A Strong Point.

One of the strong points in Milton Nobles' new drama is the sudden loss of speech by the hero and its sudden restoration at a critical moment. An able critic has pronounced Mr. Nobles' acting during those scenes as being scarcely paralleled in the entire range of American plays. The visit of this eminent actor and dramatist is an event that no theatre-goer should miss. Mr Nobles is celebrated for always car- and colds." Hampstead, Md., Eng

Peachland.

We were pleased to receive a visit this morning from Mr. J. C. Hester, land, who has been in the city for some days in the interest of his paper. Peachland is a new town in Anson county, on the C. C. This Morning's Fire.

At about 1 o'clock this morning an alarm of fire was turned in first from box 14, corner Third and Princess and directly afterwards from box 16 corner Seventh and Mulberry. It was caused by the destruction of a new two-story frame dwelling on the South side of Mulberry street, between Fourth and Fifth, owned by Mr. Oscar Pearsall. It was a cold morning, but the firemen turned out promptly and worked hard .-They succeeded in confining the flames to the building in which it originated, although there was other valuable property in the immediate The Young Men's Christian Asso- neighborhood. Mr. Rearsall's house more than two-thirds of the loss.

How the fire originated is a myscame in on the late Southern train. and who entered his house at about half-past 12 o'clock, says there was no evidence of the fire there at that time, so far as he observed. It is supposed that the fire was either incendiary or that some tramps had built up a fire there which was af terwards communicated to the build-

> > The Alarm This Forenoon.

There was an alarm from box 35, corner Eighth and Market, this forenoon. It was caused by the ignition. of the dwelling and store of Mr. M. O. Cole, corner Market and Thirteenth. One side of the house was damaged but not very seriously. So far as we could ascertain there was no insurance.

A Gallant Confederate.

An excellent likeness of Col. E. D. Hall is exposed to view in Mr. Yates' window. It is bust size and represents that gentleman in full uniform. It was enlarged from a photograph taken of him in full uniform, direct ly after the battle of Malvern Hill, and of course the representation is of a somewhat younger man than Western mails (C. C. Preparing for Business. The Proctor Screen Company is now fairly launched. The paten they possess is a very valuable one and by agreement with the inventor, they own the exclusive right to manufacture and sell the screen. Mr. Junius Davis is now President of the Company, M. D. G. Proctor having been elected General Superintendent at the last meeting. Mr. H. L. Borden is the Secretary and Treasurer. The screen has been put to severe tests and has been pronounced equal to all that has been claimed for it. Books of subscrip tion to the capital stock are now open but only a limited number of shares will be sold at the present as there is good reason to believe that they will soon be above par.

Death of Mrs. Parsley.

We regret very much to learn of the death of the venerable Mrs. Anna M. Parsley, relict of the late O. G. Parsley. The sad event occurred this afternoon, at the residence of on Third street. Mrs. Parsley was in her 75th year. She had been sick weeks, and her death was caused by pneumonia. She had a large circle of relatives and friends here, by istrations soothed her dying bed. She was the mother of Mr. O. G. Parsley, Postmaster here, Mr. Geo. stred, ley and of Mrs. Henry Savage, Mrs. gins. The gallant Col. William M. Parsley, of the Third N. C. Infantry, who yielded up his young life on the field of battle, was also her son.

Advice to old and young: In se lecting spectacles you should be cautious not to take more magnifying power than has been lost to the eye as in the same proportion that you pass that point of increase, will cause you further injury to the eye. Using glasses of stronger power than is necessary is the daily cause of premature old age to the sight. You can get the best at Heinsberger's.
