Severe Cases of Blood Poison.
Thousands suffer from blood poison, who are cured if they gave B. B. B. (Botanic and Balm) a trial. Send to the Blood Balm Atlanta, Ga., for book of wonderful cures, to convince the most skeptical. It is sent free.

Gibson, Meridian, Miss., writes: "For number of years I suffered untold agonies from blood poison. Several prominent physicians did me little if any good. I began to use B. B. B. with very little faith, but, to my utter surprise, it has made me a well and hearty man."

F. Hallerton, Macon, Ga., writes: "I confessed blood poison. I first tried physicians, then went to Hot Springs. I returned a ruined man physically. Nothing seemed to do me any good. My mother persuaded me to try B. B. B. To my utter astonishment it cured me quickly."

W. Morris, Atlanta, Ga., writes: "I suffered from syphilitic blood poison which seemed to be cured by all treatment. Physicians pronounced it a hopeless case. I had no time, I had pains in hips and joints and thru my body was diseased. My throat was swollen and my breast a mass of running sores. In this condition I commenced a use of B. B. B. It healed every ulcer and sore and I am completely within two months."

Holiday Rates on the Railroads.

All the railroads announce cheap excursion rates for the holidays. On the Atlantic Coast Line the price for round trip tickets to Wilmington from points named is as follows:— Magnolia, $2.50; Mt. Olive, $3.35; Goldsboro, $4.15; Wilson, $4.85; Rocky Mount, $5.45; Tarboro, $6.00; Weldon, $6.45; Lake Waccamaw, $2.00; Whiteville, $2.50; Fair Bluff, $3.35; Marion, S. C., $4.15; Florence, S. C., $4.85.

On the Carolina Central the price of round trip tickets from Wilmington to Charlotte, or to Wilmington, is $6.85; Wadesboro, $5.75; Hamlet, $5.15; Laurinburg, $4.50—and a proportionate reduction at other points.
On all the roads tickets placed on sale to-day and to the 25th inclusive, will be good until January 3rd, and tickets placed on sale December 29th to 31st will be good until January 5th inclusive.

All kinds of School Books and School Supplies can be bought cheapest at Heinsberger's.

Only one case, that of Owen Bau-man, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, was before the Mayor to-day. The defendant was fined $20 or 30 days.

Cora Van Tassel.

This charming little actress, whom Wilmingtonians have cause to regard so highly, will open a short season in this city on Monday night.
She will play here Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, with a Christmas matinee. She is supported by a stronger troupe than ever before and has made several valuable additions to the strength of the company. They played in Charleston last week and to large houses, and the discriminating News and Courier spoke very highly of their performances in that city. "They ought to have, and in all probability will have, large houses here." "Cherry Ripe" will be presented on Monday night. Box sheet open at Heinsberger's Monday morning.

A Ripe Old Age.

If our venerable townsman, Mr.
George R. French, lives until January he will be 87 years of age. He is still hale and hearty and was on the streets to day. He has been in business in this city, at the head of the large shoe house which bears his name, for 66 years, and he ranks to-day as the oldest merchant in the State of North Carolina. He has recently returned from a visit to Massachusetts. It was the 71st time that he had made the trip between Fall River and Wilmington, and it has always been with him a safe, commodious and comfortable trip, without accident of any kind. Mr.
French has been a consistent Christian since his early manhood. His connection with the Baptist Church in this city antedates our earliest recollections. This Christmas, as for many others past, he delights himself in doing good; in quietly and unostentatiously dispensing of his wealth to those in need.

These facts were gathered by us to-day indirectly. They were not intended for publication but when we heard them we could not forbear this tribute to the sterling worth and Christian integrity of one who has been in and out among us for nearly three-fourths of a century and who possesses, in the highest degree, the respect and esteem and confidence of the entire community.

Terminal Facilities.

It was made known yesterday afternoon that Col. J. A. Grey, President of the C. F. & Y. V. R. R. and Capt. J. W. Frey, the Superintendent who had been in the city during the day, had completed the purchase from Mr. Wm. Larkins of thirty acres of land on Point Peter, opposite the city, with a front of 1,000 feet on Northeast river, and 700 feet on the Cape Fear, for five thousand dollars. The company has also bought what is known as the Nutt wharf property on Water and Mulberry streets, next to the wharf of the New York and Wilmington Steamship Company, which has a front of 130 feet on North Water street and a depth of over 300 feet.
This purchase was on terms that have not been made public, but the price is believed to be in the neighborhood of twenty thousand dollars. These pieces of property were bought to provide terminal facilities for the company.
The terminus of the road will be on the West side of the Northeast river, where the passenger and freight depot will be erected, and a steam ferry boat will be used to transport passengers, mails and freight to and from the city. Warehouses and offices will be built on this side of the river, on the Nutt property, as soon as practicable, and neat, commodious buildings will be constructed, which will add considerably to the appearance of that portion of the city.

It is said that the road will be open for traffic between this city and Fayetteville in time to handle next year's crops.

We Challenge.

Any man, woman or child who is affected with Constipation, Dyspepsia, Headache or Torpid Liver to prove that a few doses of Simmons' Liver Regulator will not relieve them. It never fails, and is so pure, so sure, so harmless that an infant can take it and never have a second spell of Colic. An adult can take it, keep the bowels regular and secure health.

Cape Fear Academy.

The literary exercises of the pupils of the Cape Fear Academy took place at the school room on Fourth street, near Princess, last night.
There was a large attendance of those interested in the progress of the students at this excellent school and it was a decided literary gathering. The exercises were very interesting and in the highest degree creditable to the careful and painstaking principal and his assistants.
It was not an examination, such as those held at the close of the session, but a literary entertainment of a high order, such as the pupils of the Academy give occasionally during the winter months.

'Christmas for Everybody.

We cannot altogether endorse the views of our correspondent, published elsewhere, in regard to the observance of Christmas Day. We believe that all of those whose churches are opened ought to go to morning service on that day but, this duty performed, we believe also that all of the latitude consistent with the public comfort and safety ought to be allowed for enjoyment. It has not been so long yet since we were a boy that we can forget the great pleasure with which this holiday, the greatest of the year, has been hailed, and we believe that the most should be made of it. Christmas without candle crackers and tin horns would be about as tame an affair as a Christmas dinner without roast turkey and mince pies.
