THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. XIII. WILMINGTON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 1889. NO 32.

Charleston had some asparagus almost ready for cutting but a frost dropped in on it and necessitated a postponement of that process.

It is said that the Broadway street railway in New York has never yet paid a dividend, notwithstanding the immense receipts it must have.

The street car strikers in New York and Brooklyn are about over with. The men, poor fellows, have lost again. It seems to us that $2.25 for a day's work of ten hours was not an unreasonable demand. It is about the most disagreeable work in the world, too.

The Mackay-Bennett Cable Company, or the Postal Telegraph Company, which is about the same thing, is putting up a new line between New York and New Orleans. It will not come this way, however, but will take the interior route, via Richmond, Raleigh and Columbia, and from Columbia it will go to Charleston. The wires will be strung along the county roads.

Nobody seems to really know the truth in regard to the facts attending the death of the Austrian Crown Prince. The latest we have seen is to the effect that he had become entangled with some high-born Austrian woman and that a duel, after a so-called American fashion, was the result. A game of cards was played, the stake being a human life. The Prince lost and in three months from that time agreed to kill himself, according to the compact. In support of this it is said that for three months past he has been preparing himself for death.

Senators Vance is rapidly improving and that is a piece of pleasant good news to every North Carolinian. The Charleston News and Courier's correspondent at Washington City says:

It will be gratifying to the friends of Senator Vance to learn that he is rapidly recovering from the effects of the operation performed on his left eye. For several days it was thought that he would also lose the sight of his right eye, but the danger line has been passed and he now manages to read occasionally with the remaining eye. He is very rest less and anxious to leave the dark room, to which he has been confined since the operation was performed, and if his physician would permit it he would report for duty in the Senate at once. He amuses himself by playing cards and listening to the contents of the daily newspapers, which his good wife reads to him. It is hardly probable that he will be allowed to resume active work again in the Senate during the present session, as his physician has warned him against taxing his right eye too severely.

A woman in Iowa has recently become the responsible mother of triplets. She is as bright and happy as a bird, for she has a big box of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup and she isn't scared a bit.

The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 291 bales.

Heating Stoves are offered at reduced prices by the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

What a lovely day this has been. There is already a feeling of Spring in the atmosphere.

All kinds of School Books and School Supplies can be bought cheapest at Heinsberger.

Don't forget the meeting of the First Ward Democratic Club, at 8 o'clock to-night, at Brooklyn Hall.

Do you have dyspeptic troubles? Take Hood's Sarsaparilla, which has relieved thousands and will cure you. Sold by druggists.

The Bank of New Hanover has declared a semi-annual dividend of four per cent., payable on and after the 9th.

Indications.
For North Carolina, fair and colder weather.

Maj. J. C. Winder, General Manager of the Seaboard system of Railways, was in the city to-day.

Frank Mayo will treat the Charlestonians to-night to the "Royal Guard."

If you want a picture framed go to Heinsberger's. He has a large assortment of Mouldings to select from.

Rev. R. A. Smyer, of Hickory, N. C., will preach at the Central Baptist Church, in this city, at 8 o'clock to-night.

Hoes, Traces, Hames and Farming Implements of all kinds are sold at "rock bottom" prices by the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

The steamer Bessie has made a change in her schedule. She now leaves here at 9:30 a. m., and returning leaves Southport at 3 o'clock.

Sash, Doors, Glass and Builders' Hardware. You will save money and buy the best goods from the N. Jacobi Hardware Co.

The "Boy Clipper" Plow is best suited for our soil, so say all farmers who have tried them. For sale by the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

There is economy in using an Oil Stove for heating small rooms and offices. For sale by the N. Jacobi Hardware Co.

The gale season is rapidly drawing to a close, with many. Ash Wednesday falls on the 6th day of March, just one month from to-day.

Shad are getting somewhat plentiful, but the prices are still high. It will be some days yet before they are on a level with a poor man's pocket.

Get your kites ready, boys, and then go out of town and put them up. There is a splendid piece of ground for this purpose at the Eastern end of Princess and Chestnut streets.

On Fifth street, near the corner of Nun, the boys congregate and have slung shot matches. It is a dangerous amusement and should be stopped. There is, we think, a city ordinance against it.

There is a fine drive now out on the old Newbern road, by Bellevue Cemetery. The long and heavy sand hill has been overlaid with clay, well compacted. The improvement was made by the county.

The Permanent Encampment.
It is reported here to-day, and we believe the report to be true, that Summer Rest, at Wrightsville Sound, has been selected as a permanent site for the encampment of the State Guard. It is a magnificent situation. The battery to be given by the government will be mounted on the high bluff.

Wilmington Railway Bridge Co.
At a special meeting of this company, held yesterday at the office of the Treasurer of the Carolina Central Railroad Company, called for the purpose of electing a successor to the late President, Hon. R. R. Bridgers, Maj. R. S. Tucker addressed the board, feelingly alluding to the loss sustained by the Wilmington Bridge Company, as well as the State at large, in the death of such a public spirited and competent man of business. He could speak from his heart, because he had known Mr. Bridgers from his early youth. On Maj. Tucker's motion the following preamble and resolutions were adopted, viz:

WHEREAS, it has pleased Almighty God in His providence to remove from his sphere of usefulness our esteemed and honored President, Hon. R. R. Bridgers, of the Wilmington Railway Bridge Co.; therefore be it

Resolved, That in the death of Hon. R. R. Bridgers, late President of the Wilmington Railway Bridge Company, the company has lost the services of a competent and intelligent officer, whose long connection with the company gave him accurate and correct knowledge of its affairs, and who ever watched over and protected its interests.

