A True Tonic.
When you don't feel well and hardly know what ails you, give B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm) a trial. It is a fine tonic.
T. O. Callahan, Charlotte, N. C., writes: "B. B. B. is a fine tonic, and has done me great good."
L. W. Thompson, Damascus, Ga., writes: "I believe B. B. B. is the best blood purifier made. It has greatly improved my general health."
An old gentleman writes: "B. B. B. gives me new life and new strength. If there is anything that will make an old man young, it is B. B. B."
P. A. Shepherd, Norfolk, Va., August 10th, 1888, writes: "I depend on B. B. B. for the preservation of my health. I have had it in my family now nearly two years, and in all that time have not had to have a doctor."
Thos. Paulk, Alapaha, Ga., writes: "I suffered terribly from dyspepsia. The use of B. B. B. has made me feel like a new man. I would not take a thousand dollars for the good it has done me."
W. M. Chesire, Atlanta, Ga., writes: "I had a long spell of typhoid fever, which at last seemed to settle in my right leg, which swelled up enormously. An ulcer also appeared which discharged a cupful of matter a day. I then gave B. B. B. a trial and it cured me."

Indications.
For North Carolina, light local rains and warmer weather.

All kinds of School Books and School Supplies can be bought cheapest at Heinsberger's.

Nothing done in the Criminal Court to-day. The grand jury has not yet been discharged.

The N. Jacobi Hdw. Co. still lead in the sale of the best and cheapest heating and cooking stoves.

Rheumatism is caused by lactic acid in the blood, which Hood's Sarsaparilla neutralizes, and thus cures rheumatism.

If you want a picture framed go to Heinsberger's. He has a large assortment of Mouldings to select from.

The State Sunday School Convention will be held this year in Charlotte, and on the 2d, 3d and 4th of April.

This is, with many, the regular monthly settling day and a good deal of money changed hands this forenoon.

Oysters are in good condition now. We saw some New Rivers this morning that would make the mouth of an epicure water.

Salvation Oil, the greatest cure on earth for pain, may be relied on to effect a cure whenever an external application can be used. Price only twenty five cents a bottle.

We have knives for your boys and scissors for your girls. What will please them more for presents? N. Jacobi Hardware Co.

Do you use loaded shells? You will find that they will save you time, trouble and expense. For sale by the N. Jacobi Hardware Co.

Many of us expected to find snow or sleet on the ground this morning but there was neither. Instead we may have rain, as the weather has moderated.

Silver-plated knives, forks, spoons and child's sets, carving knives and forks. Make your friends happy by making useful presents. A nice line of the above is offered by the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

Re. barque Deucalion, Baker, cleared to-day for Bristol, England, with 3,985 barrels rosin, valued at $2,318, shipped by Messrs. Paterson, Downing & Co.

Re. barque Arbutus, Bleigh, cleared to-day for Fleetwood, England, with 4,170 barrels rosin, valued at $2,500, shipped by Messrs. Paterson, Downing & Co.

Capt. Webster will lecture on Temperance and Reebatism at Temperance Hall to-night at 8 o'clock. No charge for admission. All are invited.

Don't forget that King Winter will hold his Court to-night at the School Room next North of St. John's Church. A large attendance is expected. By order of Winter, Rex. and Snow, Chief of Staff.

To-Night:
There will be a religious meeting at the Central Baptist Church, corner Seventh and Red Cross streets, at 8 o'clock to-night. The theme for the meetings: "How to be Blessed." There will be a general discussion open to all. This is the last night of these meetings.

The Alliance Meetings.
The meeting of the Evangelical Alliance was held last evening in the First Presbyterian Church. The subject of prayer was "Reforms." Rev. F. D. Swindell, Rev. Dr. Pritchard and Rev. P. H. Hoge were the speakers. Earnest and affecting prayers were made by Rev. Messrs. Swindell, Priurose and Miller and the hymn sung was "Am I a Soldier of the Cross?" "My Soul, be on Thy Guard," and "Onward, Christian Soldier."
This Alliance will meet to-night at Grace M. E. Church, and Rev. Dr. Pritchard will speak on "Missions," giving an account of the "World's Missionary Council."

Mr. John H. Strauss is having erected a brick building on Second street, between Market and Princess, on the site of the old wooden structure torn down a few weeks ago. It is to be two stories in height with dwellings on the second floor and two handsome stores on the ground floor.

The pastor of one of the colored churches here counted up for us today fifteen colored churches here, each of which has its regular minister. There are besides, he says, probably fifteen local preachers here who are not in charge of a church. This will make about thirty colored ministers in all in the city. So that our neighbor of the Star is answered.

