We have written elsewhere of the as it should be called—and since it was in hand we have received a note from Mr. F. Donlan, Superintendent of Oakdale Cemetery, which gives a distressing account of the damage done in that beautiful "City of the Dead." Mr. Donlan says that the destruction there has been great and that never in his life has he seen anything like it.

Beautiful plants and shrubs and even trees are broken and lie scattered all over the ground. The change from 6 p. m. to 6 a. m. was heard rending. Mr. Donlan says that he could have gathered cartloads of hailstones this morning as large as partridge eggs.

Seaman's Friend Society.

A called meeting of the Trustees was held in the parlor of the Home at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon with Vice President Geo. Harris in the chair. The members present were Mr. B. F. Mitchell, Mr. R. E.
Heide, Dr. T. B. Carr, Capt. W. P.
Oldham, Mr. L. Hansen, Col. F. W.
Kerchner, Mr. James Sprunt and Capt. E. W. Manning.

The Vice President stated that the meeting was called to take suitable action in regard to the death of Mr.
George R. French, late President of the Society.

On motion a committee, consisting of Messrs. W. P. Oldham and R.
E. Heide, was appointed to draft resolutions expressive of the esteem in which he was held by the Society, who after consultation presented the following statement and resolutions which were unanimously adopted and ordered spread upon the minutes:

George R. French was one of the founders of the Wilmington Hospital Association, organized in 1855.
At the first annual meeting held by them he was elected one of the Board of Managers, April, 24th 1856. The Wilmington Marine Hospital Association was merged into the Seaman's Friend Society which had been incorporated in the year 1852. All of the assets were consolidated into the Seaman's Friend Society. Mr. French was then elected Corresponding Secretary. He held that position until the society became self sustaining. In 1853 he was elected one of the Trustees and served in this capacity until 1871 when he was elected President and has filled this position for eighteen consecutive years, being elected annually to this office up to the time of his death, March 15th, 1889, at 6:30 o'clock a. m. at which time his soul took its flight.
The Seaman's Friend Society now wish to place on record some token of the high appreciation in which their leader was held and a tribute to his memory. Therefore be it Resolved, That by the death of brother George R. French, the Sea-man's Friend Society has lost one of her best, truest and most devoted members, one who was always giving good counsel and willing to render substantial aid, faithful in the discharge of all his duties and devoted to the Society's interest. His influence with the parent society in New York has always been for her good. In manner he has always been kind, gentle and courteous.

His life has been protracted to well near four score years and ten, he being in his eighty-eighth year when called from labor to refreshment.

Resolved, That the resolutions be entered upon the Record Book of this Society and a copy be sent to the Seaman's Aid Society of New York; also, to the family of our deceased President, friend and fellow member, with our sincere sympathy in this their great bereavement.

Remarks eulogistic of the life and services of the late President were feelingly and tenderly made by Mr.
B. F. Mitchell, Dr. T. B. Carr, Rev.
W. M. Kennedy and Mr. R. E. Heide.

On motion of Capt. W. P. Oldham, Col. Roger Moore was unanimously elected to fill the vacancy on the Board of Trustees.

On motion of Mr. B. E. Heide, Vice President Geo. Harris was unanimously elected President of the Society.

On motion of Capt. E. W. Manning, Mr. R. E. Heide was unanimously elected Vice President of the Society.

On motion of Mr. James Sprunt, Col. F. W. Kerchner was unanimously elected a member of the Executive Committee.

The Committee on Rental and Repairs, through Capt. W. P. Oldham, reported the repairs to the Seaman's Bethel nearly completed; also, an itemized statement of the cost, amounting to $391.08. The report was received and ordered on file.

The thanks of the Trustees were tendered by vote to the committee for the thorough and efficient manner in which they had performed their duty and power was given them to finish the work.

DIED.
TEACHY—Departed this life, March 16th, at the residence of her husband, Arnold Teachy, MARY ALICE TEACHY, aged 38 years and 8 days. An affectionate wife, a fond and loving mother and consistent member of the Presbyterian Church has passed away from the scenes of time to mingle on the eternal shore with loved ones gone before.
For we know, if this earthly house of our tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, a house not made with hands, eternal and on high, and the comforting words to the sorrowing, with the cheering hope of the Christian and words of warning to the careless, spoken on her funeral occasion, by the aged and beloved minister, the Rev. D. B.
Black, will long be remembered by his hearers.
