THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. XII. WILMINGTON, N. C., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1888. NO 236.

Nothing like it. Its peculiar efficacy is due as much to the process and the ingredients themselves as to the manner in which it is taken. It checks diseases in the outset, or it cures them when they have become a potent cure. No Home should be without it.

It takes the place of a doctor and costs no more. All who lead sedentary lives will find the best preventive of Indigestion, Constipation, Headache, Biliousness, Piles and Mental Depression. No loss of time, no interference with business while taking. For children it is most innocent and harmless. No danger from exposure after taking. Cures Colic, Diarrhoea, Bowel Complaints, Feverishness and Feverish Golds. Invalids and debilitated persons will find it the mildest and most effective of all purgatives. A little taken at night insures refreshing sleep and a natural evacuation of the bowels. A little taken in the morning sharpens the appetite, cleanses the stomach and sweetens the breath.

A PHYSICIAN'S OPINION. I have been practicing medicine for twenty years and have never been able to put up a vegetable compound that would, like Simmons' Liver Regulator, promptly and effectively move the Liver in action, and at the same time aid (instead of weakening) the digestive and assimilative powers of the system. Tariff Reform is a good thing—in an off year.

Hope springs eternal. Will try it again four years from to-day.

The Solid South is now the only hope of the Democratic party. And it is a hope that never fails.

You don't get any invitations to take a drink to-day. The racket is "let's go out and take a vomit."

The New York Herald and Star both failed us this morning. Probably they are too sick to leave home.

Was there any particular fate in this election, and had the "on" in Harrison's name anything to do with it? If so let the Democrats get "on" to that racket next time.

In 1892 the 153 electoral votes of the Solid South will form a magnificent nucleus from which the Democratic hosts can start forward to victory in that year.

The defeat of Cleveland is not the worst that may happen to us. If we have not lost the House of Representatives we are not far off from that very undesirable result.

Are the Raleighites going to let that cur, J. Burchard Eaves, go entirely unwhipped of justice? The Democratic party in this State owe him much, but not more than they can pay.

In the midst of a general gloom and disaster the Democrats have much to be thankful for. We have achieved a glorious victory in our State. And it is a victory that means to us much more than national success. The Republican party may bloom elsewhere but in North Carolina it is as dead as a June bug in January.

There is to be great rivalry in Washington this season between the ministers from Persia, Korea, China and Japan. They are all wealthy men and can afford to entertain, though the Chinese minister is the only one among them who has more money than he knows what to do with. The Japanese minister has one great advantage in that he has a charming wife, who is fast making many warm friends in Washington.

Among the Washington debutantes of the coming winter will be Miss Nellie Bayard, Miss Garland, Miss Grace Black, daughter of Gen. Black; Miss Harlan, daughter of Justice Harlan; Miss Quay, daughter of Senator Quay; the Misses Preston, daughters of the Haytian minister; Miss Wilson, daughter of Col. John M. Wilson; Miss Thompson, daughter of the California Representative; and the Misses Fuller, daughters of the Chief Justice.

The young gentleman, aged 63, who is now Crown Prince of Germany, and will be Emperor when the present young Emperor is dead, is already being turned into a soldier. Every day he is compelled for over half an hour to move his chubby legs and hold his immature body according to military discipline, and is severely drilled by an ancient sergeant major. He wears the regulation uniform, and returns the salutes of aged generals with dignified nonchalance.

The magnificent new building of the New York Times is so far advanced toward completion that the roof is on and being covered with metal. There is no other commercial building in New York so tall as this one, i. e., not counting towers and other adornments or disfigurements above the roofs. By accurate levelling measurement engineers have determined that the top of the wall is but two feet below that of the New York tower of the East River bridge. Its upper story—the thirteenth—will be the composing room of the paper.

The late John Guy Vassar, of Poughkeepsie, in his will has made the following charitable bequests: Fourteen churches in the city, $7,000 (divided); Vassar Home for Aged Men $65,000; Poor Widows' Coal Fund, $5,000; Vassar Brothers' Institute, $15,000; Vassar Brothers' Hospital, $252,000; Vassar College, $130,000; John Guy Vassar Home for Orphans, $100,000; American Seamen's Friends' Society, New York, $500; Baptist Church, Poughkeepsie, $15,000. Mr. Vassar is estimated to have been worth over $1,500,000.

Our remarks yesterday were correct. Harrison has been elected by a larger vote than was deemed possible. It has been almost a revolution. States like Illinois, Michigan and Wisconsin, which have wavered for years past, inclining steadily towards the Democratic ranks, have suddenly shown surprising Republican majorities. But for fraud and treachery, however, we believe that Cleveland would have been elected for we do not doubt that New York is safely Democratic. But the thing has been done and repinings now will not alter results. It is not a Waterloo for us, for the principles on which the campaign was fought are as enduring as the everlasting hills. The Democratic party is oftentimes stronger in defeat than it is in victory and it will rise from the ashes of this with all of the vigor and the hope and the undying courage of those who fight for principle and not for policy. The set back in the Western States is undoubtedly due to our war cry of Tariff Reform, but that same war cry was the cry of principle and a principle that will yet prevail. The truth is mighty and it is sure to triumph in the end and on this same principle the Democratic party will march on to victory four years from this November. Our loss is in reality rather a check than a defeat.

"On fortune's cap we're not the very button," but we think ourselves uncommonly lucky since we found a sovereign remedy for pain. It is Salvation Oil—twenty five cents a bottle.

