At about half-past 8 o'clock, after the conducted and its graves decorated. lodge had been duly opened, a recess was taken in order to listen to some pleasant music which had been prepared for the occasion. The first piece was instrumental, "The Shepherd Boy," and was given by Rev. F. W. E. Peschau, violin, and his daughter, Miss Maggie Peschau, laid across the Railway Bridge "The Orphan's Plea," song and on the organ. This was followed by chorus, of which we have previous. ly spoken. The vocalists were the Misses Minnie Glamayer, Cora Peschau and Louisa Strauss; soprancs, Norma Foster, alto, and Maj. H. H. Foster, bass; the accompaniment by Miss Maggie Peschau, organ, and Rev. F. W. E. Peschau, violin. The song and music, which is very at tractive and is the composition of Rev. F. W. E. Peschau, was rendered doubly interesting by the sweet voices of the young lady singers, whose ages ranged from twelve down to eight years. They sang in The Time table will be as follows: perfect time and tune, with a clear enunciation really remarkable, and their efforts, as well as the playing just issued, there are but 87 names of Miss Maggie Peschan on the organ, were highly appreciated by names of females and of things, such the large assemblage for beauty of A rendition and correctness of time

FOR GENTLEMEN.

We have just opened the second supply of these admirable goods. For health and comfort they are greatly superior to the Balbriggans and Lisle Thread garmenls generally used. Composed of Camel's Hair and natural Wool, they thoroughly absorb perspiration and produce a healthful glow of the skin, thus avoiding the chilly and unpleasant feeling experienced in wearing the ordinary garment. These goods are used, approved and recommended by one of the most eminent physicians in the State. Gentlemen are invited to call and examine.
