HARPER'S BAZAR will continue to maintai ts reputation as an unequalled family journal Its art illustrations are of the highest order, its tterature is of the choicest kind, and its Fashion and Household departments of the most ractical and economical character. Its patern-sheet supplements and fashion plates alone will save its readers ten times the cost of the subscription, and its articles on decorative art, social eliquette, house-keeping, cookery, etc., make it indispensable to every house-hold. Its bright short stories and timely essays are among the best published; and not a line is admitted to its columns that could often the broat factilities teste. end the most fastidious taste. Among the attractions of the new volume will be serial stories by Mrs. Frances Hodgson Burnett, Mrs. Alexander, William Black and Thomas Hardy, and a series of papers on nursery management by Mrs. Christine Terhune Herrick.

HARPER'S WEEKLY has a well-established place as the leading illustrated newspaper in America. The fairness of its editorial comments on current politics has earned for it the respect and confidence of all impartial readers, and the variety and excellence of its literary contents, which include serial and short stories by the best and most popular writers, fit it for the perusal of people of the widest range of tastes and pursuits. Supplements are frequently provided, and no expense is spared to bring the highest order of artistic ability to bear upon the illustration of the changeful phases of home and foreign history. A new work of fiction from the pen of William Dean Howells, and one by Charles King, will be among the leading features of the Weekly for 1889.
