ILLUSTRATED.

HARPER'S BAZAR Will continue to maintain s reputation as an unequalled family journal. ts art illustrations are of the highest order, its terature is of the choicest kind, and its Fashon and Household departments of the most ractical and economical character. Its patsupplements and fashion plates save its readers ten times the cost the subscription, and its articles on decoraive art, social etiquette, house-keeping, cookry, etc., make it indispensable to every house-iold. Its bright short stories and timely essays are among the best published; and not a ine is admitted to its columns that could oftend the most fastidious taste. Among the atractions of the new volume will be serial stoies by Mrs. Frances Hodgson Burnett, Mrs. Mexander, William Black and Thomas Hardy, and a series of papers on nursery management by Mrs. Christine Terhune Herrick.

The uses for which the oil of sassafras can be employed are numerous and varied. It is a favorite perfume for soaps and candies; it is used as a solvent for different gums, and as a liniment.
It is also very largely employed in the manufacture of several popular proprietary medicines. The importance of this industry may be expected to increase rather than diminish, as the sassafras and the per-simmon are the two trees which are spreading most rapidly over the old and abandoned fields throughout the Southern States outside of the pine belt proper; and at present prices good wages can be made dig ging out the roots.-Garden and Forest,

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not foliow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. Robert R. Bellamy, wholesale and retail druggists.

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the cuild from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoa, whether arising from · teething or other causes.
