We wish to call the attention o the city authorities to a fact that really needs attention. On Saturday night one of the fire steamers dashed up Third street, turning from Third into Mulberry and then into Fourth leaving a long train of live coals behind it. There was a stiff breeze blowing at the time and these coals were made the sport of the wind and blown here and there to the serious endangerment of resis dences on the street. Fifteen min utes after the steamer had passed some of the coals were still alight. Surely there was no necessity for
