A Pleasing Sense

Of health and strength renewed and of ease and comfort follows the use of Syrup of Figs, as it acts in harmony with nature to effectually cleanse the system when costive or bilious. For sale in 50c. and $1.00 bottles by all leading druggists.

Sunday School Convention.

The delegates to the Sunday School Convention at Charlotte have returned to the city, the Convention having adjourned yesterday. Mr. Geo. Chadbourn, President of the New Hanover County Sunday School Convention, and Mr. John C. Davis, of this city, were selected as delegates to the World's Sunday School Convention, which will be held in London in July next.

$500 Not Called For.

It seems strange that it is necessary to persuade men that you can cure their diseases by offering a premium to the man who fails to receive benefit. And yet Dr. Sage undoubtedly cured thousands of cases of obstinate catarrh with his "Catarrh Remedy," who would never have applied to him, if it had not been for his offer of the above sum for an incurable case. Who is the next bidder for cure or cash?

The dullest part of the dullest season of the year is on us now. Rain is sorely needed. The dust is becoming almost unbearable.

The steamer Louise brought up during the last month from points down the river over 300 shad.

Several fishing parties projected for to day were postponed because the wind was not in the right quarter.

Mr. R. H. J. Ahrens is having a brick sidewalk laid in front of his store, corner Seventh and Market streets.

The Germania Cornet Band have kindly volunteered their services for Memorial Day and will head the procession on that occasion.

The grape vines are putting forth their leaves and some of the wise ones aver that there will be no more cold weather; that the grape never gets fooled.

Workmen are engaged in putting wire netting over the beautiful stained-glass windows in St. Paul's Episcopal Church, to protect them from the small boy genus.

Wide Awake for April.

An interesting portrait of John Burroughs at twenty opens the April Wide Awake, as frontispiece; this engraving accompanies Mr. Burroughs' own story of his boyhood, "The Boy John Burroughs; a Glimpse Backward." Another excellent piece is by an English writer—Mrs. Blathway, entitled "Raleigh and the Potato;" this gives by courtesy of the National Gallery, Dublin, Ireland, a portrait of Lady Raleigh, Sir Walter's wife, also engravings from photographs made especially for Wide Awake, of Hayes-Barton farmhouse (Sir Walter's birthplace), of the Raleigh place of worship, the church at Budleigh Salterton, also Sir Walter's residence at Youghal, Ireland, a most picturesque spot, and the garden where the first potatoes were planted in Ireland. "A Dash for a Flag" is a spirited story of the civil war. "The Little Girl of the Okobojo" is the tale of a great Western river freshet. "The Cascaroni Dance," beautifully illustrated by Garrett, gives instructions for a joyous Easter game. "Daisy's Letters to Pattie," has a letter that ought to interest the parents of all school girls. The Public School Cookery article has helpful diagrams for "marketing." The romantic story of the famous Braganza diamond is told by Mrs. Goddard Orpen. "Men and Things," the new department, is full to overflowing. The poems of the number are particularly good. Wide Awake is $2.40 a year. D. Lothrop Company, Publishers, Boston.

Charged With Poisoning His Wife.

A white man by the name of Bryant Carroll, a fisherman, was arrested yesterday in Brunswick county charged with the murder of his wife. An inquest was held during the afternoon by the coroner, Mr. J. E. Williams. The principal witnesses was Mrs. Blandy Janney, an old lady nearly 80 years of age, and Carroll's aunt, with whom the couple lived. Mrs. Janney testified that Carroll came home Wednesday at noon. His wife was at work in the garden and her aunt called to her to come and get dinner for her husband. After dinner was over, the old lady said, she was in an adjoining room when she heard Mrs. Carroll scream as if in pain and ask her husband what he had given her. Carroll had given his wife a drink of wine out of a bottle, and Mrs. Janney found her very sick, the woman dying about an hour afterwards in convulsions.

Yesterday Drs. G. G. Thomas and T. S. Burbank, of this city, went over to the place and made a post mortem examination. The result of this investigation was not made known, but some parts of the body and the bottle containing what was left of the wine were sent to the State Chemist at Raleigh for analysis. Carroll was arrested Wednesday evening and committed to jail, pending a further investigation. Carroll had very little to say about his wife's death, beyond denying the charge that he caused it.

Carroll is only about 24 years old while his wife is at least ten years his senior. He married her in Johnston county about four years ago and only recently returned to Brunswick county.

Concert and Book Reception.

The sacred concert and book reception at Grace M. E. Church last night was in every way a success. There was a large attendance and not only many handsome and valuable books presented to the Sunday School library but a handsome sum in money was contributed towards the purchase of books. The management was in the hands of Mr. James W. King, Superintendent of the Sunday School, and Mr. Jas. F. Post, Jr., Chairman of the Library Committee, and these gentlemen are to be congratulated on the success of their efforts. The musical programme was as follows:

SPRING ANNOUNCEMENT!

We congratulate our patrons and friends upon the return of the genial SPRING SEASON. It is always a pleasant relief to exchange the heavier and more sombre apparel of WINTER for the lighter and brighter wear of SPRING. But this pleasure is enhanced when the styles and colors which FASHION has set her seal upon for the season are so attractive and tasteful as they are at the present time. The very best advertisement of our goods would be the goods themselves could they be sent around for general inspection.

By way of preliminary we may say that we have brought our long business experience and knowledge of local tastes to the selection of the goods we offer and with a result which we hope will be as gratifying to our customers as to ourselves.
