Convincing Proof.
In many instances it has been proven that B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm), made by the Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, Ga., will cure blood poison in its worst phases, even when all other treatment fails.
A. P. Brunson, Atlanta, Ga., writes: "I had running ulcers on one leg and on the other and felt greatly prostrated. I believe I actually swallowed a barrel of medicine in vain efforts to cure the disease. With little hope I finally acted on the urgent advice of a friend and used a bottle of B. B. B. I experienced a change, and my despondency was somewhat dispelled. I kept using it until I had taken sixteen bottles, and all the ulcers, rheumatism and all other horrors of blood poison had disappeared and at last I am sound and well again, after an experience of twenty years of torture." Edw. Ward, Maxey, Ga., writes: "My disease was pronounced a tertiary form of blood poison. My face, head and shoulders were a mass of corruption, and finally the disease began eating my skull bones. My bones ached; my kidneys were deranged; I lost flesh and strength, and life became a burden. All said I must surely die, but nevertheless, when I used ten bottles of B. B. B. I was produced well. Hundreds of scars can now be seen on me. I have now been well over twelve months."

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. XIII. WILMINGTON, N. C., SATURDAY, JUNE 1, 1889. NO 129.

Heavy falls of snow and killing frosts are reported from various points in the North, altogether with destructive wind and rain storms.

At New Orleans, Judges Hardee and Billings, of the U. S. Circuit Court, yesterday decided the drainage warrant case, involving $1,200, 000, in favor of the city.

Probably a hundred or a people were drowned at Johnstown, Pa., yesterday by the bursting of a reservoir above the town whereby houses and their occupants were swept away.

Orders have been issued from Washington for the immediate completion of the double turretted monitor Amphitrite, now lying at a shipyard at Wilmington, Del. She will be completed at the League Island navy yard.

The Committee on Elections yesterday made a report to the Rhode Island Legislature stating that 75 to 100 men had been bribed to vote for John S. Sheffield, Jr., Republican, who now holds a seat in that body. The price paid ranging from $25 to $100 per vote.

In the ten months ended April 30, 1889, the number of immigrants who arrived in the United States was 318,307, against 372,901 during the corresponding period of the previous year. The greatest decline is in immigration from Italy, which has fallen in these two periods from 34, 037 to 15,846.

Secretary Windom yesterday signed the sailing orders of the revenue steamer Bear, one of the vessels designated by the President to assist in the enforcement of laws for the protection of the Alaskan seal fisheries. The revenue steamer Push is also detailed for service, and is expected to sail from San Francisco for Behring's sea immediately.

The Democrats of Ohio are now engaged in holding county conventions for the election of delegates to the State Convention, and the nomination of legislative and county tickets. So far, in almost every instance, the conventions have adopted resolutions strongly endorsing the late Administration of President Cleveland, and reaffirming the principles of the Democratic platform of 1888.

The Rt. Rev. Octavius Hadfield, Bishop of Wellington, who has been elected to the Primacy of New Zealand by the local Anglican Synod, is in his 74th year, and was educated at the Charterhouse and Pembroke College, Oxford. He was the first Deacon ordained in Sydney, the first clergyman ordained in New Zealand, and the first Bishop consecrated without letters patent from the Crown.

The idea of a strike is so prevalent in European air that even the 50 donkey boys who were brought over from Cairo by an Egyptian to take care of the donkeys in the Exposition organized and marched to the restaurant where the manager was dining, and, after violent speeches in Arabic, the owner of the tavern was obliged to put up his shutters.
The Egyptian consul finally inter-ferred in behalf of the owners.

University, will preach at the Central Baptist Church, corner of Seventh and Red Cross streets, to-morrow, both morning and night.

Some of our city churches have changed their hour for evening services to 8:15 o'clock. It would be a matter of convenience to churchgoers if all would adopt the same hour.

One or two public entertainments will be given in this city next week for the benefit of the Oxford Orphan Asylum, by a chapter of eight orphans, under the charge of Miss Hudgins.

Rev. W. S. Creasy returned to the city from Lumberton, N. C., on yesterday. He will preach the sermon of the 67th anniversary of the Robeson County Bible Society and also another sermon by invitation in the

The mass meeting of Grace, Fifth Street and Bladen Street Methodist Sabbath Schools, which was postponed from the third Sabbath in May on account of the inclement weather, will take place at Grace Church to-morrow afternoon at four o'clock.

The Saturday weekly half holiday commenced to day and continues until the 1st of September, and those houses who engage in it may expect their employees to enjoy better health and to do more faithful work during the busy season.

Mr. James Smith, who recently accepted a position in the shops of the W. C. & A. R. Co. at Florence, returned home last night. He had the misfortune yesterday to get a shiver of red hot iron in one of his eyes and has suffered considerably in consequence.

Oak Grove Cemetery.

Another Robbery.

On Wednesday night, during the storm, thieves broke into the kitchen of Mr. Sylvanus Holden, 100 North Ninth street, and stole everything in the way of provisions they could find, taking also a new coffee pot and a sieve. Entrance was effected by breaking a pane of glass from the window in the rear of the building and removing a screw which had been securely fastened in the frame-work. The robbery was evidently committed by some one familiar with the premises.
