THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. XII. WILMINGTON, N. C., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1888. NO 230.

It costs $22,000,000 to run a Presidential campaign.

The women of America expend $8,000,000 annually for paint and powder for their faces.

The oldest and largest tree in the world is a chestnut near the foot of Mount Etna. The circumference of the main trunk is 212 feet.

Old Davy Crockett's famous expression "Be sure you're right, then go ahead" is a good motto for the American people. President Cleveland acts up to this to the letter.
He never goes ahead until he is sure he is right and then—let everybody stand out of the way. The summary dismissal—for it amounts to a dismissal—of the British minister for his unwarrantable interference in the domestic polity of this country is a case in point. The offense was one which could not be condoned and the righteous act of the Administration will be endorsed and applauded by every true patriot in the land.

A curious case has just been decided upon appeal in a Scottish Court. A young woman brought an action of breach of promise against a young man who admitted having been engaged to her. His defense was that she objected to his smoking and finally said: "Choose between your cigar and me." He made the choice promptly in favor of the weed, and when she sued him the Judge held that by offering the alternative she was responsible for the swain's desertion, and the Supreme Court sustained the decision.

Our local politicians are making active arrangements for the next campaign. They ordered a box of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, and feel confident and happy.

ary temperature on the coast.

Hon. Edward Cantwell, formerly of this city, is conducting, as principal, a flourishing school for boys and young men at Clinton, N. Y. It is called Kirkland Hall.

Messrs. King & Sikes, who have been doing business at stall No. 4, Front street market, have dissolved, and Mr. King will hereafter continue the business in his own name.
See ad. in this issue.

Drs. S. S. Satchwell and E. Porter and Mr. W. B. Hocut, of Rocky Point, were in the city to day. They tell us that the Democrats are making a hot fight in Pender county and hope to win this time.

Mr. J. T. Collins, of Burgaw, was in the city to-day and paid us a visit this forenoon. He says that everybody in Pender county now is worked up on politics and that the Democrats are making a gallant fight.

The management of the Seacoast R. R. will run three trains to-morrow afternoon for the benefit of the public who may desire to go down to attend the big Democratic demonstration at Capt. Manning's place. It is a very convenient schedule and will probably be taken advantage of by many.

A Large Increase.
The oyster trade from Wrightsville Sound, always large, has been greatly increased this Fall, by the facilities offered by the Seacoast R. R.
Some estimates are that nearly twice as many are brought here as was the case last Winter. A great many oysters are brought to Wrightsville, by boats, from other sounds.

Another Illegal Voter.
Jas. Beasley, colored, charged with illegal registration in the First Ward, was before the Mayor this morning. The charge is that he has been disqualified, as he was convicted of larceny in Duplin county in the year 1878. He served his term in the Work House and has since been in Wilmington. He was committed, in default of bail, for his appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court.

Fifth Ward Hook and Ladder.
The Fifth Ward Hook and Ladder Company reorganized last night, with the following officers: President—Richard Smith.
Vice-President—Walter Ketchum.
Secretary—M. G. Silvey.
Treasurer—J. T. Eafert.
Foreman—Jas. G. Swan.
First Asst.—J. Canaday.
Second Asst.—Marcus Gray.
First Axeman—W. T. Harker.
Second Axeman—T. Dowling.
Third Axeman—Walter Hudson.
Fourth Axeman—Archie Marine.

This company, as it now exists, is composed of excellent material and will do good service, whenever called upon. They should be hand-somerly equipped with a "machine" by the city.

Young Men's Christian Association.
The Young Men's Christian Association opens its new rooms in the building of the Bank of New Hanover to-day.

A partial programme of the month's work has been arranged, which is as follows:
Nov. 6th—Business meeting of the Association.
9th—Directors' meeting.
11th to 17th—Week of prayer for young men. Meetings each evening at 8 o'clock.

The pastors of the various churches have been requested to present a special sermon to young men on the 11th.

20th—Regular young men's meeting at 8.15 p. m.
23d—Lecture by Dr. T. H. Pritchard. Subject: "Naples, Vesuvius and Pompeii."

Other plans are in preparation for the month, but are not yet ready to be announced.

City Court.
There was a slim crowd gathered at the City Court this morning and a small docket, there being only two cases, which were disposed of
as follows:
Florence Snow, disorderly conduct, $10 or 20 days.
Jas. Beasley, perjury, bound over to the next term of the Criminal Court in the sum of a $100 justified bond.

Repudiated by Signers.
We publish elsewhere a "circular" which was found on the streets to-day. We want every decent white man whose name appears therein to give it a careful squint.
There are a number of names there which we know have no business there and which appear through a misapprehension. Mr. I. Shrier and Mr. M. T. Davis publish cards in this issue relative to theirs. The name of J. T. James is found in the list.
It is not intended, we suppose, for the editor of this paper, who does not write his name in this fashion.
But the fact remains that there is no other white man in New Hanover county whose name is J. T. James.
There are 67 names on the list.
It is probable that four-fifths of these will repudiate the publication of their names in the connection with which it is used. They had some sympathy with the projectors on the market question but none with them in their unjustifiable abuse of the Democratic party.
They signed heedlessly and either without reading the paper or without having given the proper attention to its purport. They are Democrats and will vote the Democratic ticket. And that is about all there is in this fizzle.

To the Public.
This is the title of a circular sheet which has found its way into circulation very recently. It consists first of an extract from the market ordinance recently adopted by the Board of Aldermen, which it is unnecessary to publish now, as it has already been published in all of the papers, and then continues as follows:
Dear Friends and Voters of this Free Country:

Are we to stand by and see such Democratic oppression and misuse as this and make no effort to put a stop to it? The Morning Star announced that this ordinance settled the butchering business. We think that if such men as these are elected to make laws for this country, they will not only settle the butchering business, but also settle every other business in which every poor man tries to make an honest living.

We do think that if "we" voters are not more careful in selecting men to fill the public offices, that it won't be very long before some Board of Aldermen will come together and pass an ordinance abolishing the homestead law and the Constitution of the United States.

These political bosses don't care for the people. Why should they?
The people are not allowed to select the men who rule over them. In the counties they are appointed by the Democratic committee. In the city they are appointed by "General Gerrymander," who is not only a tyrant, but a cheat and a fraud also.

We have been Democrats and don't like the Republican party.
But if the Republicans did steal money out of the Treasury, they did not steal our rights and liberties. Anyhow, a change, a shaking up, a new deal, will make us, who are not politicians, feel better. If we have got to fiddle for these politicians to dance, let us once in a while make them "swing corners."

You Farmers who are prohibited from selling your produce except under these restrictions, better vote for men who are not so anxious about free trade for foreigners, but who do not want free trade at home.

All Saints Day.
This being All Saints Day, joint services of the parishes of St. James, St. John's and St. Paul's were held in St. James' Church this morning, Rev. Mr. Arnold preaching the sermon. The church was tastefully and appropriately decorated with our gray moss and with flowers.
Many beautiful floral designs were sent to the church in loving remembrance of those who had passed away, and were carried this afternoon to the cemetery and placed upon the graves of those for whom they were designed. An interesting service was held at 4 o'clock in the lodge of the cemetery, conducted by the Rev. Dr. Carmichael, Rev.
Mr. Strange and Rev. Mr. Arnold.
A roster of the dead of the past year was called and it was noted that death the reaper had been unusually vigilant, particularly among the aged. Seven had exceeded the three score and ten years, about as many more had passed, as Victor Hugo expresses it, the youth of old age, 50 years, while others had been cut down in the full glory of their youth and manhood and womanhood. Of the lambs five have been sheltered in the everlasting fold. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord."
