The fever in Jacksonville seems to be increasing rather than diminishing. There were six deaths there yesterday.

The Democratic majority in Columbus county is 1,184, according to the Whiteville Record, a gain of 265 over 1884. One hundred guns for Columbus. God bless her!

One of the most insignificant things developed by the late elec tion is the fact that the New York Herald, Democratic last week, is now Republican. The Herald generally manages to be on the right side, if not the day before the fight then the day after.

The Herald preaches now against the Solid South. As long as it wanted Cleveland elected it thought the Solid South a good thing. It forgets to-day a doctrine it has promulgated in its sober moments, that if the South is solid the North, or, rather, the Republican party, has fnade it so. The Solid South is not aggressive; it is entirely defensive. And we hope and believe that it will remain solid.

We are very much afraid that we have lost the House of Representatives. In fact the fear is about a certainty. The New York Herald, which figured out on Thursday a Democratic majority of two, gave the Republicans, in its yesterday's

We are glad to hear that Mr. Rob Cronly's condition has improved considerably.

It is a remarkable fact, but not altogether a singular one, that there has not been one death during the past week among the white population of this city. This is one of our not infrequent splendid showings.

Common Sense Should be used in attempting to cure that very disagreeable disease, catarrh. Catarrh originates in impurities in the blood, local applications can do no permanent good. The common-sense method of treatment is to purify the blood, and for this purpose there is no preparation su perior to Hood's Sarsaparilla. That this peculiar medicine does cure catarrh is shown by the many testimonials from people who have found relief upon using it when all others had failed. A book containing statements of cures sent on receipt of two cent stamp, by C. I. HOOD & CO., Lowell, Mass.

handsome one. It will be nearly, if not quite, 5,000. The people of the gallant district are to be congratulated. There are twelve splendid Democratic counties in this district and it will be for the Legislature to consider next winter if one or two of these ought not to go to some other district, say that of the ninth, because of the fact that the Sixth is rather too long. There is too much of a diversity of interest, and too great a distance between some parts of the district. It is nearly two hundred miles from one end of the district to the other. We don't want topart with any of our old friends but the people would probably be much better satisfied if Mecklenburg, say, were detached from the Sixth and given to some other district to which it is more nearly attached by geographic lines.

The factional fight in New York city and the immature condition of the tariff question are probably responsible for the Democratic defeat in the Presidency but surely the quarrels between Tammany and the counties in New York had nothing to do with the result in Indiana and West Virginia and the loss of the House of Representatives. The general result outside must therefore be ascribed to the fact that the

New Crockery Store.

Mr. A. W. Watson has opened on Princess Street, in Evans' block, with a very handsome stock of china, glassware and crockery, which he offers to the public in an advertisement published in this issue. Mr. Watson has really supplied a want which has been serious ly felt here for some time past-that of a depot where crockery and glass ware can be bought. The stock is a very fine one and suited to this market. Mr. McRee Cowan is with Mr. Watson.

Fanchon Last Night.

Miss Cora Van Tassel appeared to great advantage last night in the difficult role of Fanchon. It is not the first time she has appeared here in this character, and she has always done well in it, but last night her rendition was unusually good. She was greeted with a fine house, notwithstanding the bad weather, and everybody was delighted with the piece and its presentation. To. night the company will give the Danites and as it is their last appearance here we trust that they may be greeted with a large house.
