Severe Cases of Blood Poison.
Thousands suffer from blood poison, who would be cured if they gave B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm) a trial. Send to the Botanic Blood Co., Atlanta, Ga., for book of wonderful cures, that convince the most skeptical. It is sent free.
J. O. Gibson, Meridian, Miss., writes: "For a number of years I suffered untold agonies from blood poison. Several prominent physicians did me little if any good. I began to use B. B. B. with very little faith, but, to my utter surprise, it has made me a well and hearty person."
E. T. Hallerton, Macon, Ga., writes: "I contracted blood poison. I first tried physicians, and then went to Hot Springs. I returned home a ruined man physically. Nothing seemed to do me any good. My mother persuaded me to try B. B. B. To my utter astonishment every ulcer quickly healed."
Benj. Morris, Atlanta, Ga., writes: "I suffered years from syphilitic blood poison which refused to be cured by all treatment. Physicians pronounced it a hopeless case. I had no appetite, I had pains in hips and joints and my kidneys were diseased. My throat was ulcerated and my breast a mass of running sores. In this condition I commenced a use of B. B. B. It healed every ulcer and sore and cured me completely within two months."

CAUTION
Beware of Fraud, as my name and the price are stamped on the bottom of all my advertised shoes before leaving the factory, which protect the wearers against high prices and inferior goods. If a dealer offers shoes at a price below the price reduced price, or says he has them without my name and price stamped on the bottom, put him down as a fraud.

W. E. SPRINGER & Co.—For the Holidays

Day's length 9 hours and 52 minutes.
Sunset to-morrow afternoon at 8 minutes past 5 o'clock.
We are glad to hear that Mayor Fowler is somewhat better.
And didn't it rain last night? But to-day has been very pleasant.

Bethel prayer and experience meeting this Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock.
We are sorry to hear that Mr. W. A. French is quite sick and confined to his bed.

The Register of Deeds last week issued marriage licenses for 2 white and 2 colored couples.
All kinds of School Books and School Supplies can be bought cheapest at Heinsberger's.

The N. Jacobi Hdw. Co. still lead in the sale of the best and cheapest heating and cooking stoves.
"It's only a question of time," and a short time, too, as to when your rheumatism will yield to Hood's Sarsaparilla. Try it.

If you want a picture framed go to Heinsberger's. He has a large assortment of Mouldings to select from.
Indications.
For North Carolina, rains, followed on Sunday by fair and colder weather.

To-morrow is known in the Church calendar as the "Feast of the Epiphany, or the Manifestation of Christ to the Gentiles."
We have knives for your boys and scissors for your girls. What will please them more for presents? N. Jacobi Hardware Co.

Do you use loaded shells? You will find that they will save you time, trouble and expense. For sale by the N. Jacobi Hardware Co.
Messrs. James Walton and John Costin, of Masoboro Sound, leave to-morrow night for Jacksonville, Fla., where they intend going into the fish business.

The members of the Wilmington Operatic Company are requested to meet at Capt. John L. Boatwright's residence, on next Tuesday evening, January 7th, at 8 o'clock.
In St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church to-morrow there will be services in English at 11 a. m. and in German at 7:30 p. m. The holy communion will be administered both morning and night.

The rainfall last night was very heavy, just 1.90 inches. The greatest velocity of the wind here was 30 miles an hour and at Southport it was 35 miles. No damage at either port.
Br. schr Julia Elizabeth, Ingrau, cleared to-day for Nassau with 160,000 shingles, 6,000 feet lumber, 20 barrels flour, 5 barrels grits and 2 barrels peas, valued at $1,014.25, shipped by Messrs. Cronly & Morris.

Silver-plated knives, forks, spoons, and child's sets, carving knives and forks. Make your friends happy by making useful presents. A nice line of the above is offered by the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.
No interments this week in Oakdale and none in Bellevue. These are the two white cemeteries. Now, how is this for a town like ours, which it was once the quintessence of wit to speak of as a graveyard?

Clear and Cold.
The Southwest cautionary signal was ordered down here this morning and the cautionary Northwest ordered up. The signal was ordered down at Charleston. The storm this forenoon was central over Western North Carolina, moving Northeast. It was veering to Northwest, however, and there will be colder, clearing weather to-night, and to-morrow it will be clear and cold, with the wind from the Northwest.

The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 278 bales.
Portable fire-place grates. Just the thing for our climate. Are sold by the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

The Paris Figaro has just published an interesting article on "What Young Girls Should Read." This is all well enough. But it is more important still to know that they should always take Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup for their colds.

Death of Mr. H. Hintze.
Capt. A. Adrian received a telegram from this morning, announcing the death in Jacksonville last night of Mr. H. Hintze, for many years a resident of this city, but who removed to Jacksonville some years ago. He was, we think, about 40 years of age. The remains were interred at Jacksonville to-day.

The Fire To-Day.
The alarm of fire this noon, turned in from box 43, was caused by the destruction of three small frame dwellings on Hanover street, near Eighth. One of these belonged to Mr. M. Bellamy and was occupied by a colored family. The others were owned by Thomas Rivera and Gus Williams, colored, who also occupied them. The buildings were all insured but for what amount, we did not learn.

Contract Awarded.
Sealed bids were opened to-day by Capt. W. H. Bixby, at his office in this city, for dredging the Cape Fear river, below this city. The bids were as follows: P. Sanford Ross, of Jersey City, N. J., 14 cents per yard on $23,000 worth of work and 13 cents on $62,000 worth; Atlas Dredging Co., of Wilmington, Del., 12 1/2 cents and 12 cents; National Dredging Co., of Wilmington, Del., 12 9/10 cents and 12 9/10 cents; American Dredging Co., of Philadelphia, 14 1/2 cents and 13 1/2 cents; Alabama Dredging Co., of Mobile, 12 1/2 cents and 12 1/2 cents. The contract was awarded to the Atlas Dredging Co. The work will begin on the 11th day of February.

