Burgaw's Town Government.

The following constitute the Mayor and Board of Commissioners of the town of Burgaw, elected on the first Monday in this month:

The Breeze House.

The Ocean View R. R. Co. will build a large dining room at the terminus of their road, to be known as the "Breeze House," which will be placed in charge of Mrs. W. E. Mayo of this city, the same lady who has so successfully, for many years past, kept the well known Mayo House at the Rocks.

What They Caught.

A party of Market street merchant princes went over to Alligator Creek on a fishing frolic this after noon. They found the rice fields flooded, the fish shy and the gnats simply ferocious. They walked a mile there and a mile back and didn't have anything stronger than ditch water to drink. They caught -well, they caught a few gnats on the fly and a few fish nearly three ston. inches long.

on the Seacoast R. R. which left here at 7:30 carried down four coaches, all well filled. It was a beautiful night, with a full moon and a clear sky, and just cool enough to make dancing enjoyable. There was a german at the hotel on the Hummocks and between the dancing and rambles on the seashore the time sped all too quickly. The train returned to the city after midnight.

Rather Sudden Death.

Mr. N. J. McDuffie, of Fork, S. C. died this morning at the Sutton House, about 10 o'clock, of pneumonia. He was a traveling salesman for Mr. Sol. Bear and had been in his employment about a year. He was 27 years old. He was taken sick only last Saturday with a hard chill. His father and mother were telegraphed for but when they ar rived yesterday he did not know either of them. His remains will be taken to South Carolina this even ing for interment there.

Another Ice Factory.

We understand that there is a movement now on foot here to or ganize an ice company and start another ice factory. We are told that one gentleman has said that he will agree to furnish the machinery himself and take stock in the new company to that amount, provided an amount of stock shall be sub scribed and the money raised equal in value to the cost of the machinery. The fact that the season is already well advanced is recognized but notwithstanding this it is said that an effort will be made to inaug. urate the enterprise at once.

"From a Foreign Shore." The Passport is here at last. She arrived safely last evening, having left New York a week ago last Saturday. It is evident that she has not been treated very kindly by the strangers among whom she has been sojourning. She looks somewhat battered and bruised but she will be put through a course of thorough renovation and will in a few days look herself again.

She has always been a great favorite here and many are looking forward eagerly to the pleasure of treading her decks once more.

City Court.

The Mayor had quite a large docket to dispose of this morning: John Gilmore, disorderly conduct, $20 or 30 days.

John E. Lodge and John Bonsall were charged with harboring an escaped prisoner. They were found not guilty and discharged.

Jas. Collins, disorderly conduct, not guilty. Peter J. Owens, disorderly con luct, not guilty. Ed. Edwards, assault and battery with a deadly weapon, bound over to the next term of Criminal Court in the sum of $100 justified bond.