The Calendar Crop.
At this season of the year the Calendar harvest is at its height. Of the making of calendars there is no end, and they appear in all sizes, shapes, colors and designs, the makers of them vieing with each other to produce something which shall surpass all previous efforts. So plenty have they become that a calendar must possess unusual merit to retain year after year a prominent position. The calendar issued by N. W. Ayer & Son, Newspaper Advertising Agents, Philadelphia, is one of the latter sort and each succeeding year brings an increasing demand for it. Combining beauty of color and finish, it is also so plain that the various dates can be read with comfort. On receipt of twenty five cents they will forward their calendar securely enclosed and postpaid to any address.

An Early Morning Intruder.
A white man by the name of James Smith, who says that he is from New River, was arrested this morning before the Mayor's court charged with disorderly conduct, but his case was continued to-morrow.

It seems that early this morning, about 5:30 o'clock, he entered the residence of Mr. W. H. Mintz, corner Second and Church streets, through the front door, which was not fastened. Mrs. Mintz heard him and called out to know if it was her son and he answered "yes." She then opened her door and saw him standing there. She called for her son, Mr. W. H. Mintz, and he rushed out of his room and into another room where Smith was taking off his clothes and preparing himself for bed. Mr. Mintz arrested him and started to take him to the City Hall but on the way met his father, who was returning from duty there, and resigned him to his care.

There is no probability of a burglarious intent in this case. Smith has been on a spree, it is learned, for two weeks past and he says that he was looking for a relative's house, where he boarded, at the time he entered Mr. Mintz's house by mistake. The man's brain was badly addled and it is not at all likely that he willfully committed an offense against the law.

Pender County.
The Board of Commissioners of Pender county met in regular session on Monday last. The Board, consisting of Messrs. J. T. Foy, Chairman, and H. A. Bland and A. C. Moore, were all present.
The bond of E. M. Johnston as sheriff, with S. H. Manning, W. H. Chadbourne, E. J. Pennypacker, D. J. Corbett and G. A. Ramsey as sureties, was accepted by the Board.
The Board elected Mr. J. T. Bland county attorney for the ensuing year, and also appointed J. K. Brown keeper of the poor house.
The Board is to meet again next Monday to take some action looking to the abolishment of one term of the Superior Court of the county, as it is thought that two terms will be ample, instead of three, as at present. The Superior Court convenes next Monday.
The Board of Education also had a regular meeting last Monday to apportion the school fund for the year. The same apportionment was made as last year. The amount is too small; it ought to be at least double what it is, in order to do any good.
R. C. Johnson, Esq., member elect of the House of Representatives, left for Raleigh on Monday, also Mr. R. M. Croon, who is contesting his seat.
Everything is dull about Burgaw. The truckers and strawberry men are making preparations for the coming year.

The Knights Last Night.

There was a very large audience present in the Opera House last night to witness the installation of the officers—elect of Stonewall Lodge No. 1 and Germania Lodge No. 4, Knights of Pythias. The programme, as published by us yesterday, was closely observed.

Mr. E. Kuhlblank, the retiring Chancellor Commander of Germania Lodge, called the meeting to order, after which the opening ode was sung by the choir, followed by the entrance of the Grand Officers. Prayer was then offered by Rev. W. S. Creasy, Prelate-elect of Stonewall Lodge. Then the following installation ode was sung, the words and music of which were composed by P. C., J. W. King:

How sweet is the tie—of friendship when true;
Like sunbeams reflecting its bright rosy hue
We'd embrace it with rapture and bear it away,
To bloom in our hearts forever and aye.

Blest charity, we'll prize thee and guard thee with care—
Thy blossom so tender so lovely and fair;
We'd breathe thy soft fragrance with pleasure untold—
Thy worth is more precious than silver or gold.

Benevolence, too, oh! how blest was the hour,
When first we embraced thee our own gentle flower!
We'll treasure forever the loved link of Three,
And plant them to blossom o'er land and o'er sea.

The beautiful and impressive installation ceremonies were conducted by Gen. William Ward of New Jersey, Supreme Chancellor of the World. Each officer was in turn presented by Master-at-Arms J. H. Davis, and after the charge to each by the Supreme Chancellor, the oath of office was administered by the Grand Prelate, Mr. J. G. L. Gieschen.

Grand Chancellor Thos. D. Meares then delivered a short address and introduced to the audience the Supreme Chancellor.

Gen. Ward's address was a very fine one and was heard with breathless interest by the vast concourse present. He took occasion, during its progress, to allude most feelingly to the hospitality of the people of the South, and paid a glowing tribute to their thrift, enterprise and industry. His remarks were received with enthusiastic applause.