An Outrage.
While a number of girl pupils of Tilston School were returning to their homes in the Eastern part of the city yesterday afternoon, they were interfered with by a number of rude colored children and were much annoyed, so that they were finally obliged to take a circuitous route in order to avoid as much as possible further molestation. The white children gave no cause for the assault, which was entirely unprovoked, but were walking along peacefully and quietly, yet one of them, a modest, inoffensive girl of nine years of age, received a blow from one of the ill-mannered colored children. It was an outrage that had better not be repeated, for the parents of those children are not the sort to submit quietly to such things.

The Book Reception.
Notwithstanding the stormy, inclement weather, there was a large gathering at the book reception held last night at the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association. Each guest brought with him or her a book and the result was a really handsome collection, as a nucleus from which the library of the Association is to grow. In all about 300 volumes were contributed and among them we noticed a number of valuable standard works.

The evening was an exceedingly pleasant one. Mr. P. B. Manning, the President of the Association, made a very felicitous welcoming address, and Miss Adrian and Miss Schwarz charmed the guests with some excellent music.
The address of the evening was delivered by Hon. A. M. Waddell. That distinguished gentleman was evidently in his happiest vein. His remarks were beautiful, eloquent and instructive. His theme was "Moses" and he handled it superbly. Those who heard it certainly enjoyed a fine literary treat and they would be glad to hear it again.

At the conclusion of Col. Waddell's address there was more music, an exquisite instrumental duet by the Misses Johnson, of Clinton, and after this refreshments were served by a number of young ladies.
The "book reception" was indeed such a success, in every way, that there is already talk of a reception at an early date.

A Very Interesting Occasion.
Mr. E. H. Webster, High Chief Ruler of the Independent Order of Rechabites in North Carolina, arrived in the city yesterday and last night he visited Unity Tent No. 60 and installed the officers elect for the ensuing term. Notice of his visit had previously been announced in the Tent and its members, determined to make the occasion a pleasant and a memorable one, went to work and armed themselves with the largest gold headed ebony cane they could find, and selecting Mr. W. N. Jacobs as spokesman, awaited his coming. Finally the alarm was sounded and he was admitted. The Tent was then opened under the head of "Good and Welfare" and Mr. Webster was requested to preside and install officers-elect. Just as he was about to take the chair Mr. Jacobs, in his usual happy manner, stepped forward and addressed Mr. Webster:

Mr. Jacobs' remarks were graceful, eloquent and appropriate, and we had hoped to publish them here in full but a pressure on our space to-day prevents. He assured Mr. Webster that it was a great source of gratification and honor to the entire lodge to have him in their midst and extended to him a cordial greeting, with the hope and belief that his stay in our city might be made as pleasant to him as it was gratifying to the members of the order. Mr. Jacobs then reverted to the work of the order here and the need for a constant and increasing activity in asserting its principles and maintaining the fight against the powers of evil. "Our noble order, instituted for the benefit of unskilled, sets a glorious example. May its influence be widely extended and its principles become the principles of suffering and beguiled humanity. May every member regard himself a soldier of sobriety and benevolence, setting a good example to others and endeavoring to influence his fellow-men to active work for the benefit of the race and for the reclamation of the fallen."

In presenting the cane, at the close of his address, Mr. Jacobs said: "It becomes my pleasant task, honored brother, in behalf of this tent, to present to you this cane as a token of the high esteem and fraternal affection in which you are held by its members."
Mr. Webster, though taken by surprise, responded in an eloquent and feeling manner, thanking the Rechabites of Wilmington for one of the most pleasant events of his life, and assured them of the high position which Unity Tent occupied in the hearts of Rechabites elsewhere. He then proceeded to install the following officers:

Shep.—C. L. Cowles.
P. C. R.—Wm. M. Hays.
C. R.—T. H. Platt.
D. R.—G. H. Bender.
R. S.—F. T. Skipper.
F. S.—A. C. Prempert.
Treas.—Ira Skipper.
Levite—Walter Yates.
I. G.—W. Mc. Evans.
O. G.—J. O. Ormsby.
R. S. to C. R.—B. H. Newton.
L. S. to C. R.—J. W. Fleet.
R. S. to D. R.—John Lane.
L. S. to D. R.—Brown.

St. Paul's Episcopal Church.
Services at St. Paul's Episcopal Church to-morrow at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Text of evening sermon: "The Wages of Sin is Death." Music at the evening service will be by the quartet who have already won great praise for their rendering of elaborate programmes on previous Sunday nights. Seats are free at all services and all will find a welcome. There will be a special children's service in the afternoon at 3:15. These exercises will be very interesting. The rector will deliver a brief address.

The latest weather bulletin was received here at 4 o'clock this afternoon. It orders the signals down here and at Morehead, at sunset. The storm was then central in Virginia and moving Northeast. The winds will diminish in force to-night.

TAKE IT IN TIME.
"For want of a nail, a shoe was lost; for want of a shoe, a horse was lost; for want of a horse, a rider was lost." Never neglect small things. The first signs of pneumonia and consumption can positively be checked by Dr. Acker's English Remedy for Consumption. Munds Brothers, druggists.

Rock Crystal Spectacles and Eyeglass
Advice to old and young: In selecting spectacles you should be cautious not to take more magnifying power than has been lost to the eye as in the same proportion that you pass that point of increase, will cause you further injury to the eye. Using glasses of stronger power than is necessary is the daily cause of premature old age to the sight. You can get the best at Heinsberger's.
