

DUFFY'S PURE MALT WHISKEY

A SCIENTIFIC REMEDY.
NOT A BEVERAGE.

No disease germ can POSSIBLY remain lodged in the body if this Great Remedy is carefully and constantly used. Prof. Wm. T. Cutter, State Chemist of Connecticut, says:

"I have analyzed a great many samples of Whiskey, Wines, Ales, &c., and was surprised to find upon analysis that Duffy's Malt Whiskey was absolutely pure, as I never found this to be the case in any other Whiskey I had examined. These facts must commend it to general use and public favor."

Be sure and secure the genuine, and take no other.

It is For Sale Universally.

The Daily Review.

JOSEPH T. JAMES, Editor & Prop'r.
WILMINGTON, N. C.
FRIDAY, JAN. 18, 1889.

The New York World has organized an expedition to penetrate the secrets of the Dark Continent. Thomas A. Stevens, who went around the world on a bicycle, has been commissioned to proceed at once to Zanzibar. From that point he will penetrate into the heart of Africa to obtain for the world authentic news of the whereabouts and condition of Stanley and Emin. He will also report the horrors of the slave trade and assist in the anti-slavery crusade of Cardinal Lavigerie.

The ladies of the Women's Press Association of Washington, which includes thirty or forty writers for the provincial papers, several poets and authors, and one or two ladies of some literary distinction, have undertaken to raise the funds to pay for a portrait of Mrs. Cleveland, to be hung in the White House. They were so pleased with the toilet she wore on New Year's Day that they want her to be immortalized in that dress, and propose to employ the best artist they can get to give her sittings between now and the 4th of March.

The New York Times says: "Mrs. Potter's attempt to act Cleopatra might fairly be made the subject of levity, but we have no disposition to ridicule the lady. It was a foregone conclusion that she would fail. To a woman of her meagre acquirements the character is unattainable. She might better try even Imogen or Rosalind, but we trust that in the future she will let Shakespeare alone. Even her amazing self-confidence is likely to be shaken by the public reception of her latest audacious undertaking. In view of all that Mrs. Potter does not do, it would be a waste of words to dwell upon what she does in her new role. It will be sufficient to say that she is the central figure in a large number of imposing tableaux; that she reclines on various couches with much abandon; that she storms, when the unlucky messenger from Rome brings tidings of Antony's marriage to Octavia, with all the fury of an ill-tempered village school-mistress under the influence of evil small boys; that she knows every word of the text of her part and delivers it all in a strident voice and with an exaggerated manner; that she is beautiful enough at times to justify Antony's infatuation, and that she applies the fatal asp to her bosom in the last scene with great deliberation and startling frankness, and dies hard."

A few years before he died Henry Ward Beecher was asked what would be the probable effect of his death on the fortunes of his church. He replied quickly, "You will probably have the biggest kind of a revival," and intimated that the fact that they could no longer rely on his drawing powers to sustain the interest of the members to such a degree that there would be an unexpected growth. The result shows that Mr. Beecher's prediction has not been fulfilled. The new pastor, the Rev. Dr. Abbott, is a man of ability and scholarship, but he has not succeeded in holding Mr. Beecher's great congregation. There has been a falling off in attendance. Many members have scattered to other churches. The financial exhibit for the last year is not flattering. The expenditures exceed the receipts by $1,504, and all but $23.69 of the surplus has been used up. Dr. Abbott receives but $6,500 a year against the $20,000 paid Mr. Beecher, but the outlook for meeting this year's expenses is not bright. Still the strong men in the church remain, and they will scarcely permit it to run down or entirely lose its distinctive place among Brooklyn churches.

One Fact
Is worth a column of rhetoric, said an American statesman. It is a fact, established by the testimony of thousands of people, that Hood's Sarsaparilla does cure scrofula, salt rheum and other diseases or affections arising from impure state or low condition of the blood. It also overcomes that tired feeling, creates a good appetite and gives strength to every part of the system. Try it.

TERRIBLE FOREWARNINGS.
Cough in the morning, hurried or difficult breathing, raising of phlegm, tightness in the chest, quickened pulse, chilliness in the evening or sweats at night, all or any of these things are the first stages of consumption. Dr. Acker's English Remedy for Consumption will cure these fearful symptoms, and is sold under a positive guarantee by Munds Bros., druggists.

A Sound Legal Opinion.

E. Bainbridge Mandy, Esq. County Atty., Gray county, Tex. says: "Have used Electric Bitters with most happy results. My brother also was very low with Malarial Fever and Jaundice, but was cured by timely use of this medicine. Am satisfied Electric Bitters saved his life."

Mr. D. I. Wilcoxson, of Horse Cave, Ky., adds a like testimony, saying: "He positively believes he would have died, had it not been for Electric Bitters."

The great remedy will ward off, as well as cure all Malarial Diseases, and for all Kidney, Liver and Stomach Disorders stands unequalled. Price 50c. and $1. at Robert R. Bellamy's whole sale and retail drug store.

JANUARY JOKES.

Family worship—First babies.
A wind lass—The garrulous girl.
The prohibition pier—A dry dock.
Plaid luggage—Checked baggage.
A shining goal—a bootblack's chair.
One of the bright spots in existence is spot cash.
A clean skin—Beating a friend out of borrowed money.
America's home rule is the grand army of wifehood.
To young men—It is better to be fast asleep than fast awake.
Most of the English landlords are conservatives—territories as it were.
The man who rides on a hand-car evidently believes in manual training.

A NARROW ESCAPE.

Col. W. K. Nelson, of Brooklyn, came home one evening feeling a peculiar tightness in the chest. Before retiring he tried to draw a long breath but found it impossible. He suffered four days from pneumonia and the doctors gave him up. Dr. Acker's English Remedy for Consumption saved him and he is well to day. Munds Bros., druggists.

The ostrich feather is again in vogue.

Advice to Mothers.

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty five cents a bottle. July 6 deod&wly

Be Sure

If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to take any other. Hood's Sarsaparilla is a peculiar medicine, possessing, by virtue of its peculiar combination, proportion, and preparation, curative power superior to any other article. A Boston lady who knew what she wanted, and whose example is worthy imitation, tells her experience below:

To Get

"In one store where I went to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla the clerk tried to induce me to buy their own instead of Hood's; he told me their's would last longer; that I might take it on ten days' trial; that if I did not like it I need not pay anything, etc. But he could not prevail on me to change. I told him I knew what Hood's Sarsaparilla was. I had taken it, and was satisfied with it, and did not want any other."

Hood's

When I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla I was feeling real miserable, suffering a great deal with dyspepsia, and so weak that at times I could hardly stand. I looked, and had for some time, like a person in consumption. Hood's Sarsaparilla did me so much good that I wonder at myself sometimes, and my friends frequently speak of it." Mrs. ELLA A. GOFF, 61 Terrace Street, Boston.
