A Nuisance Abated. Officer Turlington this morning shot and killed a stray dog which has for some time past taken up her quarters on premises at the corner of Third and Mulberry streets. She was a vicious brute and would snap at people passing in the street and had bitten two persons. She had become a great nuisance to the residents of that section and many at tempts had been made in vain to catch or kill her. Mayor Fowler passed there this morning and she snapped at him. He drew his pistol and she seized the muzzle between her teeth. He fired and she ran off wounded, but not dead. Officer Turlington then followed her up and killed her.
