THURSDAY, APRIL 4, 1889.

Entered at the Postoffice at Wilmington, N.C. as second-class matter.

The Republican leaders evidently fear the united Democracy of Ohio. can find no candidate for Governor. The ambitious statesmen don't care to be slaughtered in an off year. Governor Foraker declares that nothing could induce him to become a candidate for reelection, and Gen. Asa A. Bushnell and Congressman W. L. Morey are quite sure that they would not accept the nomination if it were tendered them.

Eighty thousand pounds of bones form a part of the cargo which the British steamer Wingates, from icle. Alexandria, Egypt, brought to New York a few days since. There were many human bones among the num ber. Egypt has become a great source of supply for bones. The cargo of the Wingates was bought of a and they ask altogether: "I wonder German dealer in Alexandria, who has made a fortune by his business. He sends out caravans into the desert and there the natives glean a harvest without any other effort than picking it up. The great quantity of bones now found is the ac cumulation of thousands of years. Those who died were quickly buried in a foot or two of sand, and thus every strong wind that blows reveals new mines of ghastly treasures. The Egyptians who gather them have only one scruple about sending their fathers' skeletons to be come American fertilizers. They will not send the skulls. These are carefully buried again by the collectors.

New York city, in a letter to Clarence W. Bowen, secretary of the Washington Centennial Celebration Committee, suggests a new feature for the celebration on the last of April. Her suggestion is that "the managers of the theatres unite in placing upon the stage on the evening of the 30th of April some of the old plays which Washington went to see in the little John Street Theain New York, or plays that would represent him in some of the scenes the country is about to celebrate. It would be easy to find 'Wignalls' Darky,' which Washington thought dier,' 'Every One has his Faults, and the 'School for Scandal.' On the particular evening of April 30th the city will be crowded with visitors who cannot get into the hall or occupy their time in any satisfactory way germane to the occasion, and this would have a great effect on the multitude who would otherwise encumber the streets."

The wide awake citizens of Atlanta, Ga., have subscribed the amount necessary to secure an exposition next fall. The plans of the executive committee for the coming show are cast on large and broad lines. On motion of Mr. Henry W Grady, editor of the Atlanta Consti. ution, the executive committee unanimously adopted a resolution providing for the appointment of a committee of five prominent citizens to go to the City of Mexico, call on President Diaz, of the Mexican Republic, and arge him to visit Atlanta during the exposition as the guest of the city and the exposition com pany. Mr. Grady added that he did not make this request lightly, but had reason to believe that the exposition would do well to send a strong committee to Mexico. A con vention of the Republics of North America, Central America and South America is to be held in Washington during the month of October, and proper steps now taken, he thought, would secure the presence of the representatives of each of that at times I could hardly stand. She's Much Older than Her Husband.' We heard a young girl make the above remark the other day about a lady with whom we are slightly acquainted. It was not true, yet the lady in question actually does look five years older than her husband, although she is really several years his junior. She is prematurely aged, and functional derangement is the cause. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription would cure her, and should be recommended to her, and to all others who are in the same condition. If the reader of this chances to be a similar sufferer, let her get the "Prescription." It will bring back her lost beauty, and, better still, it will remove all those distressing symptoms which have made life a burden to her so long. Money re-funded if it don't give satisfaction. "For want of a nail, a shoe was lost; for want of a shoe, a horse was lost; for want of a horse, a rider was lost." Never neglect small things. The first signs of pneumonia and consumption can positively be check ed by Dr. Acker's English Remedy for Consumption. Munds Brothers, druggists.

If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to take any other. Hood's Sarsaparilla is a peculiar medicine, possessing, by virtue of its peculiar combination, proportion, and preparation, curative power superior to any other article. A Boston lady who knew what she wanted, and whose example is worthy imitation, tells her experience below:

"In one store where I went to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla the clerk tried to induce me buy their own instead of Hood's; he told me their's would last longer; that I might take it on ten days' trial; that if I did not like it I need not pay anything, etc. But he could not prevail on me to change. I told him I knew what Hood's Sarsaparilla was. I had taken it, was satisfied with it, and did not want any other.

When I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla I was feeling real miserable, suffering great deal with dyspepsia, and so weak and had for some time, like a person in consumption. Hood's Sarsaparilla did me so much good that I wonder at myself sometimes, and my friends frequently speak of it." MRS

MISCELLANEOUS.

An Important Announcement About six weeks ago, while at bu About six weeks ago, while at business. I was suddenly attacked with excruciating pains in my feet, knees and hands. So severe the attack that I took my bed immediately, and in two or three days my joints were swollen to almost double their natural size, and sleep was driven from me. After suffering the most excruciating pain for a week, using liniments and various other remedies, a friend who sympathized with my heipless condition, said to me:

"Why don't you get Swift's Specific and use it. I will guarantee a cure, and if it does not the medicine shall cost you nothing."

I at once secured the S. S. S., and after using it the first day, had a quiet night and refreshing sleep. In a week I felt greatly benefitted. In three weeks I could sit up and walk about the room, and after using six bottles I was out and able to go to business. Since then I have been regularly at my post of duty, and stand on my feet from nine to ten hours a day, and am entirely free from pain. These are the plain and simple facts in my case, and I will cheerfully answer all inquiries relative thereto, either in person or by mail.