Look upward. The heavens now present an interesting study to the reflective mind. Venus rises one half an hour before the sun, and Jupiter sets with the constellation of Scorpio. Evidently the two have quarreled and separated, Venus cutting her own kindling wood preparatory to breakfast getting, and her spouse preferring scorpions to his wife's tongue. The study of astronomy is at all times an uplifting one.

The New York Times telegraphed to the Richmond Dispatch at 1 o'clock this morning that Harrison had carried the doubtful States and is elected. His plurality in New York is estimated at 15,000. In Indiana he has 4,000 to 6,000, and in Wisconsin 2,000. Harrison's election is generally accepted as a matter of fact. No more bulletins will be issued.

Married Last Night. Mr. Peter Mohr, one of our prominent upper Market street merchants, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony last night to Miss Wilhelmina Doescher, of our city, by the Rev. F. W. E. Peschau. The ceremonies took place at the residence of Mr. Mohr. In the course of the evening the Germania Band serenaded the happy couple. We wish much happiness to the newly wedded pair.

Corra Van Tassel To-Night. We can all ease our woes by going to the Opera House to night and hearing and seeing the charming little Corra Van Tassel in "Sweet Sixteen." If she can't make us forget our troubles, for awhile at all events, then nobody can. She will present her new piece, for the first time in this city, and she will be well supported by Mr. Young and a good company. After the stress and strain of the past week a little diversion will be healthful for the body as well as the mind.

Canetuck all Correct. A correspondent writes us from Canetuck relative to political matters in that section of Pender county. Maj. McClammy was there on Monday and made a brief but effective speech. There are but few men in that section of the State to whom, as Senator Ben. Hill used to say, "God gave them a white skin by mistake." The vote of Canetuck is as follows: Democrats—Fowle 95, Waddell 94, McClammy 95, Davis Avery and Shepherd, 94, Johnson 92, Paddison 85. Republicans—Doekery 61, Moore 65, Robinson 65, Guthrie and others 64, Cropp 63, Johnson 74.

City Court. Mayor Fowler disposed of the following cases this morning: Joseph Nixon, perjury, bound over to the next term of the Criminal Court in the sum of a $100 justified bond.

Henry Bradley, disorderly conduct, discharged.

Samuel Miller, carrying concealed weapon, $10 or 20 days.

W. T. Brown, disorderly conduct, discharged.

Hot bed glass and sash for your hot houses is constantly to be had at Jacob's Hdw Depot.

A few mocking bird cages left which we wish to close out at reduced prices. Jacob's Hdw Depot.

If you want a picture framed go to Heinsberger's. He has a large assortment of Mouldings to select from.

Catarrh originates in serofulous taint. Hood's Sarsaparilla purifies the blood and this permanently cures catarrh.

We have it now, a razor that will shave you clean and make you happy. Every one warranted. Jacob's Hdw Depot.

The Fire Light Open Grate Stove is without equal for comfort, economy and cheerfulness. Sold only by the Factory's Agent, Nath'l Jacob.

We now have stove boards to go under your stoves, of beautiful designs, that are guaranteed not to tarnish. Jacob's Hdw Depot.

Sealed proposals will be received until December 6th for labor and material required in the erection of the new public building in this city. See ad of Mr. Will A. French Supervising Architect, elsewhere in this issue.

Mr. Robert R. McCartney has bought out Mr. E. G. Polley's tin business and is now conducting it himself at Mr. Polley's old stand, on Market street. He is a good workman and a reliable man and we commend the attention of the people to his card in this issue.

The Germania Band has added a trombone and piccolo to their band.

Let's all get to work now, forget our losses and try and catch up on business.

The REVIEW roosters don't crow worth a cent this time. They are too sick.

The 53d annual meeting of the stockholders of the Wilmington & Weldon R. R. Co. will be held at the office of the Company, in this city, on the 21st inst.

We are authorized to state that the Democratic jubilee, about which there was so much talk last week, has been postponed, for reasons beyond the control of the committee, until 1892.

The Acme Manufacturing Co. of this city will have on exhibition at the Augusta Exposition one of their pine straw bagging looms, under the charge of Mr. David Scott, their chief operator. It will doubtless attract much attention.

Our figures as to the majority in North Carolina, 25,000, will not, we think, prove far from correct. There have been some substantial gains and some losses but the gains will probably far exceed the losses. Seales' majority four years ago was 20,022. An average gain of 50 to each county would make this 25,000.

The Lebende Bilder or tableaux vivants, at Lutheran Memorial Building to-night will certainly be a grand affair. The committee having the matter in charge have completed all arrangements. About thirty young ladies and gentlemen will take part. The admission has been placed at 10 cents for children and 15 cents for adults.

First West India Fruit. The first cargoes of West India fruit of the season are here now, on the schooners Mabel Darling and Equator, both consigned to Messrs. Cronly & Morris, who will sell the cargoes at auction to-morrow morning, the sale to take place at 11 o'clock, on board, at Walker's wharf. They bring oranges, bananas, pine apples, coconuts, grape fruit, &c.

Kare Killed the Kat. Let us laugh and grow fat. Don't take the trouble to heart too seriously. If we can't get any fun out of this thing at anybody else's expense, let us have it at our own. Care killed the cat. Let us enjoy life, eat, sleep and be merry—and pay the piper—and we will be all the better for the next fight. Let us bow to the inevitable—and to the will of the majority. Every dog has his day. We have had the innings for four years and please God we will have them again in 1892.

Every night next week, except Sunday, there will be meetings in the Y. M. C. A. rooms in accordance with the suggestion of the International Committee. Instead of a Y. M. C.
