The Daily Review.

JOSH. T. JAMES, Editor & Prop'r. WILMINGTON, N. C.

FRIDAY, MARCH 22, 1889.

Entered at the Postoffice at Wilmington, N. C., as second-class matter.

Gen. Longstreet is said to be booked for the office of Commissioner of Railroads, now held by Gen. Joe Johnston, his fellow Confederate.

The outlook in the financial world of Europe at the present moment is anything but good.

This statement is frequently seen going the rounds of the newspapers that the whole product of the champagne country of France is absorbed by the cellars of the royal families and nobility of Europe.

What pure air is to an unhealthy locality, what spring cleaning is to the neat housekeeper, so is Hood's Sarsaparilla to everybody.

Consumption Surely Cured. To the EDITOR—Please inform your readers that I have a positive remedy for the above named disease.

The Parsees are the only Orientals who do not smoke. A SAD STORY. The child coughed. The mother ran. No remedy was near.

Detectives Wanted, to ferret out and discover, if they can, a single case where Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has been used for torpid liver, indigestion, impure blood, or constipation in its early stages.

A Woman's Discovery.

"Another wonderful discovery has been made and that too by a lady in this county. Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent.

Sunday school teacher—'Willie, have you had anything the during week to be especially thankful for?' Willie—'Yes m. Johnny Podgers sprained his wrist, and I licked him for the first time yesterday.'—Burlington Free Press.

Reassuring—Irish surgeon (to patient whose legs he has just amputated)—'And now, my good fellow, cheer up. Keep a stiff upper lip and remain calm, and in six weeks, I will pledge you my word, I'll have you on your feet again.'—Lies.

The Grand Prairie, Chicago and Tallahassee Railroad is trying to float $7,000,000 eighth mortgage bonds to pay for the cowcatchers which the Inter State Commerce act compels them to put on their vestibule trains.—N. Y. Sun.

Young Lady—'Anything new in writing paper?' Dealer—'Yes, miss, we have one new style ugly enough to give folks a fit and so rough that no human being can write on it.'—How cute! Give me a box!—Phila Record.

'This tipping business in New York has got to be a perfect nuisance,' growled Spixius. 'At a hotel you must tip the waiter, and tip the chambermaid, and tip the porter; and by George, if you meet a lady acquaintance on the street you are expected to tip your hat.'—Siftings.

Policeman (to keeper of Morgue)—'Mr. White, the capt'n wants to know if ye have the body of a man here about forty five years of age.' Keeper White—'Had he any peculiarities?' Policeman—'Yes, he was deaf and dumb.'—N. Y. News.

An Imperative Necessity. What pure air is to an unhealthy locality, what spring cleaning is to the neat housekeeper, so is Hood's Sarsaparilla to everybody.

An Indiana man recently ate sixty two raw eggs on a wager.

The Parsees are the only Orientals who do not smoke. A SAD STORY. The child coughed. The mother ran.

Dyspepsia. Makes the lives of many people miserable, and often leads to self-destruction.

Distress After Eating. It requires careful, persistent attention, and a remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which acts gently, yet surely and efficiently.

Sick Headache. I have been troubled with dyspepsia. I had but little appetite, and what I did eat I had little good in.

Heart-burn. I had but little appetite, and what I did eat I had little good in.

Sour Stomach. I had but little appetite, and what I did eat I had little good in.

Richmond, Va., Dec. 15, 1888.—I have taken three bottles of Swift's Specific for secondary blood poison. It acts much better than any other remedy I have ever used.

Dr. E. J. Hale, the well-known druggist and physician of Nashville, Howard County, Ark., writes: 'Having some knowledge as to what S. S. S. is composed of, I can safely recommend it as the remedy for all skin diseases, it matters not what the name may be.'

We have a book giving a history of this wonderful remedy, and its cures, from all over the world, which will convince you that all we say is true, and which we will mail free on application.

Write us a history of your case, and our physician will advise you by letter, in strictest confidence. We will not deceive you knowingly.