The officers on the stage were Supreme Chancellor Gen. Wm. Ward, J. A. Bonitz, P. G. C.; T. D. Meares, G. C.; C. W. Lambeth, G. V. C.; J. G. L. Gieschen, G. P.; Jno. H. Davis, G. M. at A.; D. F. Barnes, G. O. G.; and the following officers were installed:

Stonewall Lodge No. 1—H. L. Fentress, P. C.; E. B. King, C. C.; I. L. Greenwald, V. C.; W. S. Creasy, P.; J. M. Altaffer, M. of E.; R. B. Clowe, M. of F.; W. H. Yopp, K. of R. and S.; G. A. Peterson, M. at A.; J. F. Craig, I. G.; M. M. Parker, O. G.

Germania Lodge No. 4—E. Kuhlblank, P. C.; H. L. Vollers, C. C.; John Haar, Sr. V. C.; C. F. Von-Kampen, P.; F. W. Oatman, M. of E.; H. H. Gieschen, M. of F.; John Haar, Jr. K. of R. & S.; N. Hullen, M. at A.; M. Bremer, I. G.; John Soll, O. G.
The choir for the occasion was composed of Mrs. A. C. Craft, organist; W. N. Jacobs, cornetist; Jas. W. King, director; Mrs. Pennington and Misses King and Jacobs, sopranos; Mrs. Muse and Mrs. Bowden, altos; Messrs. Hodges and Fleet tenors; and Messrs. Altaffer, Davis and Ortman. The music was very fine indeed, and was one of the most notable and most interesting events of the evening.

Masonic Grand Officers.

The following were elected officers of the Grand Lodge of Masons in session at Raleigh this week:
Grand Master—Samuel H. Smith, of Winston.
Deputy Grand Master—H. H. Guder, of Asheville.
Senior Grand Warden—Jno. W. Cotten, of Tarboro.
Junior Grand Warden—F. M. Moye, of Wilson.
Grand Secretary—D. W. Bain, of Raleigh.
Grand Treasurer—Wm. E. Anderson, of Raleigh.
Superintendent of Oxford Orphan Asylum—Dr. B. F. Dixon.

The General Assembly.

The Legislature has yet done nothing worthy of general interest. The Governor's Message was read to-day. It strongly advocates the appointment of a railroad commission; an increase of pensions to Confederate soldiers; an increase of the adjutant general's salary to $1,500, and the working of public roads by convict labor and through taxation.

City Court.
Acting Mayor Fishblate disposed of the following cases this morning: Sarah Loyd, drunk and down, $20 or 30 days in a close cell.
James Smith, disorderly conduct, case continued.
Wm. Campbell, assault, $20 or 30 days.

Personal.
Capt. E. J. Pennypacker returned to the city last night from Raleigh. Prof. Van Laer is still sick. He is better but has not yet left his room. It was reported here this morning that Mayor Fowler was worse; instead of which, we are glad to report, he is better.

Mr. H. A. Bagg, Chairman of the Board of County Commissioners, will leave this week for a visit to his old home at Utica, N. Y.
Messrs. C. H. Robinson, James W. Monroe, H. G. Smallbones and W. H. Chadbourne, who have been in attendance on the meeting of the Grand Lodge in Raleigh, returned to the city last night.

Mr. Geo. W. Gates, of Salisbury, Master Mechanic in the shops of the Western N. C. R. R., is in the city with his daughter, Miss Mary, on a visit to relatives here.

Two Fine Performances.
Olive Doud Byron will appear at the Opera House to-morrow night. He plays here but two nights, Saturday and Monday, and it is his first appearance in Wilmington in two years. He did not come last season. The charming Wilmington favorite, Miss Kate Byron, is still with him and he is otherwise supported by an excellent company. He will play here in "The Upper Hand" and "The Inside Track." The box sheet is now open at Heinsberger's. The Boston Herald, in a critique on "The Inside Track," says this:

Mr. Oliver Byron, supported by his traveling company, opened at the Howard last evening, and the building was packed by an enthusiastic audience, which applauded all the heroic speeches, denounced the villain, sympathized with the persecuted and laughed immoderately at the comedy scenes. The piece is one of the most stirring and exciting of the series which Mr. Byron has made popular, and in many respects it is better than any of its predecessors. Mr. Byron was warmly welcomed, was several times called before the curtain, and was as successful as ever in gaining and holding the sympathy of his auditors. Miss Kate Byron shared the honors with him, and the other members of the company found favor with the assemblage.

Portable fire-place grates. Just the thing for our climate. Are sold by the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.
