John Schenck, the well known colored Republican leader in Mecklenburg county, has cut adrift from the G. O. P.

Lt. Gov. Stedman and Senator Vance spoke in Charlotte on Monday night and to a tremendous crowd.

The fifteenth annual convention of the National Women's Christian Temperance Union will begin a four days' convention on Friday next, at the Metropolitan Opera House in New York. This organization, which is the outcome of the celebrated woman's temperance crusade in 1874, has a membership of 200,000 women. Although it has been in existence but little over ten years it has established branches in every part of the United States, including Alaska, and these branches will be represented at the convention by over 400 delegates. Miss Frances E. Willard, the president, will deliver her annual address on Friday morning. She has visited every town in the United States of 10,000 population, and most of those with only 5,000, organizing branches of the Women's Christian Temperance Union.

The "Old Roman" has been accorded a grand reception in Hoosierdon. He was in Shelbyville, Ind., on Monday and here is an extract from the Herald relative thereto:
 "We are coming, Father Grover, and twenty thousand strong," sang the Democratic legions as they tramped into this muddy town. It was a great day for the Democrats. Mr. Thurman honored Shelbyville, and Shelbyville, big with bounty, killed fifty fatted beaves to feast the welcome guest.

Judge Thurman reached here well and hearty shortly before noon, having left Cincinnati at ten minutes to nine. He was accompanied by his son and 125 members of the Duckworth Club, of Porkopolis, in drab beavers and dusters. He was driven to the house of John Begg, a local editor, where he had dinner. In the course of a few moments' chat with him he said he was especially pleased with the outlook of Ohio; that there was a great chance of carrying Hamilton county (Cincinnati) and therefore of securing the electoral vote of the State to the Democrats.

I asked him if he intended to make any speeches, particularly in Indiana, and he said:
 "I may. I am going to Goshen, Fort Wayne, Peru and Brazil, and depend upon it I shall do my utmost for the ticket."

By half past one there were between forty and fifty thousand people at the fair. From sixteen covered sheds were dispensed beef and bread, and it was a sight never to be forgotten when the multitude, hungry and cold, attacked those fifty beaves, and soon left only their bones to bleach upon the gloomy soil. Men eating huge pieces of flesh and bread walked on the ground. Young women in red bandana suits, with turbans to match, marched hither and thither singing campaign songs.
 The inscriptions around the stand from which Thurman was to speak read, "Victory is ours. New York, 20,000 majority; Indiana, 10,000 majority; New Jersey, 4,000 majority; Connecticut, 6,000 majority; and keep an eye on California, Ohio and Michigan."

Congress is still in session and if John Sherman wants a chance to fire the Northern heart with another Southern outrage, here is one for him. It is in the shape of a Richmond special to the Charleston News and Courier, from which we clip it:

During the past few days several instances in which the negroes in different parts of this State have committed the grossest outrages upon voters of their race who manifest a determination to vote the Democratic ticket have come to the attention of the public.
 The latest of these outrages was committed on Emma Watkins, a colored public school teacher at Hallboro, Chesterfield County. After receiving her appointment it was discovered by the Republican negroes in the neighborhood that her father, who lived in the adjoining county of Powhatan, was a Democrat. Upon learning this the colored patrons of the school withdrew their children, and refused to countenance the young colored teacher. James Medley, a colored man, with whom Miss Watkins boarded, also came in for a share of the denunciation of the incensed negro Republicans. He not only refused to take his children from the school, but announced his sympathy with the teacher, and what still more irritated his enemies, declared he, too, intended to vote for Cleveland and Thurman.

This so incensed the negroes that they boycotted the teacher and her protector, and threatened all who associated with them with dire vengeance. A party of negroes went to Medley's house a few nights ago and burned it to the ground, the inmates miraculously escaping with their lives.

We acknowledge the courtesy of a visit to-day from Mr. Jas. P. Colton, advance representative of the Janaushek Company, but regret that we were not in at the time.

The New Truck.
 The committees from the Wilmington Company and the Howard Company, whose names we gave in yesterday's issue, met last night in Rankin Hall.

Mr. H. H. Gieschen was called to the chair and Mr. E. B. Burkheimer acted as secretary.

The following committee was appointed to confer with the foreman of the Hook and Ladder Company as to what day would be convenient for the christening ceremonies: Messrs. H. H. Gieschen and E. B. Burkheimer.

Messrs. M. Rathjen and E. G. Parmele were appointed as a committee on refreshments, and Messrs. N. Hullen and H. W. Collins were appointed a committee on music.

Capt. W. P. Oldham was unanimously selected as Chief Marshal for the occasion.

Messrs. J. D. Smith and J. Duhls were appointed as a committee on parade, and Messrs. Rathjen and Parmele were also appointed to attend to the matter of securing a hall, and to confer with Capt. John Cowan in regard to delivering the address of congratulation.

The meeting adjourned to come together again on next Friday night at 8 o'clock to hear reports from the various committees.

Indications.
 For North Carolina, fair and slightly cooler weather on Wednesday and warmer on Thursday.

The horses of the Wilmington Hook and Ladder Company yesterday succeeded in drawing the new truck through some of the heaviest sand in the city.

