

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. XIII.

WILMINGTON, N. C., MONDAY, MARCH 18, 1889.

NO 66.

The Clarke Factory are to make another big telescope. It is to be 50 per cent. more powerful than the Lick instrument.

Fifty plans for the new Episcopal cathedral in New York have thus far been discarded. There are twelve now under consideration.

It is said that the Sandwich Islanders would not care to be annexed to the United States. They are very well contented as they are.

The Detroit shipbuilders are very busy. There is an unprecedented activity in the shipyards there; vessels worth about $2,000,000 are now in course of construction.

Roger A. Pryor has again thought something. He thinks that, if the Solid South is let alone, it will eventually go to pieces on the protection shoal. So do not we.

Senator Chace, of Rhode Island, will resign. If the people of that State had an opportunity to express their honest sentiments some good, honest Democrat might get the place.

Yesterday's New York Herald is a regular jumbo. It is an octuple sheet and is a regular octopus, so far as news is concerned. It is as large as four eight page papers and there are over one hundred and five columns of advertisements in this one issue.

There is one office, and a big one at that, that literally goes a begging. It is the office of Sub-Treasurer at San Francisco. It pays $4,000 a year and a bond of a half million is required. The last man who held it paid a forged draft for $10,000 and had to charge that amount against his own account.

Senator Kenna says that West Virginia is all right, and he ought to know. He says that there are several other Democratic States that will go Republican before West Virginia does. They had a great deal to contend with there during the last election and it was a closer call, the Senator thinks, than may occur again in many years.

The following is a Richmond special to the New York Herald. It is all stuff and nonsense. Revolutions don't revolutionize. The negro has the suffrage and it cannot be taken away from him. The Republicans at the North would probably like to do so but it will never be done with the consent of the Democratic party.

Mr. Henry F. Flourney, Secretary of the Commonwealth, made a speech late last night before the Powhatan, Richmond's crack Democratic club, on the subject of the race problem. The speaker took strong grounds for the maintenance of the supremacy of the whites of the South. He declared that, in his opinion, the solution of the race problem would be the disfranchisement of the negro at the South. This, Secretary Flourney believes, will be accomplished by Northern men settling in the South and appreciating the great importance of the whites dominating. When imbued with this idea the domiciled Northerners would, in his opinion, create a sentiment in the North which would bring about this great political revolution.

Touching the issues of the coming State campaign in Virginia, Mr. Flourney declared that the race question should overshadow all other. "If," said he, "I were the chairman of the Democratic State Committee and a speaker mentioned the debt question or the tariff in the coming canvass, I would kick him out of the party."

These remarks were enthusiastically cheered by the meeting.

Election of Officers.
At the regular annual meeting of the Hibernian Benevolent Association, held yesterday, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

Vice President—J. H. Sweeney.
Secretary—William Managan.
Assistant Secretary—Wm. Sheehan.
Treasurer—L. Brown.

"Alas! alas! I've lost a day" he said so despairingly, that I naturally inquired how it happened. "Well, you see he said I've been half dead with a cold, and didn't know until to-day that I could cure it with one bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup."

Attention is invited to the dress-making ad, in this issue, at No. 16½ North Second street. The advertiser is well known to the ladies of Wilmington, as a dressmaker of taste and experience.

Col. B. R. Moore, Solicitor of the Criminal Court, was sworn in to-day for his third term. Mr. W. R. French, the newly appointed Clerk of the Court, was also sworn in this forenoon.

Criminal Court.
The March term of the Criminal Court for New Hanover county convened at the Court House in this city to-day. His Honor, Judge Meares, presiding. The following were drawn as the Grand Jury for the term: George Harris, foreman; W. F. Carpenter, B. F. Mills, J. C. Chase, John McEvoy, J. L. Breckenridge, John F. Rulfs, A. G. Hankins, J. H. Strauss, A. G. McGirt, S. H. Penny, J. M. Forshee.

Dr. Pete Baker.
March is a good month for the megrims and Pete Baker is a doctor in this line. He can cure them, for the time being at least. If he can't drive dull care out of a man for a few hours then it is a hopeless case. There is a good company behind him too, to help him in his humanitarian efforts. Those who call to see them at the Opera House to-night will laugh and grow fat, that is, if there is any room left on them for fat to grow.

City Court.
There was an unusually large attendance at the City Court to-day, even for Monday.

