THE UNDERLYING CAUSE IS IN THE LIVER. and one thing more is equally certain, no one will remain a dyspeptic who will take SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR. It will correct Acidity of the Stomach, Expel foul gases, Allay Irritation, Assist Digestion, and, at the same time, Start the Liver to working, when all other remedies have failed.

My wife, Mrs. J. W. ... Some three years ago she was afflicted with Biliousness, and her liver was so affected that she could not eat anything but bland food. She felt as if she had a ball of lead in her stomach, and she was so nervous and irritable that she could not sleep. She tried all kinds of medicine, but nothing would do her any good. She then tried SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR, and in a few days she felt better. In a week she was able to eat anything she pleased, and in a month she was perfectly cured. She writes: "I was afflicted nine years with sores. All the medicine I could take did me no good. I then tried SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR, and in 8 bottles cured me sound."

Pimples, Sores, Aches and Pains. When a hundred bottles of Sarsaparilla or other pretentious specifics fail to eradicate in-born scrofula or contagious blood poison, remember that B. B. B. (Botanic Balm) has gained many thousand victories, in as many seemingly incurable instances. Send to the Hood Balm Co., Atlanta, Ga., for Book of Wonders, and be convinced. It is the only TACK BLOOD PURIFIER. G. W. Messer, Howell's X Roads, Ga., writes: "I was afflicted nine years with sores. All the medicine I could take did me no good. I then tried B. B. B. and 8 bottles cured me sound." Mrs. S. M. Wilson, Round Mountain, Texas, writes: "A lady friend of mine was troubled with bumps and pimples on her face and neck. She took three bottles of B. B. B., and her skin got soft and smooth, pimples disappeared and her health improved greatly." Jas. L. Bosworth, Atlanta, Ga., writes: "Some years ago I contracted blood poison. I had no appetite, my digestion was ruined, rheumatism drew up my limbs so I could hardly walk, my throat was cantered five times. The springs gave me no benefit, and my life was one of torture until I gave B. B. B. a trial, and, surprising as it may seem, the use of five bottles cured me." nov 10 1y cod&w

He can do good work in the field yet, and says he never stops work on account of hot weather, but does not like to get wet.

Mr. William McLaughlin, of Albany, Oregon, had a tomato vine that was planted May 10th by him, which attained the prodigious height of nearly 13 feet. The main vine was nearly 3 inches in circumference, and the branches covered an area of 20 feet. On the vine could be seen ripe and green fruit and blooms.

There was one very marked difference between the contributions to the campaign funds from the Government departments in Washington this year and about four years ago. This year not one woman contributed a dollar to either fund. But few were asked, and none responded. Both the Democratic and Republican committees sent out a few circulars to women, but in no case was any amount of percentage stated, nor was any received.

No instance is known where Salvation Oil has failed in giving immediate relief from rheumatism or neuralgia. At all druggists. Twenty-five cents.

"Dunraven Ranch" is the name of the new novel which Captain King contributes to the December number of Lippincott's Magazine. Capt. King, like good wine, improves with age. His stories have more and more body, his style grows more and more effervescent and brilliant. "Dunraven Ranch" is the best story he has yet produced. An excellent full page portrait of the author appropriately decorates the number. It represents a fine, manly, and soldierly face. A biographical sketch by Lieutenant Philip Reade, who has been King's life long friend, gives many entertaining and thrilling episodes in the life of the soldier author. The serial "At Last: Six days in the Life of an Ex-Teacher," by John Habberton, is full of humor and interest. "With the Fruits and the Wine," by G. S. R., is a sketch full of interesting information. Thomas Leaming has a valuable article on "Trust and Title-Insurance Companies," in which the growth and development, the uses and possible abuses, of these novel institutions are treated from an abundance of knowledge. The One Hundred Prize Questions are as interesting as ever. Of the poetry, the most notable is Edgar Saltus' "Imeros" and a series of Sonnets by Amelie Rives. "To all Women," which will attract attention from their exquisite beauty and purity, and their large-hearted, tender love and charity. The departmentists keep up their interest.

