THURSDAY, DEC. 13, 1888. Entered at the Postoffice at Wilmington, N.C., as second-class matter.

The stock of the Chemical National Bank of New York reached its highest figure last week when two shares were sold for $4,007 a piece. The par value of the stock is $100 a share.

It is intimated that Mr. Cleveland will not be permitted by the Republican Senate to fill the vacancy on the United States District Bench of Florida, occasioned by the death of Judge Settle. The fact that the office is in the South, where the Re publicans just now are seeking to strengthen themselves, gives the rumor some credit. Prominent Republican lawyers are scarce in the South, and so very scarce in Florida at the time of Judge Settle's appointment, that the President was forced to come to North Carolina well. They seem to cut the others. for his man. It may be, therefore, that even should the vacancy be kept open for Gen. flarrison to fill, he will be put to it to find a suitable

The Georgia Legislature is now at work on the consideration of the appropriation bill. The New York World says: "With one State, Colorado, estimated, the popular plurality for Cleveland over Gen. Harrison, in the Union, is 98, 204. In 1884, by the Tribune's figures, the plurality was only 23,005. In the Northern States Harrison's vote is 4,074,903 and Cleveland's vote is 3,605,746. The Republican vote in the North is 469,157 larger than the Democratic vote in a total of 7,680, 649. In the Southern States Cleveand's vote is 1,920,757 and Harrison's 1,353,396. The Democratic vote in the South is, therefore, 567,361 larger than the Republican vote in Remedy for Consumption were only a total of 3,274,153. A San Francisco correspondent takes exceptions to the accusation of Easterners that all Californians are braggarts, and says it is only partly true. He notes a marked difference between the men of Northern California and those of the Southern section, and especially of the Los Angeles region. The Northern Californian simply states the facts as he finds them, but he allows that the Southern brother is gitted with a poetry of diction and a flood of imagination that easily enables him to outbrag the world. The San Bernardino men really have cause to be jubilant, for their country, though it possesses a desert more terrible than anything in Arabia, is now recognized as the best grape growing region in Southern California. At the recent pomological fair at Lcs Angeles its table grapes and dried fruit were the admiration of all who saw them. An enthusiastic vineyard o ner calls Northern California the France of America and Southerd California its Spain, the former giving the wines of the table and the latter those of the dessert. The failure of the French vintages this year has caused a brisk export demand for the California grape, and it is predicted that the time is not far distant when the people of the East will give California the money that it now pours into the purse of France for light wines.