John Watson was arraigned on two counts. He was found guilty of disorderly conduct, and judgment was suspended, but he was sent on for trial before the Criminal Court on the charge of assault and battery. J. T. Edens was fined $10. Wm. Simpson was turned over to Justice Millis. Jesse Dickson was discharged. Joe Nathan was discharged. John Jacobson's case was continued until to-morrow. Mattie Johnson was fined $30 or 30 days and Wm. McDuffie was found guilty but judgment was suspended. These were all charged with disorderly conduct.

The Last of Earth.
The mortal remains of the lamented Mr. George R. French were laid away to rest yesterday beneath the shades of Oakdale. The interment took place in the family lot. The funeral services were held at the First Baptist Church, Rev. Dr. Pritchard delivering a powerful and effective funeral discourse. The attendance was very large—probably the largest concourse of citizens that has ever assembled in Wilmington to testify their appreciation of departed worth. The honorary pall bearers were Messrs. B. F. Mitchell, A. J. DeRosset, Wm. Larkins, Jas. G. Barr, Jas. H. Chadbourne, B. G. Worth, R. J. Jones and Samuel Northrop. The active pall bearers were all composed of young men in the employ of the house and were as follows: Messrs. J. D. Bell, W. C. Peterson, H. F. Otten, A. J. Cottingham, W. C. Smith, W. G. T. Keen, Wm. A. Willson, Jr., and Thos. C. Craft, Jr.

This Morning's Fire.
The alarm of fire at about half-past 12 o'clock this morning came from the store occupied by Mr. J. J. Smith, on South Front street, two doors North of Capt. Boatwright's store. It caught in the partition in the rear of the store and between that and the store on the corner of the alley occupied by a colored shoemaker by the name of George W. Robinson. A stove pipe passed through this partition and it is evident that the fire caught from the pipe. Mr. Smith was insured for $300 in the Western Insurance Company, represented by Mr. M. S. Willard, and the damage to the stock, which is slight and principally by water, is probably covered. The shoemaker had no insurance. His loss is probably $50. The building, which is but slightly damaged, is owned by Mrs. Mary E. Smith and was insured with Messrs. Smith & Boatwright in the Connecticut Fire Insurance Company, for $3,000.

Abendunterhaltung.

The entertainment to be given under the above title next Wednesday evening, at Luther Memorial Building, is for the benefit of the Organ Fund of the Lutheran Sunday School. The committee, consisting of the Misses Minna Schwarz, Annie Stemmerman and Fanny Knobloch, and the Messrs. W. H. Strauss and E. Schulken, with Mr. Paul M. Knobloch as chairman and general manager, have now completed all arrangements to assure all who attend a most pleasant evening, and if the previous entertainments can be considered as a criterion, it goes without saying the present affair will be a grand success. This committee have given our citizens on different occasions unique and highly interesting entertainments and we feel sure all who attend will enjoy themselves. The programme offered will be a creditable undertaking for the committee, and it will be carried out in full.

We have been allowed the privilege of a glimpse at the programme, the ladies seeming to prefer to let all who attend enjoy a surprise, not only in the rare order of music offered, but also as to other features of the entertainment. However, we are permitted to say that Miss Schwarz and Mr. Boatwright will render a piano duet, the Misses Ulrich and Stalter a vocal duet, Mrs. H. L. Vollers a vocal solo, Mr. Martin Rathjen, the popular president of the Germania Band will give a solo on his favorite instrument, the bass horn, and of which, no doubt, he is the best player in the State; Mr. Boatwright, besides accompanying several pieces on the piano, will also give a vocal solo, which, as our contemporary, the Messenger says, will be as popular as himself. The Misses Bissinger and Stalter will also render a vocal duet. Master Carl Rehder, the boy cornetist, will give the public his first bow in company with his clever brother, Mr. John Rehder, which latter gentleman, with Mr. Sim Schloss, will play several cornet duos, and we might say right here, if you want to hear two of the best cornetists in the State, go and hear them. Mr. Henry F. Otten will render a recitation, which he says will surprise his friends, and we believe him. Miss Schwarz will, besides singing in the quintette to be mentioned, will give a vocal solo which will show her voice off well. The quintette referred to is to be under the direction of one of our best organists; the four gentlemen composing the quintette with Miss Schwarz will give their many friends an opportunity to hear some extra good music and the male quartette, composed of the gentlemen referred to, will also be very fine.

A treat like this will not often be offered our citizens. See advertisement.
