coin (sil-payable mumber, by Henry James, Lafcadio Hearn, and Amelia Rives; short stories by Miss Woolson and other popular writers; and illustrated papers of special artistic and literary interest. The Editorial Departments are conducted by George William Curtis, William Dean Howells and Charles Dudley Warner. Payable in currency ver or gold); the new bonds, substituted for the old ones, were made payable "in gold." More than that, all bonds originally were subject to "call." That is, the government had a right to call in any bond at any time and pay it off at its face that the Republicans in respect to the Unite that the Republicans in respect to the Unite that the Uni THYSELF cline, Errors of Youth made $250,000,000 payable in 1891, and $750,000,000 payable in 1907, deand $750,000,000 payable in 1907, depriving the government of the right to call them in and pay them off at their face value at any time. The whole policy was in the interest of the Magazine begin with the Numbers for June and December of each year. When no time is specified, subscriptions will be whole policy was in the interest of the bondholders—who were given the bondholders—who were given every advantage over the people, The result is that those bonds pay-pay mail, post-paid, on receipt of $300 payes to day selling for each—by mail post paid. able in 1907 are to-day selling for each-by mail post paid. $1,270 on the $1,000, and when the government buys one of them it has to pay that. We repeat that at first heavy taxes were laid that the bonds might be paid off rapidly so as to bring them up to par value; and the bonds were so paid with the money raised by taxes out of the treasury. The Republicans would not reduce the revenues and the surplus money had to enues and the surplus money had to be used in that way to keep it from piling up mountain-high in the treasury. In late years the bonds subject to call were being rapidly exhausted. It was evident that they would soon be all taken up and that if taxes were not reduced the time would soon come when bonds could

WOULD RESPECTFULLY ANNOUNCE to his friends and the public generally that he is now back at his old stand, No. 29 Market street, which has been thoroughly overhauled, repaired and refurnished. With first class workmen, sharp razors and politic attention he hopes to continue to merit the patronace of the public.

All of his force is now concentrated at No. 29 Market st. Containing an impartial epitome each week of the movements of all political parties, will be mailed to any address in the United States or Canada, from JUNK 6th until after the Presidential Election, for 40 cents.

The bondholders asked $1,270 for a bond due in 1907, of the face value of $1,000.

The taxes come piling in, Mr. Cleveland says "stop collecting, so that I will not have to pay this and bistrict, J. H. G. Connor, of Wilson.

Dockery's party say "no, collect the money from the people and pay $1,270 for a $1,000 bond not due for twenty years yet." Which is right? The surplus money coming in every month is about ten millions of dollars; $120,000,000 a year are thus taken unnecessarily from the people, and one-fourth of it, $30,000,000 a year, given as a bonus to bonda year, given as a bonus to bondholders, whose bonds have twenty vears yet to run. Which is right?