Democratic Rally.
 The following is the official programme of the demonstration that is to take place Thursday night, the 18th inst., as prepared by the Chief Marshal:

The members of the Y. M. D. C., in full uniform, are requested to meet at Linder's Hall at 7.30 p. m. and to report for duty to their division marshals as soon thereafter as practicable. The first division will form in front of the Market House, with the right resting up Front street, and the second, third and fourth divisions will form successively on the left of the first division. The band will take its usual place on the right of the line, and will meet as prescribed for members. The procession will start at 8 o'clock sharp and move up Front street in the following order:

Chief Marshal and Staff (mounted.)
 Germania Cornet Band.
 First Division Y. M. D. C., under supervision of Division Marshal G. L. Morton.

Second Division Y. M. D. C. under supervision of Division Marshal L. H. Meares.

Third Division Y. M. D. C., under supervision of Division Marshal Martin Newman.

Fourth Division Y. M. D. C., under supervision of Division Marshal Geo. Branch.

Citizens from the various wards of the city and all strangers who happen to be here.

A halt will be made at the Orton House where the speakers for the occasion and the various committees in carriages will join the procession on the left.

The line of march will then be resumed as follows: Up Front street to Chestnut, up Chestnut to Third, down Third to Castle and up Castle to the Fifth Ward's Democratic stronghold, the Wigwam.

The lamps have all been refilled and put in order for this occasion, and we extend a cordial invitation to all good Democrats to come and join our procession whether you have the uniform or not, and whether you are a member of the Y. M. D. C.; but it is hoped that each Democrat will see the necessity of coming out in full regalia, and of also joining the Club, which is furthering in every way it can the good work.

The marshals and assistant marshals will report to the Chief Marshal at 7.30 o'clock, and they will please wear their insignia of rank, and the divisions are requested to carry their number in a transparency so as to enable members to see at once where their division is.

The older Democrats of Fifth Ward are cordially invited to come and serve as an escort to the procession, and a place in line will be reserved for them.

J. C. MORRISON, Chief Marshal.
 J. L. MEDLEY, 2nd Assistant.

The Corner Stone.
 The corner stone of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church was laid yesterday afternoon with appropriate ceremonies, by Grand Master Chas. H. Robinson. The members of the Masonic order in this city marched to the scene, headed by the Germania Cornet Band. There was a large representation of the clergy in this city and the address was delivered by Rev. Jas. Y. Fair, of Charlotte.

The choir was composed of the following: Mr. L. Tate Bowden, musical director; Miss Anna Sprunt, organist; Mrs. M. F. Manning, alto; Miss Belle Wood, soprano; Capt. C. H. Robinson tenor, and Mr. M. F. Manning, bass.

The following articles were placed in the stone:
 Copies of the Morning Star the Messenger and the DAILY REVIEW of Oct. 16th, 1888, all containing programme of the corner stone laying; from Mr. T. F. Bagley, an envelope, containing a twenty dollar Confederate note and fifteen cents in U. S. fractional currency; from Rev. J. W. Primrose, envelope, stamped with United States two cent postage stamp, containing five, ten, fifty and one hundred dollars Confederate notes; a printed sermon by Rev. Peyton H. Hoge, pastor First Presbyterian Church, entitled "The Progressiveness of Christianity;" a tract by the Rev. J. W. Primrose, entitled "The Presbyterian Church;" a list of the Building Committee of St. Andrew's Church, appointed by the congregation; a list of the officers and sub-committees of the Building Committee; a list of the original members of the church (Second Presbyterian) when organized, and those now living—Jno. R. Latta, Mrs. Alex. Sprunt, and Mrs.

Joseph McLaurin; a list of the session, deacons and membership; directory of the church, December 31st, 1885, containing brief historic notes; illustrated Trade Issue of the Messenger; form of public confession of Christ; list of officers and members of the Sunday school; the municipal officers of the government of the city of Wilmington; copy of the North Carolina Presbyterian; list of officers of the Grand Lodge of Masons of North Carolina; list of officers of the Grand Lodge of Masons of North Carolina as held October 16th, 1888; list of officers of Concord Chapter No. 1; list of officers of Wilmington Lodge No. 319; list of officers of St. John's Lodge No. 1; list of officers of Orient Lodge No. 395.

Mr. I. Shrier returned to city last night from the Northern markets, his second visit this season.

The Johnson wing of Republicans were out last night. There was a talk at the City Hall and quite a large crowd. "Sheriff" Johnson, J. O. Nixon, George W. Price and John H. Whiteman were the speakers.

Sehr. George Taulanc, Whitehurst, from Charleston for this port, put in at Beaufort, N. C., on Monday. She experienced heavy weather and lost a boat and davits and sustained some other slight damages.

We are requested to urge upon the older Democrats in the city to turn out at the parade to-morrow night. The young men will be mighty glad to see them and will see that they are all properly placed in line.

That fat man, who the ladies declare is the handsomest man in Washington, used to be an invalid, but he took to hard drinking, not of whiskey, but of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, and now he walks right over the very slenderest dudes, and don't care at all.

Rock Crystal Spectacles and Eyeglasses.
 Advice to old and young: In selecting spectacles you should be cautious not to take more magnifying power than has been lost to the eye as in the same proportion that you pass that point of increase, will cause you further injury to the eye. Using glasses of stronger power than is necessary is the daily cause of premature old age to the sight. You can get the best at Heinsberger's.

All kinds of School Books and School Supplies can be bought cheapest at Heinsberger's.