News of a bloody affair in Pender county, resulting in the killing of a desperado and the wounding of an officer of the law, was received here last night on the arrival of the steamer Enterprise, from Point Caswell. As our information is substantially the same as the account published in the Star this morning, we will copy our neighbor's report:

Information was brought to this city yesterday of a fatal encounter last Thursday evening between Mr. J. Bledsoe, a constable of Dismal township, Sampson county, and a negro desperado named John Brooks, in which the latter was killed and Mr. Bledsoe was seriously wounded. The scene of the tragedy was at Mr. Thomas Huffham's place, on Black river, in Pender county, about nine miles from Point Caswell. The constable had two warrants for the arrest of Brooks, who was charged with breaking into the house of Jerry Sessoms, colored, of Dismal township, Sampson county, and forcibly carrying off Sessoms' wife, a light mulatto woman, and her four children; and with shooting at Sessoms' eldest daughter, a grown woman, who tried to protect her mother from the ravisher. Brooks carried the woman and her children to Mr. Huffham's place, where he was employed as a wood-chopper. Sessoms' wife said she had to go with him or die. Her husband was absent from home at the time.

Mr. Bledsoe was accompanied by a number of determined men—Mr. C. D. Blizard and Mr. J. W. West of Pender, Stephen Thomas, the father of Sessoms' wife, Daniel Moore and Isalah Emanual, colored, of Sampson.

The party reached Mr. Huffham's place about 7 o'clock Thursday evening, and found Brooks in the kitchen, seated in front of the fire. Mr. Bledsoe entered the door, followed by Mr. West and Stephen Thomas, and covering Brooks with his pistol, commanded him to surrender. Brooks, without moving, in a very quiet manner said "Don't shoot." The constable, covering him with his pistol, ordered him to cross his hands, and Brooks, arising from his seat as if to obey the command, quickly drew a pistol and fired. Instantaneously, almost, Mr. Bledsoe pulled the trigger of his pistol, and both men fell to the floor; the negro shot through the brain—the ball entered just below his left eye—and Mr. Bledsoe with a bullet in the right side.

The wounded constable was taken to Point Caswell and attended by Dr. Jordan of that place. It was thought that the ball had struck a rib and glanced; but the injury was deemed a serious one, and under the advice of the doctor, Mr. Bledsoe was sent to this city for treatment, arriving last night on the steamer Enterprise, accompanied by several of his friends, and being immediately taken to the hospital.

An inquest was held yesterday over the body of the negro desperado, after which his body was buried near the scene of the tragedy. Brooks was known as a "bad man." He moved to Dismal township, in Sampson, some twelve years ago, hailing from Edgecombe. He is charged with many crimes, and would never submit to arrest. Four years ago, with an old army musket, he "stood off" a deputy sheriff and seven men who were seeking to arrest him on a civil process, and some time afterwards he ran off with a young white woman whose husband was a section master on the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railroad, and after living with her about twelve months near Bennettsville, S. C., returned to Sampson county. He is charged also with shooting and wounding a colored woman named Silva Darden, several years ago on the Big Coharie, and less than two months ago with committing a rape on Adaline Emanual, a colored girl, in Dismal township.

Mr. Bledsoe, the wounded constable, is a married man with six children. He is noted for courage and determination, and on this account was selected as the man of all others who would capture the negro desperado—dead or alive.

Not Far From a Hundred. Mr. Gottlieb Mahnd died yesterday at his residence near Rosky Point at the venerable age of 88 years and 4 months. He was a German by birth but had been a resident of this section for many years and was highly esteemed by all who knew him. He has been a citizen of this country for more than 60 years. Peace to his ashes!

Removed to this City. Mr. W. C. Downing, of Washington county, has removed to this city with his family and will make this his home. He will enter into business here. We extend to him a cordial welcome to our city by the sea and hope that his stay among us may be long, pleasant and profitable.

There was one interment this week in Bellevue, a child; two, one adult and one child, in Oakdale, and three, one adult and two children, in Pine Forest.

If you want a picture framed go to Heinsberger's. He has a large assortment of Mouldings to select from.

Brisk to high northeast winds are expected on the North Carolina coast and the cautionary signal has been ordered up at Morehead.

The Register of Deeds has this week issued five marriage licenses, three of which were for white and two for colored couples.

The days are at their shortest in the afternoon, lacking one minute. In the morning they will continue to grow shorter until New Year's.

The "Busy Bees" of St. James Parish cleared at their lawn party and baby show $25.20. As the Rector wishes them to retain the amount, and add to it, we would say to those of our friends who have not contributed to the comfort of the little orphan, and would like to do so, that any amount, however small, will be thankfully received by any of the little "Bees."
