Dearer Every Day. They said I would cease to love her When her freshness showed decay: They were wrong, for as the river Wears its channel more away, Deeper grew my love, and clearer Seemed her beauties in display. She grew older-she grew dearer-Dearer every day.

Had I loved her for her beauty, Had her heart been simply clay, Then might mine have ceased its worship;

But her truth's resplendent ray Filled my soul and drew me nearer To the fount where sweetness lay. Still the older, still the dearer-Dearer every day.

Age has laid its hand upon her-Do I realize it? Nay, Her youth's bloom my heart remem

Killing Them Off.

When a stranger makes his appearance in the back woods of Maine he is naturally presumed to be on the lookout for game. Last summer a distinguished prelate of the Episcopal church found himself will contain a panorama of the old orld stranded in a small village in that region, and was compelled to put up at a farm house.

"Do you have many Episcopalians down here?" he inquired of the very hospitable hostess.

"Well, really now, I don't know," she answered. "Our hired man shot some sort of a queer critter down back of the barn the other day, but he claimed it was a woodchuck."-Boston Herald.

Advice to Mothers.

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the cnild from pain, and the little cher-ub awakes as "bright as button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhea, whether arising RPER'S BAZAR Will continue to maintain from teething or other causes. Scribner's Magazine For 1889.

The publishers of SCRIBNER'S MAGAZINE aim to make it the most popular and enter-prising of periodicals, while at all times pre-serving its high literary character. 25,000 new readers have been drawn to it during the past six months by the increased excellence of its contents (notably the Railway articles), and it closes its second year with a new impetus and an assured success. The illustrations will show some new effects, and nothing to make SCRIBNER'S MAGAZINE attractive and interesting will be neglected.
THE RAILWAY ARTICLES will be continued by several very striking papers; one espe-cially interesting by Ex-Postmaster General Thomas L. James on "The Railway Postal Ser-Illustrated.

MR. ROBERT LOUIS STEVENSON'S seria novel "The Master of Ballantrae," will run through the greater part of the year, Begun in November.

A CORRESPONDENCE and collection o. manuscript memoirs relating to J. F. Millet and a famous group of modern French Painters will furnish the substance of several articles.

Rilustrated.

Rilustrated. The bricf end papers written last year by Robert Louis Stevenson, will be replaced by equally interesting contributions by differe t famous authors. Mr. Thomas Bailey Aldrich will write the first of them for the January

Many valuable LITERARY ARTICLES will appear; a paper on Walter Scott's Method of Work, illustrated from original MSS., a second "Shelf of Old Books," by Mrs. James T Fields, and many other articles equally noteworthy Illustrated

Papers are arranged to appear by Clarence Cook, E. H. Blashfield, Austin Dobson and Illustrated. many others.

FISHING ARTICLE describing sport in the best fishing grounds will appear. Salmon, Winninish, Bass and Tarpon are the subjects now arranged. The authors, are well known sportsmen. Illustrated.
ILLUSTRATED ARTICLES of great variety, Illustrated. touching apon all manner of subjects, travel, biography, description, etc., will appeaa, but not of the conventional commonplace sort.

Among the most interesting in the list of scientific papers for the year will be a remarkable article by Prof. John Trowbridge, upon the most recent developments and uses of PHOTOGRAPHY. Illustrated.

A class of articles which has proved of spe-cial interest will be continued by a group of papers upon ELECTRICITY in its most recent applications, by eminent authorities; a remarkable paper on DEEP MINING, and other interesting papers.