Resolved, That a copy of the foregoing resolution be furnished the family of the deceased, and these proceedings be spread upon the minutes of this Company.

The Board then went into the election of President of the Wilmington Railway Bridge Company, which resulted in the unanimous choice of Hon. Geo. Davis for that position.

Married This Morning.
St. James' Church was filled this morning with a large number of the friends and relatives of the bride and bridegroom to witness the marriage of Mr. William G. Pulliam to Miss Malvina J. Cowan, youngest daughter of David S. Cowan, Esq., of this city. Rev. Robert Strange, the Rector, officiated and the nuptial benediction was pronounced at about 8:15 o'clock. There were no bridesmaids. The ushers were Messrs. W. M. Parsley, Ed. S. Tennent, A. M. Waddell, Jr., and Emmet Dunn. Mr. John B. Munson acted as best man for the groom. The charming young bride, arrayed for traveling, in a blue cloth costume, advanced up the aisle, leaning on her father's arm, and was met at the altar by the groom.

On the conclusion of the ceremony the happy young couple, with their immediate friends, drove direct to Union Depot, where they embarked on the North bound train for a trip North, Niagara Falls being their ultimate destination. They will stop at Richmond for several days on their return, on a visit to Mr. Pulliam's relatives.

The bridal presents were numerous, handsome and costly, Richmond and Wilmington vying with each other in their testimonials of affection and esteem for the young couple just starting out together on life's journey.

Charles Flanner.
In our yesterday's issue we briefly noticed the death in San Francisco of our former townsman, Mr. Charles Flanner, but had not time for any details. He was a son of the late Bennett Flanner, a very prominent and successful merchant of this city for a number of years. He was born in Newbern but came to Wilmington with the family when he was not more than two years old and grew to manhood in this town. For a number of years he held the position of Auditor at the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad, discharging the duties of that responsible office with signal ability and to the entire satisfaction of the company. Being somewhat of a roving disposition, he retired from that office about thirteen years ago and had been a resident of California during that period. His sudden death has given expression on all sides to words of sympathy and esteem for there were a great many in our community to whom he was endeared by his generous qualities and the geniality of his disposition. He was frank, manly and outspoken in his intercourse with the world, true to his friends, and with warm affections for all with whom he was connected. His affection for and devotion to his aged mother was beautiful in the extreme; her slightest wish was law to him and he considered no sacrifice too great in gratifying any desire she might express. An honest man, a true friend, a loving and devoted son, he has finished the work as signed him to do and has gone to that other and better world, where there is neither sorrow or trouble and where there is no night.

Nordeck.
A good house, not so large, however, as that of Monday night, greeted Frank Mayo and his excellent troupe at the Opera House last night. "Nordeck" was the piece and it was an excellent presentation. Mr. Mayo has gained new laurels here and the theatre-going public of Wilmington will always accord him a cordial welcome.

Citizen's Meeting To-Night.
Every citizen with the city's welfare at heart will attend, if he can possibly do so, the meeting to-night at 8 o'clock at the Mayor's Office to aid in organizing the Citizens' Association for the advance of the general welfare of the city of Wilmington. A number of important items will be brought before the meeting on which a free and general interchange of opinion is desired.

Standing Committee of the Diocese.
The Standing Committee of the Diocese of East Carolina met in this city to-day and gave unanimous consent to the consecration of two Bishops-elect as follows, viz:

Rev. Charles Chapman Grafton, of Providence, R. I., for the Diocese of Fou du Lac.

Rev. Cyrus Frederick Knight, D. D., LL. D., of Lancaster, Penn., for the Diocese of Milwaukee.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

What! A good Hair Mattress for $14.00? Yes, sir! Weighing 40 pounds? Yes. Pure Hair—guaranteed? Yes. Best Ticking? Yes. Where can I see sample? Why, opposite the City Hall, on Third St., where they are MADE TO ORDER by HOWELL & CUMMING, Manufacturers and Renovators.

No City Court to-day.

The cold wave dropped in on us this morning, as per programme. It was not quite as cold, however, as we somehow expected it would be. It was cold enough, however, to satisfy us. Ice formed, but it was very thin.

The Masquerade Ball at Germania Hall to-night promises to be a most delightful event. It is given under the auspices of Germania Band and the committee, who are young gentlemen of experience in such things, have labored hard to make this one of the most notable social events of the season.

That Lone Palmetto.
A few years ago two young palmetto trees were bought up from Bald Head and planted in the City Hall Park, directly in front of the Opera House. One of these died but the other is now growing vigorously. It would be a good idea, we think, to get up another from Bald Head to take the place of that which failed. In a few years these plants will be trees and will become objects of interest to visitors here.

Seaman's Friend Society.
The Seaman's Friend Society of this city held its thirty sixth annual meeting yesterday afternoon in the Bethel on Dock street. There was a larger attendance of members of the Society than at meetings heretofore, showing increased interest in the work by all the members. The reports of the Treasurer, Secretary and President were received and approved and the following officers were elected for the ensuing year, viz:

President—Geo. R. French.
Vice President—Geo. Harris.
Secretary and Treasurer—Geo. R. French, Jr.

The Charlotte News contains a highly sensational account of an interneine feud that has broken out among the Croatan Indians in Robeson county. It was contributed by drummers who have recently traveled through that section. It says that five of them (the Croatans) have sworn a vendetta against five others and that Scuffletown is rent from centre to circumference by these feuds. All of the ten are heavily armed and are lying in wait for each other. It is a pity, if true, as all of the accounts we have of these people of late represent that by far the larger majority of them are now peaceful, law-abiding citizens.
