A Lady Affronted.

A gross affront was offered to a lady last night, shortly after dark, on one of the most prominent uptown thoroughfares. She was on her way home and was about halfway between Sixth and Seventh streets, on Market, when she met a colored man who held open hisarms as she approached and said to her "Come to me, darling." The lady screamed and ran as fast as she could to her home, not far distant. She did not recognize the rascal.
