the only man who lost his temper and the only one who made an ass of himself. Messrs. Crisp and Turner, of Georgia, and Breckenridge, discussion. The best things they said have not yet been published here. We give them to-day. Mr. Crisp said:

The gentleman had spoken about honesty and had assumed a high moral position. When a gentleman assumed a high position of honesty the inquiry was natural whether there was anything in his character public to accept his statements. He then referred to the well known proceedings which took place in the Ohio State Senate when Mr. Kennedy, as Lientenant Governor, presided over it, stating that with but seventeen of the thirty-six members present the gentleman had entertained a motion to turn out four Democrats and sent four Republicans, and had refused to permit the Democratic members of the Senate. upon their return, to place on the journal a protest against the injus tice and iniquity of such a ruling. This was a circumstance by which gentlemen could determine what value should be placed on the opinion of the gentleman from Ohio on a question of honesty. (Applause on the Democratic side.) When it came to politics, the gentleman figured that seventeen was half of thirtysix. (Laughter.)

That was the kind of a gentleman who put himself on a high pinnacle of honesty, and said that he was a friend of the South and that he am, you couldn't hit a barn door.' wanted honesty and fair dealing down there. (Laughter.) The South and hard times and oppression, but he thanked God that it had not fallen so low that it would like to have the support of such friends as the gentleman from Ohio. (Laughter and applause.)

Mr. Breckinridge, of Arkansas, said that the gentleman from Ohio had referred to the resignation of four members of the Arkansas Legislature and had alluded to some gentleman on this floor who had ob tained a seat at the same election who had not resigned his commisorder that the House might judge of how thoroughly the gentleman prepared himself before he made his charges le would say to the gentleman that the election which sent those four members to the Legislature was held in September, while the Congressional election was in November. (Applause on the Dem ocratic side.) As a further evidence of the gentleman's thoroughness and impartiality, he would state that not one of those four members lived in his district. (Applause.) Mr. Turner, of Georgia, said that

We tried the prescriptions from several good doctors, but without any special benefit. We tried S. S. S., and by the time one bottle was gone her head began to heal, and by the time she had taken six bottles she was completely cured. Now she has a full and heavy head of hair—a robust, hearty child. CHATTANOOGA, TENN., June 27, 1888—The Swift Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga.—Gentlemen:
In 1886 I contracted blood poison, and at once sought a physician, who treated me for several months. By his advice I went to Crab Orchard Springs, Ky., where his course of treatment was carefully observed. I recovered, as I thought, but the next spring pimples began to appear on my face and body.
These gradually increased to sores and running ulcers. I was advised to try S. S. S., and immediately after taking it I commenced to improve, slowly at first, but more rapidly afterwards, and soon nothing remained to tell of my trouble. My blood is now thoroughly cleansed, and my system free from taint, and I owe my present condition—a perfect cure—to your medicine. I cheerfully give this statement that others who have suffered as I have may reap the same benefit.

HOMER, LA., May 25, 1888—The Swift Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga.—Gentlemen: About two years ago my general health gave way entirely. I was so debilitated that I almost despaired of ever feeling well again. All that the physicians done for me brought no permanent relief. Friends insisted that I should give S. S. S. a fair trial, although I thought it would be throwing away money. After taking a thorough course, my health and strength returned, and I must say that S. S. S. alone cured me, as I discarded all others while using it. As a tonic I can most heartily recommend it; for general debility, it certainly is a specific. W. F. BRIDGES, J. P.
