One of the choicest collections of vocal music ever prepared for the public has just been issued, under the title of the "Popular Song Colmusic size, beautifully printed and bound, and contains 144 pages of carefully selected songs by Tosti, Marzials, Cellier, Moir, Jacobowski, Mattei, Booth, Osgood, Adams, Temple, Watson, and many others. Those who desire a good book of songs that are above the ordinary, or "trashy" sort, and yet not difficult, will be pleased with this book. All of the songs have piano accompaniment. The price is $1.00, by mail to any address, by Oliver Ditson & Co., Boston.

More About the Book Reception.

The book reception at the Y. M C. A. Rooms next Friday evening will probably be an exceedingly interesting occasion. The purpose is in addition to affording a pleasant entertainment and a social evening to gather a nucleus for a library which shall be for the use of the young men of the community. Each person attending is expected to bring a book of some sort and pre sent it to the Association Library.

Besides a delightful musical pro gramme that has been arranged, in which some of the best talent of our town will take part, the Hon. A. M. Waddell will address the meeting, and after the musical and literary programme light refreshments will
